Re: Ewing vs. Guest, et. al.
Case No. 2015-CP-07-1931

Dear Fred:

As you know, this firm represents the Pleasant Point Property Owners Association, Inc. ("PPPOA"), which was named as a party to the above action for the reason that it holds title to a platted road situated between the Ewing property and the Guest property.

It is alleged in the Complaint filed by Ewing that the Guests have constructed a fence which encroaches onto the property which remains titled in the name of PPPOA. The encroachment has recently been confirmed by a plat prepared by Beaufort Surveying, Inc. We are further advised that the survey markers recently placed by Beaufort Surveying were removed by the Guests, or someone on their behalf, shortly after being emplaced by the surveying crew, which may constitute a criminal offense under SC Code Section 16-11-680.

A couple of points:

1. PPPOA has not given anyone - specifically the Guests, in this instance - the right to construct anything which encroaches onto the platted roadway, which is titled in PPPOA, Inc.

2. Any exterior construction which occurs on PPPOA-governed property is subject to a formal approval process through the Association's ARB. There has been no application by anyone - specifically the Guests, in this instance - for any such permit.

Accordingly, this letter is a demand made upon the Guests, who apparently are the parties who constructed the fence at issue, to immediately remove same from the property of PPPOA. In the event this is not accomplished by 12:00 noon, Friday, September 11, 2015, PPPOA intends to file a Cross-Claim in the action above-captioned for appropriate relief, to include attorneys fees and costs incurred in this matter. Should there be questions, please feel free to contact me.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

TUPPER, GRIMSLEY AND DEAN, PA

Subject: Extension of Pleasant Point Drive

On June 1, 2004 I conveyed to you the position the Board of Directors has taken concerning that undeveloped portion of Pleasant Point Drive.

At the monthly Board meeting held on September 14, 2004 I reported my conversation with Babs Ewing and the renewed interest shown in resolving the concerns as to property boundary lines.

The Board was unanimous in their decision to fulfill the Association responsibility to clear the right-of-way for the 40 feet width, bringing a paved street between your property for approximately 350 feet from the South end of Pleasant Point Drive at its junction with Sussex Court. This would require removing existing trees and/or landscape in the right-of-way and could require fill dirt to build the roadway up to properly drain back to the nearest ditch.

Please see the enclosed plat, which established the extension in question before the Young parcels and Videyko lot was developed and recorded.

Any other agreements you have with each other will have to be handled separately, since the Association is not a party to those.

If this plan is acceptable to both of you, we will ask you to sign the statement below the salutation and return a copy to me as the Association manager.

Sincerely,

Laurance Davis, Association Manager

THIS AGREEMENT IS ACCEPTABLE TO ME INDIVIDUALLY OR FOR ANY CORPORATION WHICH HAS TITLE TO THE SUBJECT PROPERTY.

PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 4 1-20-16 MHB

PROTECTIVE COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS AND AFFIRMATIVE OBLIGATIONS

The Covenants and Restrictions below will be recorded in the office of the Clerk of Court of Beaufort County, South Carolina, and are incorporated by reference in deeds to residential property issued by Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc.

PART I

PROTECTIVE COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS AND AFFIRMATIVE OBLIGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL RESIDENTIAL AREAS LOCATED WITHIN PLEASANT POINT PLANTATION.

1. No building, fence or other structure shall be erected, placed or altered on any lot in such Residential Areas until the proposed building plans, specifications, exterior color or finish, plot plan (showing the proposed location of such building or structure, drives and parking areas) and construction schedule shall have been approved in writing by Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., its successors or assigns. Refusal of approval of plans, location or specifications may be based by Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. upon any ground, including purely aesthetic considerations, which in the sole discretion of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. shall seem sufficient. No alterations in the exterior appearance of any building or structure shall be made without like approval by Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. One (1) copy of all plans and related data shall be furnished Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. for its records.

2. No plans will be approved unless the proposed house will have the minimum required square footage of enclosed dwelling area. The total enclosed dwelling area for residences shall be 1500 sq. ft. minimum. The main living floor of all residences shall have a minimum of 1200 sq. ft. The term "enclosed dwelling area" as used in these minimum size requirements shall mean the total enclosed area within the dwelling; and does not include garages, boat sheds, terraces, decks, open porches, and like areas.

3. Since the establishment of standard inflexible building setback lines for location of houses on lots tends to force construction of houses both directly behind and directly to the side of other homes with detrimental effects on privacy, view and preservation of important trees, no specific setback lines are established by these covenants. In order to assure that location of houses will be staggered where practical and appropriate, so that the maximum amount of view and breeze will be available to each house and that the structures will be located with regard to the topography of each individual lot, Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. reserves unto itself, its successors and assigns, the right to control absolutely and to solely decide the precise site and location of any house or other structure upon all lots. Such location shall be determined only after reasonable opportunity is afforded the lot owner to recommend a specific site.

4. The exterior of all houses and other structures must be completed within one (1) year after the commencement of construction except where such completion is impossible or would result in great hardship to the owner or builder due to strikes, fires, national emergency or natural calamities.

5. All lots in said Residential Areas shall be used for residential purposes exclusively. No structure, except as hereinafter provided, shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on any lot other than one (1) detached single family dwelling not to exceed two (2) stories in height and one small one-story accessory building which may include a detached private garage and/or servant's quarters. Such accessory building may not be constructed prior to the construction of the main building.

6. A guest suite or like facility without a kitchen may be included as part of the main dwelling or accessory building, but such suite may not be rented or leased except as part of the entire premises including the main dwelling.

7. It shall be the responsibility of each lot owner to prevent the development of any unclean, unsightly or unkept conditions of buildings or grounds on such lot which shall tend to substantially decrease the beauty of the specific area or of the neighborhood as a whole.

8. No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on upon any lot nor shall anything be done thereon tending to cause embarrassment, discomfort, annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood. No motor cycles, hot rods, or similar motor vehicles shall be used or permitted that cause excessive noise. No firearms shall be discharged except in specially designated areas. There shall not be maintained any plants or animals, or device or thing of any sort whose normal activities or existence is in any way noxious, dangerous, unsightly, unpleasant or of a nature as may diminish or destroy the enjoyment of other property in the neighborhood by the owners thereof.

9. In order to implement effective insect, reptile and woods fire control, Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. reserves for itself and its agents the right to enter upon any residential lot on which a residence has not been constructed and upon which no landscaping plan has been implemented (with prior written approval of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. for such plan), such entry to be made by personnel with tractors, trucks or other suitable devices, for the purpose of mowing, removing, clearing, cutting or pruning underbrush, weeds or other unsightly growth and trash, which in the opinion of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. detracts from the overall beauty, setting and safety of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. Such entrance for the purpose of mowing, cutting, clearing or pruning or removing trash shall not be deemed a trespass. Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., may charge the owner the cost of such services not to exceed $15.00 per year. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as an obligation on the part of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., to mow, clear, cut or prune any lot nor to provide garbage or trash removal services.

10. In the event the owner desires to sell a residential site within Pleasant Point Plantation together with its improvements, if any, then said property shall be offered for sale to Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. at the same price at which the highest bona fide offer

10. In the event the owner desires to sell a residential site within Pleasant Point Plantation together with its improvements, if any, then said property shall be offered for sale to Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. at the same price at which the highest bona fide offer has been made for the property, and Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. shall have thirty(30) days within which to exercise its option to purchase said property at this price; and should Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. fail or refuse, within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of the price and terms, the owner of said property shall have the right to sell said property at a price not lower than that at which it was offered to Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., subject, however, to all covenants and limitations herein contained.

11. No commercial signs, including "for rent", "for sale", and other similar signs, shall be erected or maintained on any lot except with the written permission of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. or except as may be required by legal proceedings, it being understood that Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. will not grant permission for said signs unless their erection is reasonably necessary to avert serious hardship to the property owner. If such permission is granted, Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. reserves the right to restrict size, color and content of such signs. Property identification and like signs exceeding a combined total of more than two (2) square feet may not be erected without the written permission of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc.

12. Each lot owner shall provide space for parking two automobiles off the street prior to the occupancy of any dwelling constructed on said lot in accordance with reasonable standards established by Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc.

13. Each lot owner shall provide receptacles for garbage, in a screened area not generally visible from the road, or provide underground garbage receptacles or similar facility in accordance with reasonable standards established by Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc.

14. Prior to the occupancy of a residence on any lot, proper and suitable provision shall be made for the disposal of sewage by connection with the sewer mains of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., or such Public Service District as may be established, or if no such main has been constructed in the vicinity of such lot, then such disposal shall be made by means of a septic tank or tanks constructed on such lot for the disposal of all sewage, and all sewage shall be emptied or discharged into such main or tanks. No sewage shall be emptied or discharged into any creek, marsh, river, sound or beach or shorelines thereof. No sewage disposal system shall be permitted on any lot nor may any sewage disposal system be used unless such system is designed, located, constructed and maintained in accordance with the requirements, standards, and recommendations of the appropriate public health authority.

15. Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. reserves unto itself, its successors and assigns, a perpetual, alienable and releasable easement and right on, over and under the ground to erect, maintain and use electric and telephone poles, wires, cables, conduits, sewers, water mains and other suitable equipment for the conveyance and use of electricity, telephone equipment, gas, sewer, water or other public conveniences or utilities, on, in or over the rear ten (10) feet of each lot and ten (10) feet along one (1) side of each lot and such other areas as are shown on the applicable plat; provided further, that Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., may cut drainways for surface water wherever and whenever such action may appear to Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. to be necessary in order to maintain reasonable standards of health, safety and appearance. These easements and rights expressly include the right to cut any trees, bushes, or shrubbery, make any gradings of the soil, or to take any other similar action reasonably necessary to provide economical and safe utility installation and to maintain reasonable standards of health, safety and appearance. It further reserves the right to locate wells, pumping stations, and tanks within residential areas on any walkway or any residential lot designated for such use on the applicable plat of a residential subdivision or to locate same upon any lot with the permission of the owner of such lot. Such rights may be exercised by any licensee of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. but this reservation shall not be considered an obligation of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. to provide or maintain any such utility or service.

16. No structure of a temporary character shall be placed upon any lot at any time, provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to shelters used by the contractor during the construction of the main dwelling house, it being clearly understood that these latter temporary shelters may not, at any time, be used as residences or permitted to remain on the lot after completion of construction.

17. No trailer, tent, barn, tree house or other similar outbuilding or structure shall be placed on any lot at any time, either temporarily or permanently.

18. Fuel tanks or similar storage receptacles may not be exposed to view, and may be installed only within the main dwelling house, within the accessory building, within the screened area required in Paragraph 19 herein or buried underground.

19. Each lot owner must construct a screening fence to shield and hide from view a small service yard. Plans for such fence delineating the size, design, texture, appearance and location must be approved by Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. prior to construction.

20. No private water wells may be drilled or maintained on any residential lot so long as Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., or such Public Service District as may be established, their agents, successors or assigns, plans a water distribution line within fifty (50) feet of such lot with an average daily water pressure in such line adequate for normal household use in dwellings served by such distribution line; provided further, that such water distribution line must be completed within five (5) days from the date of completion of the residence or a private well may be drilled by the lot owner.

21. No large trees measuring six (6) inches or more in diameter at ground level may be removed without the written approval of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. unless located within ten (10) feet of the main dwelling or accessory building or within ten (10) feet of the approved site for such building.

22. No lot shall be subdivided, or its boundary lines changed, except with the written consent of Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc. However, Pleasant Point Plantation, Inc., hereby expressly reserves to itself, its successors or assigns, the right to replat any two (2) or more lots shown on the plat of any said subdivision in order to create a modified building lot or lots; and to take such other steps as are reasonably necessary to make such replatted lot suitable and fit as a building site to include, but not be limited to, the relocation of easements, walkways and rights of way to conform to the new boundaries of said replatted lots, provided that no lot originally shown on a recorded plat is reduced by more than twenty (20) per cent from its original size. The restrictions and covenants herein apply to each such lot so created.

23. All covenants and restrictions contained in this declaration shall run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and persons for a period of 25 years from the date of execution hereof, after which time said covenants and restrictions shall be automatically extended for successive periods of 10 years, unless an instrument signed by a majority of the then property owners has been recorded agreeing to change these covenants in whole or in part or to terminate the same.

24. In the event of a violation or breach of any of these restrictions or covenants by any property owner, or agent of such owner, the owners of lots in the neighborhood or the subdivision, or any of them jointly or severally shall have the right to proceed at law or in equity to compel a compliance with the terms and conditions hereof and to prevent the violation or breach of said restrictions or protective covenants. In addition to the foregoing, the corporation shall have the right, whenever there shall have been built on any lot in the subdivision any structure which is in violation of these restrictions, to enter upon the said property where such violation exists and summarily remove the same at the expense of the owner, if after 30 days written notice of such violation it shall not have been corrected by the owner. And such entry and abatment or removal shall not be deemed a trespass. The failure of the corporation to enforce any right, reservation, restriction or condition contained in this instrument however long continued, shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to do so hereafter as to the same breach or as to a breach occurring prior or subsequent thereto and shall not bar or affect its enforcement. The invalidation by any court of any restriction in this instrument contained, shall in no way affect any of the other restrictions, but they shall remain in full force and effect.

25. The corporation may include in any contract or deed hereinafter made or entered into, such modifications and/or additions to these protective covenants and restrictions, which will by their nature raise the standards of the subdivision.

INFORMATION

Except as provided in this paragraph, the term "value" means "the consideration paid or to be paid in money or money's worth for the realty." Consideration paid or to be paid in money's worth includes, but is not limited to, other realty, personal property, stocks, bonds, partnership interest and other intangible property, the forgiveness or cancellation of a debt, the assumption of a debt, and the surrendering of any right. The fair market value of the consideration must be used in calculating the consideration paid in money's worth. Taxpayers may elect to use the fair market value of the realty being transferred to determine fair market value of the consideration. In the case of realty transferred between a corporation, a partnership, or other entity and a stockholder, partner, or owner of the entity, and in the case of realty transferred to a trust or as a distribution to a trust beneficiary, "value" means the realty's fair market value. A deduction from value is allowed for the amount of any lien or encumbrance existing on the land, tenement, or realty before the transfer and remaining on the land, tenement, or realty after the transfer. Taxpayers may elect to use the fair market value for property tax purposes in determining fair market value under the provisions of the law.

Exempted from the fee are deeds:

(1) transferring realty in which the value of the realty, as defined in Code Section 12-24-30, is equal to or less than one hundred dollars;

(2) transferring realty to the federal government or to a state, its agencies and departments, and its political subdivisions, including school districts;

(3) that are otherwise exempted under the laws and Constitution of this State or of the United States;

(4) transferring realty in which no gain or loss is recognized by reason of Section 1041 of the Internal Revenue Code as defined in Section 12-6-40(A);

(5) transferring realty in order to partition realty as long as no consideration is paid for the transfer other than the interests in the realty that are being exchanged in order to partition the realty;

(6) transferring an individual grave space at a cemetery owned by a cemetery company licensed under Chapter 55 of Title 39;

(7) that constitute a contract for the sale of timber to be cut;

(8) transferring realty to a corporation, a partnership, or a trust in order to become, or as, a stockholder, partner, or trust beneficiary of the entity provided no consideration is paid for the transfer other than stock in the corporation, interest in the partnership, beneficial interest in the trust, or the increase in value in such stock or interest held by the grantor. However, the transfer of realty from a corporation, a partnership, or a trust to a stockholder, partner, or trust beneficiary of the entity is subject to the fee even if the realty is transferred to another corporation, a partnership, or trust;

(9) transferring realty from a family partnership to a partner or from a family trust to a beneficiary, provided no consideration is paid for the transfer other than a reduction in the grantee's interest in the partnership or trust. A "family partnership" is a partnership whose partners are all members of the same family. A "family trust" is a trust in which the beneficiaries are all members of the same family. The beneficiaries of a family trust may also include charitable entities. "Family" means the grantor and the grantor's spouse, parents, grandparents, sisters, brothers, children, stepchildren, grandchildren, and the spouses and lineal descendants of any the above. A "charitable entity" means an entity which may receive deductible contributions under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code as defined in Section 12-6-40(A);

(10) transferring realty in a statutory merger or consolidation from a constituent corporation to the continuing or new corporation;

(11) transferring realty in a merger or consolidation from a constituent partnership to the continuing or new partnership; and,

(12) that constitute a corrective deed or a quitclaim deed used to confirm title already vested in the grantee, provided that no consideration of any kind is paid or is to be paid under the corrective or quitclaim deed.

(13) transferring realty subject to a mortgage to the mortgagee whether by a deed in lieu of foreclosure executed by the mortgagor or deed pursuant to foreclosure proceedings;

(14) transferring realty from an agent to the agent's principal in which the realty was purchased with funds of the principal, provided that a notarized document is also filed with the deed that establishes the fact that the agent and principal relationship existed at the time of the original purchase as well as for the purpose of purchasing the realty.

(15) transferring title to facilities for transmitting electricity that is transferred, sold, or exchanged by electrical utilities, municipalities, electric cooperatives, or political subdivisions to a limited liability company which is subject to regulation under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. Section 791(a)) and which is formed to operate or to take functional control of electric transmission assets as defined in the Federal Power Act.

INFORMATION

Except as provided in this paragraph, the term "value" means "the consideration paid or to be paid in money or money's worth for the realty." Consideration paid or to be paid in money's worth includes, but is not limited to, other realty, personal property, stocks, bonds, partnership interest and other intangible property, the forgiveness or cancellation of a debt, the assumption of a debt, and the surrendering of any right. The fair market value of the consideration must be used in calculating the consideration paid in money's worth. Taxpayers may elect to use the fair market value of the realty being transferred in determining fair market value of the consideration. In the case of realty transferred between a corporation, a partnership, or other entity and a stockholder, partner, or owner of the entity, and in the case of realty transferred to a trust or as a distribution to a trust beneficiary, "value" means the realty's fair market value. A deduction from value is allowed for the amount of any lien or encumbrance existing on the land, tenement, or realty before the transfer and remaining on the land, tenement, or realty after the transfer. Taxpayers may elect to use the fair market value for property tax purposes in determining fair market value under the provisions of the law.

