Re: The State v. Glynndeavin Von Fox (5)
Appellate Case No. 2017-001589

Dear Mr. Von Fox:

Attached is a deficiency letter that was sent to the address given when this appeal was initially filed with the Court. The deficiency letter was returned with a note that you are no longer at the Charleston County Detention Center. Please be advised that at any time your address changes, the Court and all parties involved need to be notified immediately so that our records may reflect the correct address to contact you through. Within ten days of the date of this cover letter that is being sent to the only other two address the Court has on file, you must provide the required deficiency corrections listed on the attached letter or this appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Mr. Von Fox:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal dated July 20, 2017, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed:

- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by the order(s) and/or judgment(s) challenged on appeal.
- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- A proof of service has not been provided showing the notice of appeal has been timely served upon the respondent. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,
