

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

City of Columbia, Respondent,

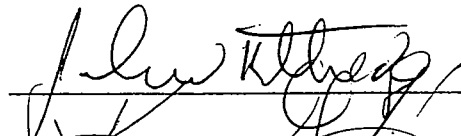

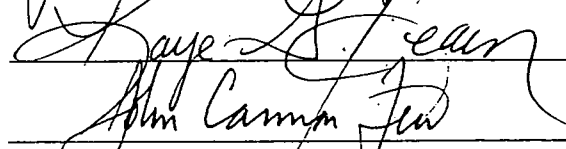

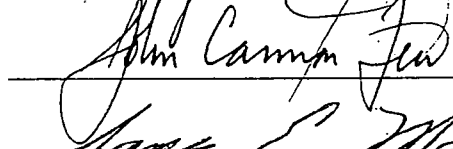

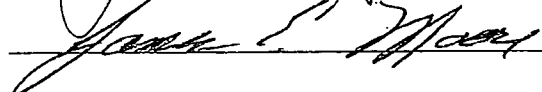

v.

Marie-Therese Assa'ad-Faltas, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2015-000941

ORDER

Since July 8, 2015, Appellant Marie-Therese Assa'ad-Faltas has been represented by counsel from the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense, most recently by Appellate Defender John H. Strom. Through filing a petition for rehearing on Appellant's behalf on July 6, 2017, attorney Orin Briggs has made an appearance in this matter and is now counsel of record. In light of Mr. Briggs' appearance, Mr. Strom is hereby relieved as counsel. After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied. Further, Mr. Briggs is hereby relieved as counsel, and the remittitur shall be sent in accordance with Rule 221(b), SCACR.