Exempted from the fee are deeds:

(1) transferring realty in which the value of the realty, as defined in Code Section 12-24-30, is equal to or less than one hundred dollars;

(2) transferring realty to the federal government or to a state, its agencies and departments, and its political subdivisions, including school districts;

(3) that are otherwise exempted under the laws and Constitution of this State or of the United States;

(4) transferring realty in which no gain or loss is recognized by reason of Section 1041 of the Internal Revenue Code as defined in Section 12-6-40(A);

(5) transferring realty in order to partition realty as long as no consideration is paid for the transfer other than the interests in the realty that are being exchanged in order to partition the realty;

(6) transferring an individual grave space at a cemetery owned by a cemetery company licensed under Chapter 55 of Title 39;

(7) that constitute a contract for the sale of timber to be cut;

(8) transferring realty to a corporation, a partnership, or a trust in order to become, or as, a stockholder, partner, or trust beneficiary of the entity provided no consideration is paid for the transfer other than stock in the corporation, interest in the partnership, beneficiary interest in the trust, or the increase in value in such stock or interest held by the grantor. However, the transfer of realty from a corporation, a partnership, or a trust to a stockholder, partner, or trust beneficiary of the entity is subject to the fee even if the realty is transferred to another corporation, a partnership, or trust;

(9) transferring realty from a family partnership to a partner or from a family trust to a beneficiary, provided no consideration is paid for the transfer other than a reduction in the grantee's interest in the partnership or trust. A "family partnership" is a partnership where persons are all members of the same family. A "family trust" is a trust, in which the beneficiaries are all members of the same family. The beneficiaries of a family trust may also include charitable entities. "Family" means the grantor and the grantor's spouse, parents, grandparents, sisters, brothers, children, stepchildren, grandchildren, and the spouses and lineal descendants of any the above. A "charitable entity" means an entity which may receive deductible contributions under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code as defined in Section 12-6-40(A);

(10) transferring realty in a statutory merger or consolidation from a constituent corporation to the continuing or new corporation;

(11) transferring realty in a merger or consolidation from a constituent partnership to the continuing or new partnership; and,

(12) that constitute a corrective deed or a quitclaim deed used to confirm title already vested in the grantee, provided that no consideration of any kind is paid or is to be paid under the corrective or quitclaim deed.

(13) transferring realty subject to a mortgage to the mortgagee whether by a deed in lieu of foreclosure executed by the mortgagor or deed pursuant to foreclosure proceedings.

(14) transferring realty from an agent to the agent's principal in which the realty was purchased with funds of the principal, provided that a notarized document is also filed with the deed that establishes the fact that the agent and principal relationship existed at the time of the original purchase as well as for the purpose of purchasing the realty.

(15) transferring title to facilities for transmitting electricity that is transferred, sold, or exchanged by electrical utilities, municipalities, electric cooperatives, or political subdivisions to a limited liability company which is subject to regulation under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. Section 791(a)) and which is formed to operate or to take functional control of electric transmission assets as defined in the Federal Power Act.

CLERK OF COURT
BEAUFORT, S.C.

The Plaintiffs complaining of the Defendants herein would respectfully show and allege unto this Honorable Court as follows:

1. That the Plaintiffs are the owners and are in possession of the residential property on Lady's Island, Beaufort County, South Carolina, which is the subject matter of this action, and all matters hereinafter mentioned are within the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court.

2. That the real property which is the subject matter of this action was acquired by Julia Vogel Tompkins, a Plaintiff herein, and her husband, R. McC. Tompkins, by deed dated December 5, 1969, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Mesne Conveyances for Beaufort County, South Carolina, in Book 169, at Page 150, and by deed dated December 5, 1969, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Mesne Conveyances in Book 169, Page 151, and described in said deeds as follows:

PARCEL 1 - ALL that certain piece, parcel or lot of land, with the improvements thereon, situate, lying and being in Pleasant Point Plantation, on Lady's Island, Beaufort County, South Carolina, and being more particularly described as Lot 1 of Pleasant Point Plantation Country Club Section, as shown on a plat prepared by R.D. Trogdon, Jr., R.L.S., under date of December 4, 1969, which plat is recorded in Plat Book 18 at Page 45, in the office of the Clerk of court for Beaufort County, South Carolina.

PARCEL 2 - ALL those certain pieces, parcels or lots of land, situate, lying and being in Pleasant Point Plantation, on Lady's Island, Beaufort County, South Carolina, and being more particularly described as Lots 2 and 3 of Pleasant Point Plantation Country Club Section, as shown on a plat prepared by R.D. Trogdon, Jr., R.L.S., under date of December 4, 1969, which plat is recorded in Plat Book 18 at Page 45, in the office of the Clerk of Court for Beaufort County, South Carolina.

3. That thereafter by deed dated August 26, 1995, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds in Book 799, Page 471, R. McC. Tompkins conveyed his undivided one-half (½) interest in the subject property to the Plaintiffs herein as Trustees, and the property was described in said deed as follows:

ALL that certain piece, parcel or lot of land, with the improvements thereon, situate, lying and being in Pleasant Point Plantation, on Lady's Island, Beaufort County, South Carolina, and being more particularly described as Lots 1, 2 and 3 of Pleasant Point Plantation Country Club Section, as shown on a plat prepared by R.D. Trogdon, Jr., R.L.S., under date of December 4, 1969, which plat is recorded in the RMC Office for Beaufort County, South Carolina in Plat Book 18, at Page 45.

4. That Plaintiffs are informed and believe that when they purchased the subject property, according to the plat referred to in their deeds and recorded in the Office of the Clerk of Court for Beaufort County, in Book 18 of Plats, at Page 45, that the recordation of such plat constituted a dedication of the street or roadway shown as "Pleasant Point Drive".

5. That Plaintiffs are informed and believe that on or about December 4, 1969, and recorded in Plat book 19, at Page 160, Plaintiffs' predecessors in title recorded a plat that in effect would have, if lawful, eliminated the portion of the road adjoining Plaintiffs property, and included said roadway in the conveyance to the Defendants.

6. That Plaintiffs are informed and believed that by deed dated January 22, 1999, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Mesne Conveyances for Beaufort County, South Carolina, in Book 1132, Page 1549, American Hospital Insurance Group, Inc., Defendant's immediate predecessors in title, conveyed a tract of land to the Defendants, and the property was described in said deed as follows:

> ALL that certain parcel of real property situate on Lady's Island in Beaufort County, South Carolina containing 1.32 acres which is shown and described as to metes, courses, bounds, distances and directions as Lot 29 (a/k/a The Manor House) of the Country Club Section of Pleasant Point Plantation on a plat prepared by David S. Youmans, RLS dated May 30, 1997 and recorded in the Register of Deeds Office for Beaufort County, South Carolina in Plat Book 60 at Page 190. Tax Map: District 200; Map 9A; Parcel 172
> ALL that parcel of real property situate on Lady's Island in Beaufort County, South Carolina being located to the west of Lots 1 and 2 of the Country Club Section of Pleasant Point Plantation directions on a plat prepared by R.D. Trogdon, Jr., RLS dated April 30, 1974 and recorded in Deed Book 248 at Page 454 of the said Beaufort County records. Tax Map: District 200; Map 9A; Parcel 172

7. That the Plaintiffs are informed and believed that the Defendants now claim title to said portion of the roadway adjoining Plaintiffs' property, and they and their predecessors in title have erroneously asserted title and control over Plaintiffs' use and enjoyment of said roadway.

8. That Plaintiffs are informed and believe that the recording of the said Plat from which Plaintiffs purchased the subject property constituted a dedication of said roadway to the owners of all lots in the subdivision and/or the general public, and the later purported conveyance of the portion of Pleasant Point Drive to the Defendants thus was void and of no legal effect.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that this Honorable Court inquire into the matters and things herein alleged, and if the Court finds that the street or roadway is so dedicated, as alleged herein, that the Court issue its order as follows:

A. Declaring the roadway shown on the plat recorded in Book 18 at Page 45, to be a dedicated easement.

B. Restraining and prohibiting the Defendants from interfering with Plaintiffs' use and enjoyment of said easement.

C. For the costs and expenses of this action, including reasonable attorney's fees.

D. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Defendants.

ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM

Defendants, answering the Complaint, allege and say (a) that defendants deny all the allegations of the Complaint except those allegations expressly admitted hereinafter or admitted hereinafter with qualification, (b) that those allegations of the Complaint admitted hereinafter with qualification are admitted only with the qualifications stated, and (c) that addressing each paragraph of the Complaint and by way of affirmative defense(s) and counterclaim(s) defendants allege and say the following:

FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

1. Defendants admit only so much of paragraph 1 as alleges or may be construed to allege that the plaintiffs are the owners of Lots 1, 2, and 3 of Pleasant Point Plantation Country Club Section, Beaufort County, S.C. Defendants deny all the remaining allegations of said paragraph.

EXHIBIT D-28
WIT:
DATE: 1-20-16

2. Defendants admit only so much of paragraph 2 as alleges the existence of the documents of record referred to therein, which documents speak for themselves as to the terms thereof. Defendants deny all the remaining allegations of said paragraph.

3. Defendants admit only so much of paragraph 3 as alleges the existence of the document of record referred to therein, which speaks for itself as to the terms thereof. Defendants deny all the remaining allegations of said paragraph.

4. Defendants deny the allegations of paragraph 4.

5. Defendants admit only so much of paragraph 5 as alleges or may be construed to allege that an area adjacent to and to the west of Lots 1 and 2 was formerly designated as a portion of Pleasant Point Drive, as shown on the plat recorded in Plat Book 18 at page 45, but was eliminated and deleted as a portion of the subdivision roadway and that the defendants are the owners of said property. Defendants deny all the remaining allegations of paragraph 5.

