Appellate case 2015-001610
Alton Brooks v. State of South Carolina

Dear Clerk,

Enclosed, find a copy of Petitioner's motion in affidavit and objection to the clerk of court order granting Respondent's an extension etc and certificate of service in the above action. Please forward Robert M. Pachak of appellate defense a copy, as all documents are referred to the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation, Petitioner submits that the record is clear that he was framed at a de facto trial and thus the state has no right to continue to hold him illegally, as the evidence is everywhere, showing petitioner's innocence.

IN The South Carolina Supreme Court
Attent Brooks, Appellant, vs.
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
Respondent,

Appellate case NO. 2015-001610
Affidavit and
Motion IN Objection to Defendants and the clerk order granting Respondents a extension to July 19,
2017

Plaintiff objects to the order by the clerk and states that this order of June 20, 2017 is a nullity and is not issued by ANY of the supreme court justices in this case and that the clerk has no authority to issue the Respondents a extension to file a brief in this case. Respondents had 30 days from the time [REDACTED] Appellant served them the brief on April 18th 2017 and Respondents failed to Respond. Respondents never served [REDACTED] Appellant any Request for an extension of time and thus the fictitious June 20, 2017 order is a nullity. Plaintiff objects to Respondents filing a brief in this matter as provided by South Carolina Appellate Court rules and submit that 30 days has elapsed since the filing of [REDACTED] Appellant Brief, moreover, there is no South Carolina Supreme Court order with seal of the Supreme Court on it signifying that the document is official and in these regards and more Appellant moved to strike this fraudulent document from the record, moreover, for the record the lower court has failed to hold a hearing on Plaintiff's S9 E motion to alter or amend the judgment that's been pending since May 8th 2015 and the attorney General office and Respondents has failed to schedule a hearing on the motion, and counsel of Appellant Robert M. Pachak has refused to object to the fictitious extension order or contact petitioner in this case and has restricted petitioner from calling him.
