

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

The State, Respondent,

v.

Timothy Crosby, Petitioner.

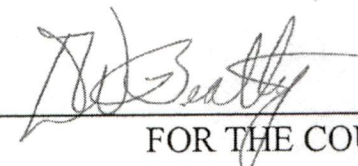

Appellate Case No. 2017-001117

ORDER

The South Carolina Court of Appeals dismissed the appeal in this matter after conducting a review pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967).¹ Petitioner has now filed a motion with this Court indicating that he desires to have counsel appointed for the purpose of seeking a writ of certiorari to review the decision of the Court of Appeals.

In State v. Lyles, 381 S.C. 442, 673 S.E.2d 811 (2009), this Court held that it “will no longer entertain petitions for writs of certiorari where the Court of Appeals has dismissed an appeal after conducting an Anders review.” Accordingly, the motion for the appointment of counsel is denied.
