

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

City of Columbia, Respondent,

v.

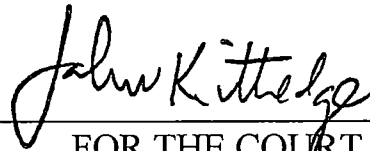

Marie-Therese Assa'ad-Faltas, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2015-000941

ORDER

Appellant, who is currently represented by counsel in this case, has filed a pro se motion seeking, among other things, the appointment of new counsel for the purpose of filing a petition for rehearing. The motion is denied as to all requested relief.

This Court is confident that current counsel will exercise his professional judgment to determine if a petition for rehearing should be filed in this case. If it is appropriate to seek any extension of time to file a petition for rehearing, that extension can be sought by current counsel. Further, if as alleged in the motion, current counsel may be unavailable to request an extension, the motion for an extension can be made by another lawyer in the Division of Appellate Defense on behalf of current counsel.

A.C.J.

FOR THE COURT

Beatty, C.J. not participating.

Columbia, South Carolina

June 26, 2017

cc: Dr. Marie Assa'ad-Faltas
John Harrison Strom, Esquire
Bruce Henry Greenberg, Jr., Esquire
Division of Appellate Defense