Complaint

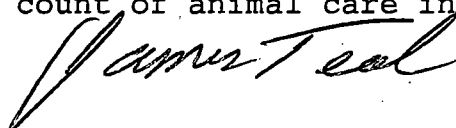

Kershaw County, Respondent

V

James Teal, Appellant

Appellants accuser, not present in court, phoned Animal control with a accusation of Appellant having a dog with a bone sticking out his head! Constable Munyan cited Appellant on Nov. 08, 2013 for 2 counts of running at large and one count of animal care in general.

Answer

James Teal, Appellant

Disinformation accepted by Constable Munyan regarding the bone sticking out my labs head. Constable Munyan excited my dogs on his arrival, with the lab coming off his runner cable. A 3 mo. old female puppy digging out of her pen and following the male lab out to top of Appellants driveway. The lab dragging a 10 ft. chain. Appellant is adamant that a 10 ft. chain would prohibit any chance of running at large in a wooded landscape. Constable Munyan told Appellant of the bone and in court could'nt recall his admission to Appellant.

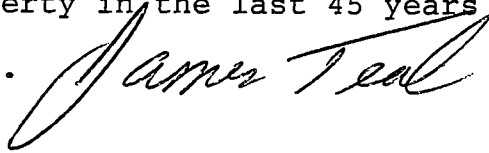

Testimony

Kershaw County, Respondent

James Teal, Appellant

The opening argument by Respondent centered on a dismissed case without prejudice. A case never heard in court. Constable Munyan having no recall of what initiated his visit to Appellants property. Constable Munyan was allowed to enter undocumented paper work at his office, This evidence allowed to be entered was prior visits to Appellants property in the last 45 years and was not relevant to Appellants case.

Charge

Kershaw County, Respondent

V.

James Teal, Appellant

The presiding judge charged the jury once about their deliberation, at the end of trial.

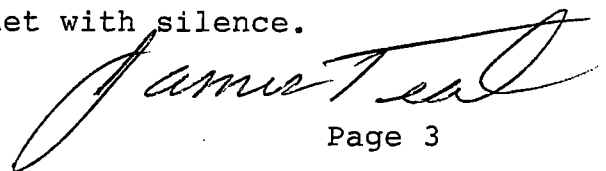

Request to charge

Kershaw County, Respondent

V.

James Teal, Appellant

Appellants objected once at the omission of dismissed case that was hearsay. Appellants objection was met with silence.
