Question Presented

The issue is clear with the state cases 2013GS100945 and 2013GS100946 regarding the need to move the cases from a state court into a federal court under 28 U.S.C, Sec 1455. The reasoning is for the constant violation of Rule 902 regarding the sovereign country of Japan, the manipulation of court transcripts, and the jury selection process being manipulated by the website of the Charleston County Clerk of Court.

The question is whether a United States district court in Charleston, South Carolina can remove a state case to a federal capacity regarding manipulation of the Charleston County Clerk of Court website, court transcripts, and Rule 902 documents regarding a foreign judgment in a state court under South Carolina Code of Law, Chpt. 35, Art. 11, Sec. 15-35-910? As the legal system in the State of South Carolina Court System has been exhausted on the matter of the Charleston County Clerk of Court. Also, the issue of racial hatred against Native Americans in South Carolina through U.S. Civil Rights Act of 1964 is apparent throughout South Carolina history dating all the way back to the Yemmassee War, and the formation of the penal colony of Georgia for the conspirators that started the Yemmassee War. In regards to the aforementioned, can a Native American that has petitioned for federal recognition be allowed a fair trial from a state that is adamant through population, showing a hatred for Native Americans, and in understanding that Glynndeavin von Fox is Native American under a petition number with the Bureau of Indian Affairs?

Opinions Below

---

The denial of In Forma Pauperis in the matter with the South Carolina Court of Appeals After the Dismissal of the Lower District Court, and Rule 13 of the United States of America Supreme Court is being invoked to hear the matter under Jurisprudence of Appellant Court denial.

Jurisdiction

---

The South Carolina Court of Appeals made the In Forma Pauperis Denial Order on the 20th of March, 2017.

Constitutional and Statutory Provisions Involved

---

The constitutional and statutory provisions involved Civil Rights Act of 1964, 28 U.S.C, Sec. 1455, South Carolina Code of Law, Chpt. 35, Art. 11, Sec. 15-35-910, South Carolina Const. Art. 1, Sec 3.

Statement of the Cases

---

The court movements of the State of South Carolina violate numerous issues regarding the United States of America federal code of law. The most gave violations of South Carolina towards Glynndeavin von Fox include the Civil Rights Act of 1964 towards the executive branch of South Carolina as, Glynndeavin von Fox is both a Santee (Santé) Indian and a Kiawah-Edistoe Indian with federal petitions, and South Carolina Code of Law creation by the same executive branch that oppresses. The use of websites to reach audiences with information that is not only false, but in the sovereign country of Japan non-existent, by Glynndeavin von Fox, and the entrance of order by the Supreme Court of Japan. There is no way in the history of the State of South Carolina from the creation of the British colony regarding the Yemmassee War, with the South Carolina Indian Trade Commission, and into the constant testing of the United States of America regarding situations similar to the Morrill Tariff on Glynndeavin von Fox as a Santee (Santé) Indian that allows for South Carolina Code of Law enforcement on a Native American. No other state in the Union has tried to test federal policy, and the issue with the United States of America and South Carolina are clearly shown in the South Carolina governor on Capitol Hill protesting for property that is not state leased or owed in a terrorist from Guantanamo Bay, Cuba to South Carolina.

Reason for Granting the Petition

---

The reason for granting this petition is the clear violation of the South Carolina Const. Art. 1, Sec. 3 for Due Process of connection to the United States of America Constitution.

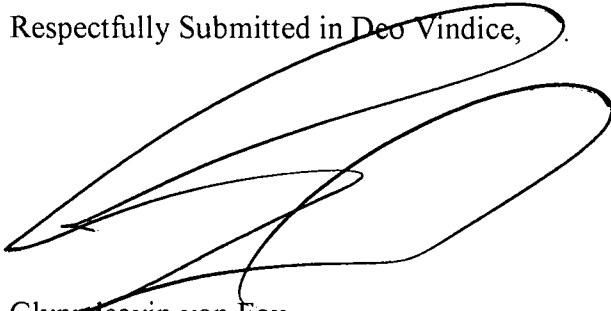

---

Conclusion

---

Accordingly, the petition for a Writ of Certiorari should be granted.
