

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

David Scot Lynd, Appellant,

v.

Isle of Palms, Dawn Caldwell, Individually and in her capacity as an officer of the Isle of Palms Police Department, and South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2016-002024

ORDER

---

This court has received Appellant's August 11, 2017 correspondence. First, this court will take no further action on Appellant's allegations regarding Attorney Brent B. Greenberg's November 3, 2016 motion to withdraw as counsel. This court has fully considered Appellant's pro se objection to the motion and declined to appoint new counsel on January 20, 2017. Second, because Appellant received the transcript on May 12, 2017, Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter are overdue. Pursuant to Rule 208(a)(1), SCACR, an Appellant is required to serve and file an initial brief and designation of matter within thirty days of receiving the transcript. Thus, Appellant shall serve and file his initial brief and designation of matter within thirty days of the date of this order. Due to the lengthy procedural nature of this case, no further extensions will be granted absent a showing of extraordinary circumstances. Failure to comply may result in the dismissal of this appeal.
