Re: David Scot Lynd v. Dawn Caldwell
Appellate Case No. 2016-002024

Dear Mr. Lynd:

The Court received your emails addressed to Chief Judge Lockemy and Court Administration. Chief Judge Lockemy forwarded your email to me for a response because it would not be appropriate for him to respond to your ex parte communication. As ordered by judges of this Court on May 24, 2017, and January 20, 2017, the Court has already addressed the issues regarding the withdrawal of your counsel. You say that you have an attorney in Texas; however, we note that this attorney has not made an appearance on your behalf in this case.

As noted in our May 24, 2017 order, you must provide proof of having made satisfactory arrangements with the court reporter for furnishing the transcript, with a copy to this Court, Court Administration, and all parties to the appeal. If you have already received the transcript, please notify the Court of the date you received it so that we can calculate the due date for your appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. Failure to comply within 15 days of the date of this letter will result in the dismissal of your appeal.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
