Dear Secretary General Antonio Guterres,

The following cases are returned from the United States of America Supreme Court Clerk of Court under Rule 13 filings:

Rule 13. Review on Certiorari: Time for Petitioning

1. Unless otherwise provided by law, a petition for a writ of certiorari to review a judgment in any case, civil or criminal, entered by a state court of last resort or a United States court of appeals (including the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces) is timely when it is filed with the Clerk of this Court within 90 days after entry of the judgment. A petition for a writ of certiorari seeking review of a judgment of a lower state court that is subject to discretionary review by the state court of last resort is timely when it is filed with the Clerk within 90 days after entry of the order denying discretionary review.

The State of South Carolina claims that the In Forma Pauperis status of Glynndeavin von Fox does not exist, and that the appeal was filed in erroneous allowances of South Carolina Code of Law. Glynndeavin von Fox has already given mental evaluation by Dr. Randolph Waid and Dr. Geoffrey McKee to show competency in the interpretation of the law to the United Nations. The approaching case into the appellant process of the State of South Carolina through removal to United States of America Constitutional access to a state government (Any State in the Union), should shed light on yet another issue of political asylum by the State of South Carolina, and the access by Glynndeavin von Fox through federal training to depart the United States of America to another country as a private citizen since 1999 with no sensitive material to sell another country.

I do believe the State of South Carolina wishes that the Deo Vindice statehood was invoked in the twenty—first century, but with so much federal funding into the area it appears that all the shirts are still red with envy of Appomattox Courthouse. I myself am a descendant of the Confederate States of America (CSA) under Hagood's Brigade (NCO), and the Army of Northern Virginia (Colonel) with complete understanding of reconstruction in the South by Gen. Sherman (USA) who painted Charleston, South Carolina red with federal money for the hypocritical status of the twenty—first century of my Political Asylum into another country. I even requested to the Egyptian Embassy for Political Asylum into a well-travelled Arabian route for myself (USAF Special Operations 90's), and contacted the United Kingdom too.

Sincerely and with Earnest,

Glynndeavin von Fox

CC: The President of the United States of America
The Governor of South Carolina
