Re: The State v. Stephanie I. Greene
Appellate Case No. 2014-000764

Dear Ms. Greene:

This responds to your letter dated August 23, 2017.

While I understand your desire to have this matter resolved, I can assure you that the case is actively being considered by the Court, and your counsel will be advised once the Court issues an opinion or acts on the motion for bond pending appeal. If it is appropriate to either contact this Court or to seek some relief based on the time that it is taking to resolve these matters, that contact or request will have to be made by your counsel with proper notice to the opposing counsel.

I would again encourage you to contact your counsel about your concerns so that he can determine if it is appropriate to seek some relief from this Court.

Very truly yours,
