

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Toaby Alexander Trapp, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2014-002358

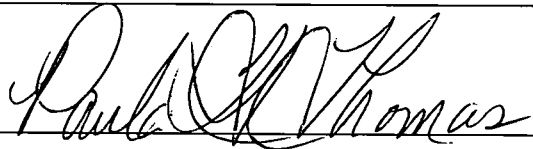

ORDER

After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.

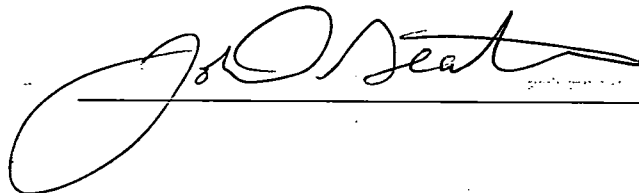

The Court has also reviewed Appellant's counsel's motion to be relieved as counsel. Because counsel has already submitted a petition for rehearing on Appellant's behalf, the Court finds that granting counsel's motion to be relieved is not appropriate at this time. Accordingly, the motion to be relieved as counsel is denied.