6. Defendants admit only so much of paragraph 6 as alleges the existence of the document of record referred to therein, which speaks for itself as to the terms thereof. Defendants deny so much of said paragraph as may be inconsistent with said document of record.

7. Defendants admit so much of paragraph 7 as alleges that defendants claim title to the land adjacent to and to the west of Lots 1 and 2, Pleasant Point Plantation Country Club Section, which land was shown as a portion of Pleasant Point Drive by the plat recorded in Plat Book 18 at page 45. Defendants deny all the remaining allegations of said paragraph.

8. Defendants deny the allegations of paragraph 8.

FOR A SECOND AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Waiver)

9. Defendants repeat, reallege, and incorporate herein by reference, all the foregoing allegations of this Answer.

10. From around 1969 through about 1995, Rathvon McC. Tompkins and Julia Vogel Tompkins ("the Tompkins") have been the owners of Lots 1, 2, and 3 of the Country Club Section, Pleasant Point Plantation.

11. Access to Lots 1, 2, and 3 is provided by the subdivision street identified as Sussex Court, as shown by the subdivision plat recorded in Plat Book 18, page 45, which plat was referred to in the deeds conveying Lots 1, 2, and 3 to the Tompkins.

12. The subdivision plat recorded in Plat Book 18, page 45 also shows a portion of Pleasant Point Drive, a subdivision roadway, adjacent to and immediately to the west of Lots 1 and 2, but that area adjacent to and to the west of Lots 1 and 2 was never paved or otherwise developed, improved, or actually made part of the subdivision roadway system and has never been maintained by the developer or the homeowners association.

13. Upon information and belief, during or about 1976, Rathvon McC. Tompkins, acting on his own behalf and on behalf of the plaintiff Julia Vogel Tompkins, his wife and co-owner of Lots 1, 2, and 3, for valuable consideration made and entered an agreement with Pleasant Point Plantation, a partnership, owner and developer of Pleasant Point Plantation subdivision, wherein and whereby the parties agreed for the area adjacent to and to the west of Lots 1 and 2, to be removed and eliminated from the platted subdivision roadway system and for the Tompkins to have a private easement for a driveway to their Lots 1 and 2 over a portion of the subject area, for their joint lives only.

14. Pursuant to said agreement and in reliance thereon, Pleasant Point Plantation granted to the Tompkins the Easement recorded in Book 248, page 454, a copy of which is attached hereto as Attachment A.

15. Also pursuant to said agreement, the Tompkins have since 1976 used that limited area described in the Easement (Book 248, page 454) for their exclusive use, benefit, and enjoyment.

16. Also pursuant to the agreement Pleasant Point Plantation deleted the area adjacent to the west of Lots 1 and 2 from the platted subdivision roadway system and recorded a revised subdivision plat deleting the subject area from Pleasant Point Drive and showing the Tompkins' easement area instead (Plat Book 30 at page 141).

17. By virtue of the aforesaid agreement, the conditions of which were fully performed by Pleasant Point Plantation and/or its successors, the Tompkins, as co-owners of Lots 1, 2, and 3, waived and relinquished any rights in the subject section of Pleasant Point Drive adjacent to and to the west of Lots 1 and 2 (as shown by plat recorded in Plat Book 18 page 45) except the rights granted to them by the Easement recorded in Book 248, page 454.

18. Rathvon McC. Tompkins could not grant and did not grant to the Rathvon McC. Tompkins Revocable Trust rights he had waived and relinquished.

FOR A THIRD AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Estoppel)

19. Defendants repeat, reallege, and incorporated herein by reference all the foregoing allegations hereof.

20. The Tompkins had the Easement (Book 248, page 454) recorded and gave notice to the world of their rights to use the easement area as their private easement.

21. Further, the Tompkins from 1976 have asserted and continue to assert the right to exclusive use, benefit, enjoyment and control of the subject area, and have represented and continue to represent that the subject area is private, not part of the Pleasant Point Plantation subdivision roadway system, and not available for general use by owners in the subdivision or by the public.

22. The defendants and their predecessors in title, as well as others owning property in the subdivision, have relied upon the Tompkins' assertions of exclusive rights in the area described in their Easement (Book 248, page 454), not making any use of the area.

23. By virtue of their long standing assertion of rights which are inconsistent with plaintiffs' claim that the area adjacent to and to the west of Lots 1 and 2 is a subdivision roadway, by virtue of their exclusive use and enjoyment of a part of the area for more than twenty-years (the benefits of the agreement described above), and because of the reliance by others, including the defendants, the Tompkins and those claiming under or through them are estopped and barred from now claiming that the subject area adjacent to and to the west of Lots 1 and 2 is part of the subdivision roadway system.

FOR A FOURTH AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Laches)

24. Defendants repeat, reallege, and incorporate herein by reference all the foregoing allegations hereof.

25. Plaintiffs have delayed an unreasonable length of time in asserting that the subject area is part of the subdivision roadway system, leading defendants and their predecessors in title to believe plaintiffs did not claim any rights in the subject area except those easement rights granted to the Tompkins' by the Easement (Book 248, page 454).

26. Defendants and their predecessors relied upon plaintiffs' silence and inaction by purchasing and paying valuable consideration for the subject property and asserting exclusive control over all of it except for that portion described in the Tompkins' Easement (Book 248, page 454).

27. By virtue of the plaintiffs' unreasonable delay in asserting their claim and defendants' reliance thereon to their detriment, plaintiffs are barred from claiming any rights in the area except those easement rights granted to the Tompkins by the Easement (Book 248, page 454), which will expire and be terminated upon the death of Julia Vogel Tompkins.

FOR A FIRST COUNTERCLAIM
(Declaratory Judgment)

28. Defendants repeat, reallege, and incorporate herein by reference all the foregoing allegations hereof.

29. Defendants acquired Lot 29, of the Country Club Section, Pleasant Point Plantation , also known as "The Manor House" property, by the Warranty Deed dated January 22, 1999, and recorded in Book 1132, page 1549, which deed describes the subject property by reference to the Plat recorded in Plat Book 60, page 190. A copy of said plat is attached hereto as Attachment B.

30. The plaintiffs claim that the easternmost portion of defendants' property, formerly identified as a portion of Pleasant Point Drive per the plat recorded in Plat Book 18, page 45, is a part of the subdivision roadway system and that plaintiffs therefore have the right to use that area for access to plaintiffs' property.

31. Defendants' have denied and do deny plaintiffs' claim.

32. By virtue of the matters and things alleged above, defendants are, upon information and belief, entitled to the judgment of this court determining and declaring that the defendants are the owners of Lot 29 (The Manor House property) as shown by the plat recorded in Plat Book 60, page 190, free and clear of all rights and claims of the plaintiffs except the easement rights granted to the Tompkins by the Easement recorded in Book 248, page 454, which will expire and be terminated upon the death of Julia Vogel Tompkins.

FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Trespass/Injunctive Relief and Damages)

33. Defendants repeat, reallege, and incorporate herein by reference all the foregoing allegations hereof.

34. Although the defendants have specifically directed that the plaintiff Julia Vogel Tompkins cease all use of the plaintiff's property except the area of the Tompkins' easement (Book 248, page 454), and although the plaintiffs have had both the western boundary of the Tompkins easement area (Book 248, page 454) and the western boundary of the area formerly shown as part of Pleasant Point Drive (Plat Book 18 at page 45) clearly delineated on the ground by a registered land surveyor, Julia Vogel Tompkins persists in trespassing upon plaintiffs' property, not only the area formerly designated as part of Pleasant Point Drive (Plat Book 18 at page 45) but also the Manor House property of defendants farther to the west.

35. Julia Vogel Tompkins' continued trespassing is wilful and deliberate, and she has advised the defendants that she will go where she wants in spite of the plaintiffs' direction for her to cease trespassing.

36. Julia Vogel Tompkins' further interferes with defendants' use and enjoyment of their property by advising defendants' guests and invitees that they cannot use the driveway.

37. Upon information and belief, plaintiffs are entitled to an injunction permanently restraining, prohibiting, and forbidding the plaintiffs, including and in particular Julia Vogel Tompkins, from trespassing upon defendants' property lying to the west of the Tompkins' easement area, and restraining, prohibiting, and forbidding the plaintiffs from otherwise hindering or interfering with defendants' use of their own property.

38. Further, upon information and belief, the defendants are entitled to judgment against the plaintiff Julia Vogel Tompkins for actual and punitive damages for her willful and deliberate trespass on defendants' property, and interference with defendants use thereof, thereby causing defendants to have diminished use and enjoyment of their property.

WHEREFORE defendants pray for the judgment, order and decree of this court providing the following:

(a) denying the relief prayed for by the plaintiffs;

(b) determining and declaring that the defendants are the owners of Lot 29, the property described in the plat recorded in Plat Book 60, page 190, free and clear of any rights and claims of the plaintiffs except the easement rights granted to the Tompkins by the Easement recorded in Book 248, page 454, which will terminate upon the death of Julia Vogel Tompkins;

(c) entering an order restraining, prohibiting, and forbidding the plaintiffs from trespassing upon, or otherwise interfering with defendants' use of, any part of defendants' property other than the Tompkins' easement area;

(d) granting judgment in favor of defendants and against plaintiffs for actual and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact;

(e) assessing costs against the plaintiffs;

(f) granting to defendants such other and further relief as the court determines to be just and proper in the circumstances.

