RE: Theodore Polansky v. SC Attorney General
Appellate Case No. 2016-001494

Dear Madame Clerk:

As I feared with the Extension that was granted to the Appellants, I have been unable to complete the Initial Brief and Designation of Matter before my planned vacation and would hereby request an extension for the filing of the Respondent's Initial Brief.

The Brief is actually due on July 14th, but as I had previously advised the Court, I have a family vacation scheduled starting today, June 30th and returning to my office on July 18th. Because of this and everything that I have pushed over to allow that to occur, if the Court would be so gracious I would appreciate it if the Court would consider granting me until August 18th to file a Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. The required filing fee is attached and by copy of this letter, I am notifying Counsel for the Appellants of this request for an Extension to file the Initial Brief of the Respondent.

I hope this is sufficient to make this request and as always, I appreciate all the courtesies and kindnesses shown to me by the Court.

Sincerely yours,

Preston F. McDaniel
