Re: Barbara Aimar Goodwin, etc. v. Ronald L. Rossetti, et al.
Case No. 2014-CP-07-02268
Appellate Case No. 2016-000685

Ladies and Gentlemen:

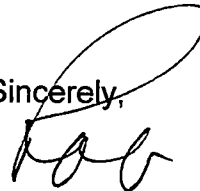

I represent the Appellant in the appeal referenced above, Barbara Aimar Goodwin. As requested by the Court of Appeals, which notified me that delivery of the transcript in the appeal is overdue, I am writing to advise you of the status of the transcript.

In short, though the original of the transcript has been completed and delivered to Mr. Bryan, who was the first to order it, no copy has yet been delivered to me. As appears from the email thread enclosed, a copy of which has previously been furnished to Mr. Bryan and to Mr. O'Kelley, on June 5, 2017, I was contacted by Ms. Dana New, a person theretofore unknown to me because she had not recorded the proceedings, who advised that she had prepared the transcript in this case. As also appears from the same thread, I arranged to obtain one copy from Ms. New, and on June 7, 2017, I mailed her a letter and a check at the address which she had provided, copies of which are enclosed.

Finally, in response to my email inquiry on June 17, 2017, in the same thread, Ms. New indicated that, due to the press of other matters, she had not mailed the copy of the transcript that I had requested, but would do so today, meaning that I should receive it not later than Wednesday, June 21, 2017.

Thanking you and with kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

Robert V. Mathison, Jr.

Yes. I'm sorry - it was an extremely busy week last week and I forgot to get it in the mail. The original has been delivered and I will get your copy in the mail Monday.

Thank you for your understanding,

Ms. New,

On the day following our last email communication, that is, on June 7, 2017, I sent you a check for a copy of the transcript in the case referenced, after asking that you send it to my post office box address.

To date I have not received it, however, and I have been asked to make a report to court administration and the Court of Appeals about the status of the transcript.

Can you advise whether the copy has been mailed to me?

Also, has the original been sent to Mr. Bryan?

Thanks.

Rob Mathison.

Good afternoon,

I have produced the transcript of record from the above-referenced hearing as requested by Mr. William Bryan, Jr.

I have notes that your client Ms. Goodwin would like a copy of the transcript but it is not complimentary. I'm also inquiring as to whether you are in need of a copy as well. The cost for each copy is $44.25.

Please respond at your earliest convenience,
