Motion for out of time filing

Complaint

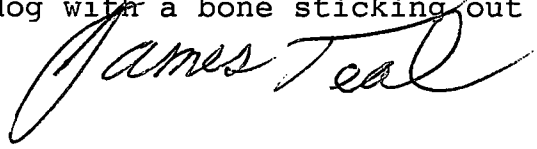

Kershaw County, Respondant

Vs.

James Teal, Appellant

A accusation Appellant having a dog with a bone sticking out of his head.

Answer

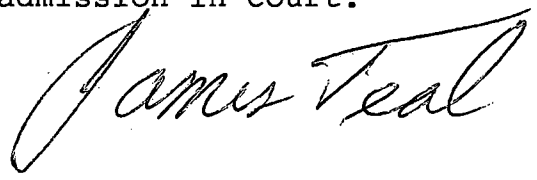

Kershaw County, Respondant

Vs.

James Teal, Appellant

Disinformation accepted by Constable Munyan. Upon arrival Constable Munyan excited Appellants dogs, with the lab coming off his runner cable. A 3 month old puppy, had dug out of her pen and following to the top of Appellants driveway. The lab dragging a 10 ft. chain. A 10 ft. chain would prohibit any chance of running at large in a wooded landscape. Constable had told Appellant of the bone issue and in court could'nt recall this admission in court.

Testimony

Kershaw County, Respondent

V

James Teal, Appellant

The opening argument by Respondent centered on a dismissed case without prejudice. A case never heard in court. Constable Munyan having no recall of what initiated his visit to Appellants property. Constable Munyan was allowed to enter undocumented paper work at his office, This evidence allowed to be entered was prior visits to Appellants property in the last 45 years and was not relevant to Appellants case.

Charge
