Re: Fairfield Waverly, LLC v. Dorchester County Assessor
Appellate Case No.: 2017-00569

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

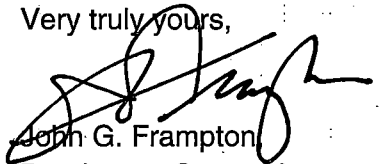

Pursuant to my request of May 30, 2017, you graciously granted me an extension to file and serve appellant's initial brief and designation of matter until July 31, 2017. I now find that I need to request an additional extension.

After about a year of suffering through low back pain and attempting to resolve it by nonsurgical means, my neurosurgeon has advised that surgery is my only option. Yesterday he scheduled my surgery for July 6, 2017, at which time he will perform a L3/L4 decompression and a L5/S1 spinal fusion. He anticipates a recovery period of at least 4 to 6 weeks.

I would therefore respectfully request a 60 day extension from July 31, 2017, to serve and file the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. I have conferred this morning with Bernie Maybank, Esquire, the attorney for the respondents and he does not oppose my request. Please let me know as soon as possible about this request for an extension.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

John G. Frampton
Dorchester County Attorney