PERSONALLY APPEARED before me, H. Fred Kuhn, Jr., Attorney at Law, who being duly sworn states as follows:

1. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to give this affidavit.

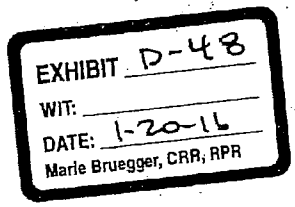

2. I am the attorney of record for the Plaintiff in the above-captioned action.

3. I was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1980. Since that time, I have been engaged in private practice in Beaufort, South Carolina.

4. I am presently a member of the law firm of Moss, Kuhn & Fleming, P.A. of Beaufort, South Carolina, and I am engaged in general practice of law, including family law.

5. I am and have been a member of the South Carolina Bar Association, Beaufort County Bar Association, and the American Board of Trial Advocates.

6. I am admitted to practice before all Courts of the State of South Carolina, including the South Carolina Supreme Court. I also am admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the State of South Carolina, United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, and the United States Supreme Court.

7. I have represented the Defendants, Keith Guest and Stephanie Guest in the proceedings which are pending before this Court.

8. I incorporate Rule 32 of the Rules of the South Carolina Supreme Court, which contains the Canon of Ethics regarding the setting of attorney's fees. I further call attention to the Court to relevant decisions by the Supreme Court of South Carolina concerning the factors that should be considered in the determination of the amount of fees to be awarded. A fee award should be based, among other things, upon the Court's files herein and the Court's knowledge of the litigation between these parties, which reflects the degree of difficulty of the services rendered, the time necessarily expended, the result accomplished, and other factors set forth by the Supreme Court of the State of South Carolina.

9. I am informed and believe that the time spent in these matters, as is more fully set forth hereinafter, was necessary for the protection of my client's interests in order to make the most concise and clear presentation of the issues to the Court as possible. This time and expense was necessarily expended by me in preparation for the hearing in this matter.

10. As of January 20, 2016 expenditures have been incurred by my firm and my client in the approximate amount of $8,440.00 billed at an aggregated rate of $300.00 per hour, plus expenses.

11. The foregoing time and expenditures have been computed as of January 20, 2016, including the date of the hearing regarding this matter, and I request that the Court take judicial notice of the travel time, costs and estimated trial time incurred on the date of this hearing.

12. Based not only on the time necessarily devoted to this case, but also upon the other criteria which have been held to be relevant in the setting of attorney's fees, costs and suit money, the undersigned, on behalf of my client, being joined on the execution hereof by my client, requests that this Court review the file herein, together with this Affidavit, and grant judgment in favor of my client against the Plaintiff in a sum which may be determined by the Court to be reasonable for attorney's fees, costs and suit money, and that the Plaintiff be required to pay the same within a reasonable time as may be determined by the Court.

Further Affiant sayeth naught.

Dear Mr. Young:

I shared your letter of March 7th with the Board of Directors. Their position has not changed as they cannot justify spending $19,800.00 for the exclusive benefit of two (2) property owners.

I am certain that they will approve any satisfactory plan you, Ms. Tompkins or you and Ms. Tompkins propose for improvement at your expenses.

I will notify you, if anything comes to my attention that suggests other options.

I am enclosing a survey of the area in question for your use.

Re: Drive Ways

Dear Mr. Young:

After receiving your most recent inquiry concerning the driveways and the possibility of building an extension to Pleasant Point Drive, the board ask that I make a report to them at their monthly meeting held August 11, 2005.

We reviewed the plats of 1969 forward and recognize a proposed extension of Pleasant Point shown. We also reviewed the by-laws of 1981 that addressed the association's responsibility to pave certain existing roads previously unpaved by earlier developers.

After a thorough discussion the board determined that there is no road to be paved and they had no obligation to build a road.

The quote obtained from REA Construction Company in January of this year was $19,800.00 to build and pave the extension.

The board determined that they could not justify spending $19,800.00 of association funds to serve two owners. They also noted that each of you have access to your properties from established roads.

The board also acknowledges that they have no authority to intervene in matters concerning any perceived encroachment on private property.

Sincerely,

The Pleasant Point Property Owners Association is agreeable to relinquishing, via quitclaim instrument, any interest it still may hold in the property which is the subject of the dispute between your respective clients. Once you have it worked out between yourselves, please provide me with a draft of the document you would like for PPPOA to execute. With this, I don't see any reason for the Association to participate in the contemplated mediation or further proceedings.

(INDEX AT REAR OF TRANSCRIPT)

THE COURT: This is Ewing versus Guest, Round 2, and there are two motions that have been filed, motions for reconsideration, one by each side.

And this is what I thought we would do, unless there's some objection, take their motion first, who I'm pointing, that's not a very good indication in the record, Fred Kuhn's motion first because it was filed first and take your motion second because it was filed second.

And what I thought, subject to counsel's suggestions or objections or anything else, is that we would divide it up ten minutes on this side, 15 minutes on that side, and five minutes for rebuttal on this side again. That way each side gets 15 minutes. Since they're the moving party, they go first.

I'm not married to this suggestion, but if this is acceptable to everybody, ten, 15, and five, and then when we get to your motion, it's the same numbers, it's just reversed, you go first ten. You don't have to use the whole ten, you don't have to use the whole 15, but I just thought that would be a useful way to at least approach it, subject to discussion from counsel.

MR. KUHN: Your Honor, I would like to have more than ten minutes. It's going to take me --

MR. TEDDER: I think he should only have five, but I'll leave it with whatever the Court says.

THE COURT: Do you want 15?

MR. KUHN: I would prefer 20, Your Honor. I plan to go through some --

THE COURT: I have no problem at all with going with 20 --

MR. KUHN: I'll go very quickly.

THE COURT: -- unless you have an objection.

MR. TEDDER: Your Honor, this is your courtroom. Give him as much time as you feel is appropriate.

THE COURT: You've got 20, okay. And by the way, you have 20 to start on your motion. You don't have to use it all, but let's keep it equal for each side.

MR. KUHN: Fair enough.

THE COURT: We don't have a bailiff, but I will try informally to keep track, but if it turns out it's 20, and you really want to go a few more minutes, why not, okay.

MR. KUHN: I realize you're the one I'm trying to convince, and it's your patience I do not want to exacerbate.

THE COURT: I taught law students for more years than I want to admit and still do as an adjunct professor up at USC law school. You don't have any idea. You couldn't begin to get me impatient compared to that particular audience over the years.

MR. KUHN: I have a hazy recollection of what being a law student was like.

Your Honor, I'm going to refer to a number of documents. May I pass up a copy?

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. TEDDER: Fred, can I -- since I haven't seen those, are these exhibits of already-admitted documents?

MR. KUHN: This is the chain of title. There's one -- actually, there's two pages in there that are not admitted that I drew on that are exhibits that I drew on. There's a plat, and I wrote on the plat to --

MR. TEDDER: My point is the record is the record, Your Honor. That's what I -- this is not a retrial at this point.

THE COURT: I understand that totally, and that's not --

MR. TEDDER: And that's why I don't -- we've already had problems in reviewing this with the number of exhibits that we have that we've already admitted, and to have a second set of reference numbers is going to make it even more confusing.

THE COURT: Is this marked similar to the exhibits that were in the first trial?

MR. KUHN: No, because those were helter-skelter, and these are in order.

THE COURT: Okay. I understand.

MR. KUHN: I think it makes more sense if I take --

THE COURT: Why don't we take five or ten minutes now, and first --

MR. TEDDER: If we can cross-reference them. I think that's my issue is the lack of a cross-reference.

THE COURT: Let's first have you take a look at it, and then see if everybody can, with the help of a great court reporter, cross-reference these to the exhibits that have already been introduced into the trial. I'm not particularly concerned that you wrote on two pages, I'm really not, but that's up to opposing counsel. Why don't you two guys get together, and let me hand it back to you.

MR. KUHN: Your Honor, that may take quite a while, quite frankly. These are all the deeds and all the plats.

THE COURT: Well, I've got a list of exhibits right here starting with -- this is from the court reporter. How long would it take to just mark them again?

MR. KUHN: How about we just mark this. If it turns out later on there's nothing in the record, just don't consider it.

MR. TEDDER: I don't consider these to be admissions of new evidence.

THE COURT: Nor do I.

MR. KUHN: Nor do I.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. TEDDER: What I'm looking at is trying to make certain that if I have to refer to these later in some other filing --

MR. KUHN: This is exhibits to --

MR. TEDDER: -- that I have consistency of what that is, so subject to us trying to identify that this first one, which is the deed into General Tompkins, is Exhibit whatever --

THE COURT: If we have an understanding that we can put on the record that there's nothing new in here from the trial, this is in a different order, but there is -- we have a representation from counsel, which I accept as 100 percent accurate, as I would accept anything you said as 100 percent accurate on this kind of thing. These are already exhibits. We don't have the right numbers, but they're already exhibits in this case.

MR. TEDDER: And if we could, as he argues about them or with them, if we just use the recorded information, that is our ultimate cross-reference. This first one is --

MR. KUHN: Your Honor, every page in here is numbered, so we can just refer to the page numbers. It'd be very easy to figure out. If I've got to recite the page numbers and the date recorded, I'm going to use up my 20 minutes.

