Counsel and Court of Appeals Clerk's Office: I am, and have been, in rural Maine attending a family wedding and visiting friends. My access to email has been rather spotty. I believe that the Court of Appeals has jurisdiction of this matter, but if I am requested by the Court of Appeals to weigh in, I would grant Mr. Yarborough's motion and stay this matter pending the entire appeal. This dispute of long standing is a complicated mix of landlord/tenant law and title law and not simply a straight forward eviction. Mr. Yarborough: I will examine my files when I return to determine whether or not I have your courtroom filing. My best bet is that it was submitted as an exhibit in which case the court reporter may have it. Best regards to all, Jean Toal
