RE: Phillip Turner vs. State of South Carolina
Case No: 2007-GS-18-0261

Clerk,

This letter is in response to a conditional order of Dismissal from your office received on July 28, 2017 on the above referenced case due to failure to satisfy arrangements of payment for Transcript required by Rule 207(a)-(1) of South Carolina Appellate Court rules.

I received a letter from Heather R. Landry CVR court reporter for The Ninth Judicial Circuit on February 13, 2017, notifying of the cost of said Documents... I responded to this letter notifying the Reporter's office with a application of Indigency. That I was unable to pay for said material I as well sent a letter to your office notifying what had transpired.

On April 13, 2017 I once again notified your office requesting information of status of my case and informing that as of that date I have failed to receive notification of the delivery of my transcript from the Dorchester County reporter.

As of to days date August 2, 2017, I am still indigent status and can not afford said cost of this document. I would still like to proceed with my legal action against my conviction and confinement and request this Honorable Court allow me to proceed with Briefing with out said documents under forma Pauperis. Although, this would be an unfair advantage to my defence.

I would like to take the time to Thank you and your office in advance for any and/or all assistance that may be provided in helping to procure this matter...

Respectfully Submitted,

Phillip Turner
