Re: Appellate Case No. 2012-212991

Honorable Deputy Allen:

~~I am in receipt of the notice stating deficiencies that need to be resolved.~~ This notice is dated November 8, 2012 and also had with it the notification dated November 9, 2012, informing all parties that the matter had been assigned an appellate case number. Both notices were in the same envelope post marked November 13, 2012. I am not sure when the notice was actually mailed but it was not immediately received by me and I was not able to respond in the time allotted (10 days from the date of the notice), which would be November 18th, only 5 days from the post mark date. The notice was sent to my PO Box, which I apparently picked up no less than 4-5 days after delivery.

I would like to remain in compliance with this notice and ask for an extension of time to resolve the deficiencies noted. I expect to mail the requested items within 72 hours of this letter but wanted to at least notify you that I received the request late but I am not intentionally late in responding. Thank you for your consideration and patience.

Sincerely,

Christopher Jones
