Re: The State v. Jerome Williams
Appellate Case No. 2017-001353

Dear Mr. Williams:

The Court received your letter regarding the status of your appeal. At this point, you must either order the transcript in accordance with Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, or you must provide evidence of a written agreement with the State to proceed without a transcript. If you do not provide proof of having ordered the transcript or a written agreement to proceed without the transcript within ten days of the date of this letter, your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,