THE COURT: Your 20 minutes hasn't started. You don't have to worry about --

MR. KUHN: I mean, what I can say is Page 1 is the deed to General Tompkins from Pleasant Point Plantation.

THE COURT: And I'm not worried about the 20 minutes, honestly. I want to hear the arguments.

The whole purpose -- this is for the parties. The whole purpose for this hearing, in all candor, is to set up probably -- the next step after a Rule 59 is an appeal. That's just the way the process works. I'm not saying either side's going to appeal. I'm not saying both sides are going to appeal.

I'm just saying that's the general purpose for this kind of motion, and I'm comfortable that each side should get the opportunity to argue whatever it is they want to argue in this particular hearing, as long as they refer to documents that have already been put into the record, that that really is -- we're not retrying the case; we're reconsidering the order that I wrote.

By the way, it's always kind of humbling, you know. One side says: Spitz, you only made 54,000 mistakes on the order, and the other side says: And you need to add 24,000 new things to the order, but other than that, it's kind of nice to just listen to what people think of the order. So I'm comfortable with this.

MR. KUHN: Your Honor, may I suggest if we can mark this as an exhibit to this hearing, all these pages are numbered, that would be clear what we're talking about here today. I believe everything in this package is in the record. I may be wrong. If I am wrong, then obviously it's not in the record by us referring to it today, can't put it in the record today, but there are two pages I drew on that are not in the record, but they're for illustrative purposes only, and that way we've got a complete package. And the perfect counter if I refer to something that's not in the record is --

THE COURT: Can you show opposing counsel the two pages that you drew on?

MR. TEDDER: I've looked at them. He's taken a plat, and he's drawn on it, which I think it's just because he's used it as an illustration for his argument, just presuming that.

But what I was just looking at, I don't know what was actually admitted into evidence without having an exhibit list and looking at this and determining if it is. With the stipulation if it was not admitted in the prior trial, you'll ignore that --

THE COURT: Yes, absolutely.

MR. TEDDER: I can -- I don't want to hold us up and get stuck in the mud trying to get going, but I was just handed, quite frankly, 150 pages of documents that I --

THE COURT: I don't have any problem whatsoever telling you if it wasn't admitted at the trial, I am not going to consider it in any way, shape, or form on this particular hearing.

(DFT. EXH. 1, Package of Documents, was marked for identification.)

MR. TEDDER: You said you had an exhibit list up there?

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. TEDDER: I don't know that I brought mine. Can I just look at it for one second?

THE COURT: Sure.

By the way, I thought we would -- I doubt that I am going to rule on anything today.

I mean, that's possible, but I really doubt it. I'm going to listen carefully and take notes.

I'm going to ask the court reporter, with the agreement of counsel, to type it up again, just like she did last time. I'm going to take the copy of what was said here today and promptly, within ten days, deal with both motions.

I don't have any idea at all what I'm going to do. I could write something saying my first order was swell, and I affirm it completely, totally, and that's the end of that, and I've considered and rejected everybody's arguments on both sides.

I could actually write an order saying I might change the following things after listening to the argument and reading the argument. It's even possible I could substantially change the order. All those things are possible.

Since we're just chatting hypothetically, let me say one more thing for whatever it's worth on the record. If I don't know what I'm going to do, which, of course, I don't, just think about this: If the next step really is an appeal, you'll have three strangers, and they won't give counsel 20 minutes and then 15 minutes and then -- they follow very strict rules, and you'll have three wonderful strangers. I respect everybody on the Court of Appeals, and I know them, and they'll decide this case.

So in a way, it's kind of another opportunity at some point for everyone to sit down and say do I really think this is going to go on and on and on, and is it really better for me, or is it better to somewhat take control of it and actually settle it not on terms that you're 100 percent happy about, but on terms that actually were. It's just an opportunity.

I'm not pushing settlement, and I'm not telling you to settle. As a matter of fact, I don't have the authority to tell you to settle. I'm just simply saying that really is an opportunity to at least think about it.

MR. KUHN: Your Honor, before I start, I think we should maybe clarify one thing on the record. This is Ewing versus Guest and the Pleasant Point Property Homeowners Association, which is represented by Mr. Grimsley.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. KUHN: And I see he's not here today, and I'm assuming that's voluntary on their part.

THE COURT: I'm assuming so too. Didn't he send us all an email saying that he was happy to be kept in the loop, but he wasn't attending today?

MR. KUHN: That's my understanding, Your Honor.

THE COURT: To attend this hearing.

MR. KUHN: That he was notified and --

THE COURT: Does that help you?

MR. TEDDER: It does. I wanted to double-check just a couple things to refresh my memory.

MR. KUHN: May it please the Court.

THE COURT: Wait for just one more minute until they take another look at something, and then it certainly will please me, okay, but I've just got to wait to make sure that they're on the same page.

The only thing I can say about this process, for whatever it's worth, it's really much better than a couple of centuries ago when people took out guns, separated by a number of steps, and tried to shoot each other. That's another way to resolve the case, but that's got a lot of collateral consequences that aren't that great.

MR. TEDDER: I think I'm ready, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. KUHN: May it please the Court, Your Honor, Fred Kuhn. I'm here on behalf of Keith and Stephanie Guest.

I respectfully submit, Your Honor, that the proper resolution to this matter is to find and conclude that the Ewings' access to Lot 1, on which their home is located, is off of Sussex Court, as shown on the original plat of the subdivision, that the 40-foot road that was located to the west of their property has never existed in fact and existed on paper for only a short period of time and long ago was abandoned and surrendered and is no longer in existence, and that the easement that was granted to their predecessors in title, General and Mrs. Tompkins, expired on their passing.

What I would like to do, Your Honor, your order seems to be focused very heavily on the proposition that when a subdivision is created, and roads are platted out, and a lot is sold, an easement is created over those roads, and a right to use those roads is created. And that is an overly simplistic but correct general statement of the law. The primary focus should be, number one -- two parts -- was an easement created over these roads, and secondly, what is the scope of the easement that was created over these roads.

The Carolina Land Company versus Bland case, the Murrells Inlet versus Ward case emphasized that this is an implied easement, and when you look at an implied easement, the primary focus, the sole focus, in fact, is the intent of the parties.

And you look first at the intent to see was an easement created, and that's a matter of law, and secondly, you look to see, well, if an easement was created, what was the scope of that easement, and that's a matter of equity.

The scope of the easement that was created I think is critical in this case, and it is overly simplistic to say that they got an easement for purposes of ingress and egress simply because the road adjoins their property.

And I think to see that, you need to look at the chain of title, but we also get in this case issues of abandonment of a road, prescriptive or adverse possession of the road by my clients and their predecessors in title, as well as conversely on behalf of the Ewings and their predecessors in title.

So I think that what I have to do, and it's a little bit tedious, which is why I wanted 20 minutes, is run through the chain of title.

THE COURT: You got it. I'm with you. I understand what you're saying.

MR. KUHN: If you look at the package of documents, every page is numbered, and just very briefly, we start off with the transaction on Page 1 from Pleasant Point Plantation to General and Mrs. Tompkins.

The first deed is for Lot 1. The second deed, which starts on Page 5, is for Lots 2 and 3. These deeds reference a plat recorded at Plat Book 18, Page 45, which is on Page 8.

This plat shows Lot 1, on which their residence is located. It shows Pleasant Point Drive coming up to and proceeding southerly until it adjoins Lot 1, and then it shows a long, narrow strip of land going from Lot 1 to Sussex Court.

And I respectfully submit that there's clear, reasonable, and a greater weight of preponderance of the evidence that the intended access to Lot 1 is that stretch of land that proceeds from Lot 1 to Sussex Court; otherwise, it would be nonexistent.

It makes no sense otherwise. There's no other reason that strip of land would be there. There is absolutely no conceivable explanation for that strip of land other than it was intended to be the driveway to Lot 1 off Sussex Court.

So when you state that, this plat was created, the deed references this plat, this plat shows roads. Granted, that's the matter of law -- that's the existence of a right to use the road.

Now we look at what is the scope, in other words, was it the intent of the parties that Pleasant Point Drive would be the access point to Lot 1, and looking at that, applying the greater weight of preponderance of the evidence, I think it's clear, from just looking at this plat on its face, that the intended access is off Sussex Court; otherwise, that particular configuration of this lot makes no sense.

Couple that with the testimony of the developer, Mr. Branning, who testified that the intended reason for that extension of Pleasant Point Drive was not to access Lot 1, it was intended to access the unlotted, unplatted large piece of property on which the Manor House at that time was located, and that's reinforced if you go through the chain of title.

The next deed plat that's recorded is on Page 9. This is the same as the prior plat, except you'll see two lots were added, Lots 23 and 24, but same basic configuration. But again, the access to Lot 1 off Sussex Court is repeated in this plat.

The very next plat that's recorded, and this is in April of 1974, this is on Page 10 and 11. It's a large plat, so these two pages encompass the entire plat. This is Plat 22, Page 109.

You'll see that very shortly after that road that's in dispute was created -- this is just a few years later -- this whole subdivision is replatted. And I've blown up on Page 12 that the part of this plat at 22, Page 109 we're concerned about, now, as you'll see, what has happened with this plat in 1974 is that not all the lots have been created.

The lot on which the Manor House sits, Lot 28 beside it, and, most significantly, that part of the road that we've been talking about is gone, vanished, nonexistent, changed. They've created instead a loop that serves all the new lots, and still, Lot 1 is accessed by a strip of land off Sussex Court.

