RE: Joseph C. Rivett v. Celadon Trucking
Civil Action No.: 2014-CP-40-6228 - Appellate No.:2016-000462
Claim No.: BL-108004
Our File: 2772-9340

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The above matter was remanded to the state court for 90 days on March 24, 2017, for a hearing on Appellant's Rule 60 Motion. Appellant has filed and briefed the Rule 60 Motion in the lower court, but the matter has not yet been assigned or scheduled for a hearing. Prior to July 1, 2017, we reached out to Chief Administrative Judge Benjamin's law clerk, who initially indicated the matter is being brought to Judge Benjamin's attention for assignment. The case was not reassigned before Judge Benjamin's term as chief administrative judge ended on July 1, 2017, and so we have reached out to Judge Manning, who is now serving as Chief Administrative Judge. We are scheduled to appear before Judge Manning for a status conference on July 19, 2017, at 9:30 a.m.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if we can provide any further information or take any additional action in the meantime.

Yours truly,

SWEENEY, WINGATE & BARROW, P.A.
