RE: Israel Wilds, 274010 v. State of South Carolina; 2003-CP-40-05973.
Appellate Case No: ~~2008-092411~~

2014-001191

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I am sorry to have to contact you about this matter again. As I advised the Court last week, I have only been able to work a couple of half days since May 29th, because I have been ill with a very bad case of bronchitis. I went to my doctor this morning, and he ordered a chest x-ray and put me on a course of steroids to try and relieve the inflammation in my lungs that did not clear up on the round of antibiotics I finished last week. I had asked to be allowed to submit my Reply to Mr. Ryan's filing by today. Unfortunately, I am simply not going to be able to get it completed in time for filing today. My doctor believes the steroids he prescribed today will rapidly improve my cough and my breathing. For now, I would ask for the Court's indulgence in granting me an additional week, until Tuesday, June 27th, to serve and file this Reply. I sincerely apologize to everyone for this additional delay and will try my best to file this Reply sooner if I am able. I have copied Mr. Ryan on this letter and would ask that he advise the Court directly of his position on my request. Thank you for much for your time and assistance in this matter. I remain,

Sincerely yours,
