NOV 30 2012

S.C. Supreme Court

RE: State of South Carolina v. Julian C. Young; 2011-GS-38-1833.

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

By my calculation, the transcript of this trial should have been delivered to me by October 24, 2012. I have not been provided this record, nor have I been provided an extension Order from Court Administration concerning this matter. My paralegal has previously notified Court Administration that this transcript request is still outstanding. I just discovered however, that she did not notify you or the Court Reporter that the transcript is past due as is required by Rule 207(a)(5), SCACR. I apologize for this oversight. I will, of course, notify the Court when the transcript is delivered. By copy of this letter I am advising the Court Reporter and Court Administration that the Court has been advised of the status of this transcript request. For now, I remain,

Sincerely,
