SC Court of Appeals

Case No. 2014-CP-37-00143
Appellate Case No.: 2015-001860

Polly Thompson, Respondent, v.
Cathy Swicegood, Appellant.

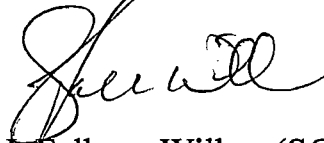

MOTION

Appellant hereby moves for an extension of time in which to serve the Record on Appeal. Counsel has been out of state for two weeks, returning on July 27, 2017. On July 28, 2017 counsel's primary computer system failed and has not been recoverable which has required that all work stop for data recovery and implementation of a back up system. As a result, the completion and service of the Record on Appeal has been unexpectedly delayed. Therefore, Appellant moves for an extension of five days in which to serve the Record on Appeal in this case.

Counsel submits that the extension is necessary in light of the unforeseeable events and that the extension of five days will not prejudice the rights of any party to the action.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Polly Thompson v. Cathy Swicegood, 2014-CP-37-00143
Appellate Case No. 2015-001860

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I am enclosing a motion for a five day extension in which to serve the Record in this case. As stated in my motion, I have suffered a catastrophic computer failure with total data loss on my system which has resulted in my having to stop everything and work on implementation of the back up system with data recovery. I have completed that process but now will be slightly delayed in completing several tasks for last week, including the service of the Record in this case. I should have it done by tomorrow but have requested a five day extension to be on the safe side.

Sincerely,

J. Falkner Wilkes
