

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Cedric L. Woods #265789, Appellant,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2016-002367

ORDER

The Office of Appellate Defense has filed a letter, which we construe as a request to be relieved as counsel for Appellant. Appellate Defense explains that it accepted the case in error, and that it does not handle declaratory judgment actions.

The motion is granted. Appellant has thirty days to obtain new counsel, or this court will presume Appellant is proceeding pro se.