This plainly and clearly put General and Mrs. Tompkins on notice, as well as the rest of the world, that this road has been removed from the system. And this is when, I respectfully submit, my clients and their predecessors in title began their adverse possession of the property on which that road used to sit. The world is now on notice that road has been taken out of the system. That's 26, 36, 41 years ago that that took place.

The next document in the chain of title is on Page 13 of this package, and this is the lifetime easement to General and Mrs. Tompkins. And this is totally and completely inconsistent with that road continuing to exist. It's exclusive. You can't bar people from using the road, and this easement sits in the road, but it's exclusive to the Tompkins, so they gained an exclusive right to use this property. It allows them to build on it, it allows them to plant on it, it allows them to obstruct, none of which would be possible if that road continued to exist.

So they're gaining rights under this document that they would not possess if that road existed, and, most importantly, on the plat on Page 14 that shows the easement, the road is gone. On their own plat, created at their request, the road is gone.

And in your order, Your Honor talks about, well, if this was in accord and satisfaction, then wouldn't it say the road is gone? And I respectfully submit that, yes, it does say that. It couldn't say it more plainly. Our rights are shown on this plat, and if that road was still there, we would have drawn it. We would have noted it. It shows the road is gone. If this road still existed, they would not have the right to plant, to obstruct, to do things in this area, because this is on the road.

And then lastly, Your Honor, why give them this easement if that road still existed, because this sits right on top of the road. It makes no sense to put an easement on top of an easement, unless there's, at the very least, a dispute as to the validity of the attempt by the developer to remove that road from the system, and this is how they resolved it.

The next deed in the chain, Your Honor, is from Morprop, who used to own all this property, to Pleasant Point Plantation Associates, and you'll see in here, just to point out, part of what is being conveyed expressly excludes Lots 1, 2, and 3, because that had already been sold to the Tompkins, and it references this plat, 22 at 109, that shows the road is gone and the new road configuration system. So, again, public notes back in 1981, that road is gone.

Next deed in the system is actually a plat, the plat at Plat Book 30 at Page 141, which is on Page 23 of this package of documents. And this is consistent with the plat that removed that disputed road from the system, and it now shows the lifetime easement granted to the Tompkins.

And you can see the lots have been added. They've been labeled this time. Lot 28, next to the Manor House property, which eventually became Lot 29, this new road loop that closes the loop, and, significantly, the road to the west of Lot 1 is gone. So once again --

THE COURT: What are you looking at now, Counsel?

MR. KUHN: This is Page 23, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I mean, I've been following what you're doing up until -- I got it. Thanks. Okay. I'm with you.

MR. KUHN: Again, it shows the easement, shows the road is gone, shows all the new lots that have been added around this new road loop that has been created for the plantation, and, of course, shows the access to Lot 1 off Sussex Point Drive.

The next deed is on Page 24, and this is where Pleasant Point Plantation Associates conveys the property to Jones Properties, one of my clients' predecessors in title. This is Lot 28, which is next door to the Manor House property, which eventually becomes consolidated with it, and again references this Plat 30 at 141 that shows no road, but shows the easement.

Next Deed, 1985, Page 28. This is from Pleasant Point Plantation Associates to Robert Lewis White. This is conveying Lot 29. They conveyed Lot 28 by the prior deed. Now they're conveying Lot 29, which is the old Manor House.

There are some things in here that I think are significant to point out, because they're sort of buried. They say this property is bounded on the north by Pleasant Point Drive. Well, that would be impossible, totally impossible, if that old original platted road was still in existence. That's only possible if the new plat that removed that road is in existence. That's only when Pleasant Point Drive runs to the north of this lot. So it says bounded on the north by Pleasant Point Drive, which would be impossible unless the roads had been reconfigured.

MR. TEDDER: Your Honor, just -- I'm not trying to -- I lost track of what page you were on, Fred, the last deed you were just talking about.

MR. KUHN: Page 28.

It says also, it says: Bounded on the east by Lot 1 and a narrow strip of land, and it describes that narrow strip, which is clearly the easement.

THE COURT: Let me ask a question. I'm writing on this list right now some notes of your argument. Do we have a list without my notes that we're going to be giving to the court reporter?

MR. KUHN: A copy of this package?

THE COURT: Yeah, a copy of the package.

MR. KUHN: I was going to make yours -- well, actually, I've got a copy I was going to give Jim Grimsley if he was here, so I can give her that copy.

THE COURT: Perfect, because I just don't know that it makes sense for me to have my notes on this, because what you will discover -- my third grade teacher was right -- I really can't write very well, okay, so --

DR. GUEST: You should have been a doctor.

THE COURT: Oh, no, shouldn't be a doctor. The world is very happy that did not happen.

MR. KUHN: But in sum, Your Honor, this deed says: Bounded on the north by Pleasant Point Drive, which is consistent with our interpretation, inconsistent with the road. So it says bounded on the east by Lot 1 and the easement, not bounded on the east by the road. So, obviously, the road is gone, again, and it references the Plat 30 at 141, which does not show the road. So, again, public notice, clearly showing no road.

Next year, another deed from Pleasant Point Plantation Associates to Howard and Jones, conveys a bunch of lots, but here's where it conveys the 1.487 acres as shown on attached plat, and this plat is on Page 34 of the handout.

And if you look at that, the 1.487 acres is the large parcel in the middle that's being conveyed, which eventually my clients -- is consolidated with my clients' property. You'll see at the top of the page Lot 28 and the lot labeled Manor House, and you will see that the road is gone again, and you will see again -- you can see why, when the Manor House property is conveyed, it says bounded on the north by Pleasant Point Drive, because now Pleasant Point Drive stops and turns.

A year later, another plat is recorded and another conveyance, this time from Associates to Howard and Jones. That plat is on Page 39 of my handout, almost identical to the plat that was previously recorded the year before. Again, the Manor House is shown, the road is not.

Next year --

THE COURT: Let me just ask you one question. She was never a party to any of these documents. Isn't that right?

MR. KUHN: She being Mrs. Ewing?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. KUHN: That is correct, Your Honor. These are public records putting her on notice that my clients and their predecessors in title are claiming this fee simple, no easement. Goes to our adverse possession claim.

THE COURT: My problem, my concern is that if I have a property right, and other people don't recognize it and record things, I don't know that I have a duty to go down to the RMC and examine subsequent documents that don't recognize my right. I'm troubled that these are all third people or fourth people or unrelated people who are doing something, not connecting it back up to her, so that you understand my concern.

And I don't plan to ask a lot of questions. I really think this is your role, and I apologize, but occasionally, I am going to at least tell you what's on my mind, which is I'm troubled, because a lot of people don't go down to the RMC after they have a property right, ever.

MR. KUHN: I'm glad you asked, so please ask questions, because I'm here to figure out what's --

THE COURT: I understand.

MR. KUHN: I'm more interested in figuring out what your questions are and answering them than telling you what I want you to hear, if that makes sense.

THE COURT: Yes, it does.

MR. KUHN: The answer is the Tompkins -- your situation, you don't know about it. This situation, they knew about it. The very first plat or second plat that eliminates the road is their own plat showing the easement. They're a party to that. They create a plat.

So this is our easement. We're not going to show the road, and on top of that, we want to plant in the road, we want to block the road, we want to obstruct things in the road, we want the exclusive right to use this road. So they've got notice, they know what's going on, and all these other deeds, these are just confirming what's already taken place. And then later on, we'll see that they find out about it, file a lawsuit, and then drop it.

So now here we are in '87, Page 42 of my package, I guess, for lack of a better word. This is Jones Properties to White and Griffin, and here's just yet another publicly-recorded document that puts the world on notice that there's a plat that depicts a lifetime easement, and no road.

THE COURT: Got it.

MR. KUHN: Next deed, 1987, this is from White to Mr. and Mrs. Davis. And this I respectfully -- there's an error in here. It references the Plat 19 at 160, which is that very old plat that does show the road and added the two extra lots, but it makes no sense to be referencing that plat for several reasons.

First, they're conveying Lot 29, purportedly as shown on that plat. Lot 29 is not shown on that plat, so why they -- so it makes no sense. I submit it's just an error there.

It says it's the same property as we previously received, which that's what it's referring to. It's not. It was referring to that plat. It's inconsistent with the prior two plats in the chain of title. And again, Your Honor, it says we're selling you Lot 29 as shown on that plat, but Lot 29 is not shown on that plat.

But then it goes on to reference an individual plat recorded in Warranty Book 350, 1450. The standard language for a more particularized description of what -- look at this individual plat.

And if you look at that plat, which is on Page 57 of this handout, once again, we see the road is gone, the easement's depicted, and it shows Lot 29, an individual plat of Lot 29. So yet again, another plat showing no road.

1987, the next plat in the chain, again, it shows Lot 28 and the 1.487 acres. It says it references a plat, but it isn't, so they filed a corrective deed, and that deed is Page 62 of this handout.

And if you look at the plat there, you'll see what they're conveying. This is on Page 65. And what they've done here is they've taken that little portion of Pleasant Point Drive that was created as part of that loop way back in 1974, 0.2 acres, and they're conveying it with that 1.487-acre parcel, so it becomes one contiguous piece.

