RE: Israel Wilds, 274010 v. State of South Carolina; 2003-CP-40-05973.
Appellate Case No: 2008-092411

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

My Reply to the Return filed by SCCID in response to my reimbursement requests in this case is due today. I previously requested a ten (10) day extension of time in which to file this Reply because I was sick with bronchitis. Unfortunately, I am still sick and have been out of work almost continuously for two weeks. I was not able to attend the wedding I referenced in my last request due to being sick. I just completed my prescription for Levaquin yesterday, but unfortunately, am still sick with cough, fever and headaches. I am hoping to be able to return to the office by Monday. For this reason, I reluctantly request an additional five (5) days, until Tuesday, June 20, 2017, to file my Reply in this matter. Obviously, I regret this additional delay inasmuch as I can't get paid until this matter is resolved.

I am copying Mr. Ryan on this request. I tried to reach him earlier by phone, but was unsuccessful. According to his voicemail he will be out of the office from June 14th until June 19th. I would ask that he convey his position concerning this request directly to the Court. Hopefully, he will have no problem with this request since I consented to his own needs for more time in this matter.

Thank you very much for your time. I remain,

Sincerely yours,
