

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Albert Legare, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2017-001084

ORDER

In the explanation required by Rule 243(c) of South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), petitioner has failed to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting that the determination by the lower court was improper. Accordingly, this matter is dismissed. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.

Because this is an appeal from the denial of petitioner's sixth application for post-conviction relief, petitioner was given notice and an opportunity to provide reasons why this Court should not impose certain restrictions on petitioner's future filings. We find the reasons petitioner provided do not constitute a sufficient basis for not imposing such restrictions. We therefore prohibit petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to the previously filed collateral actions, challenging indictments 1992-GS-10-1412 (armed robbery), 1992-GS-10-1413 (assault and battery with intent to kill), and 1992-GS-10-1414 (attempted armed robbery) and the convictions and sentences thereon, or any motions in the underlying criminal case, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
