RE: Eddie D. Dogan, Jr., v. The State
Appellate Case No. 2017-001164

Dear Madame Clerk,

I received a letter dated August 1, 2017 from your office asking me to submit a return to a petition filed by the appellant. I have not received a petition, or a notice of appeal by the defendant.

The Defendant file an application for DNA testing. The State responded appropriately to the circuit court. The defendant asked for a reconsideration of the denial of the application. The State responded to the request for reconsideration. Nothing else was served upon the State concerning this matter. Therefore, there is nothing to respond to.

I apologize for the tardiness of this response, but I was on vacation last week. I had to order the file from archives to confirm that no petition or appeal was served on our office.

Sincerely,
