Re: Your Case

Dear Mr. Barton:

The enclosed order states this office is only associated for the purpose of making copies of the following documents: the petition for writ of certiorari, any reply to the return to the petition for writ of certiorari you may decide to file, the appendix, and the brief of petitioner if necessary. Any other pro-se motions and filings should not be sent to this office since they are not covered by the Court's order.

Thus, please do not send our office any other pro-se motions or filings outside the mandate of the order as explained above. Since you are representing yourself, you should send these various pro-se documents and motions to the Court as you have apparently been doing since we are not associated to print these extraneous motions and documents. I am also enclosing the latest documents you mailed our office that are not covered by the enclosed printing Supreme Court order. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Dudek
Chief Appellate Defender

Bobby Joe Barton, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2016-000995

ORDER

---

Based on petitioner's response to this Court's order dated September 1, 2016, this Court finds that petitioner has made a knowing and intelligent waiver of his right to counsel in this matter. Accordingly, Taylor Davis Gilliam, Esquire, is relieved as counsel for petitioner, and the records of this Court will now reflect that petitioner is proceeding pro se in this case.

The Division of Appellate Defense will remain associated for the limited purpose of making the copies required for service and filing under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules for the following documents: the petition for writ of certiorari, any reply to the return to the petition for a writ of certiorari, the appendix, and, if certiorari is granted in this case, the brief of petitioner and any reply brief of petitioner. If petitioner wishes for Appellate Defense to be responsible for making copies of these documents, he must provide Appellate Defense with these documents on or before the date the document must be served and filed under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
