S.C. SUPREME COURT

RE: Ladorrean C. Collington, #334220 v. State of South Carolina; 2014-CP-26-563

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Pursuant to Rule 243(b), SCACR, the transcript of the PCR court's proceeding in this matter is due to be ordered by today's date. I have not been hired to handle this appeal, and I am in the process of having Appellate Defense determine whether or not they will represent the Petitioner in this matter. On yesterday's date, I was contacted by Appellate Defense and I was informed that my client's affidavit of indigency was not completed in full and that my client will need to answer the remaining unanswered questions before that office will accept or decline representation. Consequently, I am sending my client a supplemental affidavit today. Therefore, I respectfully request a thirty-day extension of time to order the PCR hearing transcript. I expect that this extension will afford my client and me enough time to transfer representation to Appellate Defense. There have been no previous extension requests in this matter. With my thanks for the Court's attention to this matter, and my best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Jeremy A. Thompson
