

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Dawan Chatman, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2012-213010

ORDER

Following the filing of the notice of appeal in this matter, petitioner was instructed to file a Rule 243(c), SCACR, explanation. Petitioner has filed a "Motion to Rescind and Vacate Conditional Order of Dismissal." We deny the motion. Construing the motion as a Rule 243(c), SCACR, explanation, we find petitioner has failed to show there is an arguable basis for asserting that the determination by the lower court was improper. Accordingly, this matter is dismissed.