And the deed recites: Our intent is to create one contiguous tract of land. So they've sold in fee simple this 0.2 acres. If that road still existed, that would block access to the road. You can see Pleasant Point Drive is to the top, you've got the 0.2 acres, and then you've got the Manor House property. So this is a deed expressly conveying access to the road, and again, the road is not shown on this plat, and there's no road shown to the west of Lots 1 or 2.

The next deed, 1991, is the next deed in the chain of title. I think this is significant because it references three different plats: Plat 30 at Page 141, plat in Deed Book 462 at 1271, and plat in Deed Book 481 at 1881. It references all three plats; all three plats show no road.

THE COURT: What number are you on?

MR. KUHN: This is Page 66, Your Honor, the deed that starts on Page 66.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm with you. I got it.

MR. TEDDER: I'm sorry, Your Honor. What page was that, Fred?

MR. KUHN: 66.

Next deed in the chain is just this is when General Tompkins conveys his undivided one-half interest in his trust. That's on Page 69.

The next deed -- these are all chronological -- is on Page 73. This is where the Davises convey to the American Hospital Insurance Group, and it's a general warranty deed for the Manor House lot, what they're calling also known as Lot 29.

And this is a deed that Your Honor put significant weight on in his order, because it does show, arguably, the road, but it doesn't show the road -- the first point I'd like to make, number one, is it doesn't show the road as a road, it's drawn in as a dotted line, and the fee to this property is clearly conveyed by the language of the deed. It's not labeled Pleasant Point Drive, like the other roads are labeled, but it says: Pleasant Point Drive as shown on the above-referenced plat.

It grants the easement for ingress and egress over the 0.2 acres, which would be totally unnecessary if the 40-foot road still existed, so it has express language in it that's inconsistent with that road still existing. And I respectfully submit, Your Honor, you can't resurrect the road after 30-plus years, and I don't think that's what's intended here.

This is simply an historical artifact that the surveyor's shown, which is why he's drawn it as a dotted line instead of as a road, which is why he has said this is as shown on the above-referenced plat as opposed to simply, like he did with the other roads that he shows on here, just write in the road, write in the name of the road.

And just to sort of summarize briefly at this point, Your Honor, there are at least seven prior plats showing no road, in 1974, 1976, 1982, 1985, 1986, again in 1986, and in 1987, each of those plats being referenced multiple times in multiple recorded documents. The surveyor, of course, can't resurrect a road that is no longer there.

The next deed, Page 78, this is just a quitclaim deed that conveys the easement property in fee simple absolute. The other deed didn't cover it. They give a general warranty for everything but the easement, so a general warranty deed for the road, and then in this deed, they give the quitclaim for the property covered by the easement.

MR. TEDDER: Fred, can you give me a page reference again to make sure I'm on the right one?

MR. KUHN: That's on Page 78.

1999, American Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Young, the Manor House, Lot 29, as shown on Plat 61, 90. Again, it shows no road, all land to the west of Lots 1 and 2. This one is putting the -- making sure there's no doubt that we are selling the property where that road used to sit. We are selling all land to the west of Lots 1 and 2, including that land in deed book -- plat on Deed Book 248, 454, which is the lifetime easement property.

We're making no doubt that we are selling the fee simple absolute to this property, unencumbered by anything. It's upgraded at this time. This is when they upgraded it from a quitclaim deed, the easement property, to a general warranty deed.

The deed on Page 86, again to the Youngs. This conveys Lot 28. This deed again references three different plats. All three plats show no road.

Then in 1999, the next document in the deed, it's a lawsuit starting on Page 92. This sort of goes back to Your Honor's question. Well, what if they didn't know all this was going on? What if it's some sort of secret conspiracy? And for some reason, the rule that what's filed at the courthouse is public notice we get around somehow.

This is a lawsuit filed by the Tompkins, and Mrs. Ewing is the trustee at the time, against the Youngs, making the exact same claim they're making here today and saying that, you know, because it's a plat recorded way back when, subdivision created a road there, we've got a right to use it to access our lot.

And the short response, Your Honor, I've got the summons, complaint, and the answer and counterclaim, and the case apparently just died. They failed. So they brought an action.

THE COURT: Did they dismiss the case with prejudice?

MRS. EWING: May I answer this?

THE COURT: No, no. Stop, Counsel.

Just one second. The temptation to say something, I know, is very strong. It's true for you; it's true for the other side. And we have to play by the rules, even though the rules sometimes seem a little odd. So no. There's counsel who are excellent, excellent in this case, and each side is going to have their opportunity to really respond to this.

I want to know a little bit more about what happened exactly on the Julia Tompkins versus Young case. How did it resolve itself?

MR. KUHN: I would love to know. All the record says is, quote: Withdrawn or settled by parties. Of course, I do not know the Youngs, who were parties. My clients were not involved in this property at the time. Mrs. Ewing was one of the parties, but did not explain how it ended. I respectfully submit that the inference should be drawn against her.

THE COURT: Well, let's leave the inferences out for a moment. There's really no claim of res judicata or collateral estoppel here, right?

MR. KUHN: Yes, sir, there is.

THE COURT: Oh, there is?

MR. KUHN: There is.

THE COURT: What issue --

MR. KUHN: And laches.

THE COURT: Well, that's a different issue. What issue -- how do you get to the elements of res judicata when a case is settled, and we don't --

MR. KUHN: Or withdrawn.

THE COURT: Or withdrawn, and we don't know what that means. I don't think you've got the elements.

MR. KUHN: We've got a lawsuit.

THE COURT: Got a lawsuit. I agree with that.

MR. KUHN: Made the same claim she's making here today. Did not succeed in that claim, we know that.

THE COURT: I have to think about that, okay. I understand. Settled or withdrawn to me --

MR. KUHN: If I sue you --

THE COURT: I understand.

MR. KUHN: -- and I back off and drop it, and I wait ten years to bring it up again --

THE COURT: Let me make a note, okay.

MR. KUHN: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: By the way, I'm not saying that you're not right. I'm just honestly, as I sit here today --

MR. KUHN: I appreciate it.

THE COURT: This is something really new for me to think a little bit about.

MR. KUHN: I want Your Honor to ask questions. I think I'm almost -- I've got to be out of my 20 minutes or very close, so I want to wrap it up.

THE COURT: Guess what? Don't worry. We're going to try -- the goal is in this case, like all cases, is to get it right. That's the goal. So I'm not concerned, and if the other side runs a little late, guess what, I'm going to treat them the same way.

MR. KUHN: That's all I could ask for, Your Honor.

Next deed -- and after these, the deeds are fairly cookie cutter. It's from the Youngs to Alyon, Inc., and this shows the -- this is to everything, basically, my clients own now, Lot 28, Lot 29, that 0.2-acre parcel that was part of the road system formerly, and the 1.487-acre parcel, which is really open land. It's a pond, basically, that sits below that.

And again, this plat, like the one before it, doesn't show the road as a road. And this is where I got -- I hate to use the word creative, but I drew on this to help me make my point. Sometimes I'm better illustrating than explaining.

If you look at Page 118, that's the plat, without me having drawn on it. If you look at 119, what I did here is I just drew a heavier line over the boundary to my client's property as shown on the plat. This is what was conveyed in fee simple absolute to my clients.

And as you'll see, that encompasses the road, and it encompasses the lifetime easement. And I emphasize that the road is drawn on here not as a boundary line, but by dotted lines. I think that's significant. And the reference to the road I circled, it says -- this is where I usually would need glasses -- Pleasant Point Drive as shown on above-referenced plat, and I've circled that.

And by contrast, I circled the roads that are shown on this plat. Sussex Court is just labeled Sussex Court, not Sussex Court as shown on above-referenced plat. And Pleasant Point Drive is just labeled Pleasant Point Drive, not Pleasant Point Drive as shown on the above-referenced plat. And Country Club Drive is just shown as Country Club Drive, not as referenced on the above-referenced plat. And none of those latter three roads are shown by dotted lines.

I think all that is significant. That shows, again, by the greater weight of preponderance of the evidence looking at the scope, that what the surveyor's showing on here is simply a historical artifact, that this is where the road used to be. Likewise, the easement to -- just like you showed the lifetime easement to the Ewings.

THE COURT: Counsel, let me ask you this. And I'm not necessarily disagreeing with you, and frankly, I'm not necessarily agreeing with you. I read this as a boundary and tree survey. The purpose of this was a very specific two purposes, where are the trees on the property, and where is the boundary.

Now, on a boundary and tree survey, you don't necessarily show all the easements that could exist or don't exist over the property. That's a different purpose than the purpose of the boundary line and the tree survey.

I don't know why this was done. I mean, I'm just reading from the document itself. So I'm interested in your response. I understand your circles. Your drawing is better than mine, but that doesn't say anything, let me assure you.

MR. KUHN: Nor my drawing, I guarantee you.

THE COURT: I'd like to hear your response to the fact that this looks like a limited survey that is done for boundaries and trees.

MR. KUHN: I think that's exactly right.

THE COURT: But that doesn't necessarily preclude easements or show easements.

MR. KUHN: It helps interpret what is shown on here, which the interpretation, I believe, given to this plat in your order is this shows the road still in existence.

THE COURT: Yes. I understand. If I said that -- I'm now going back and thinking about that as well.

MR. KUHN: Respectfully --

THE COURT: My point is, you know, this is a very complicated case. I'm going to say again to the parties, honestly, this is one heck of a complicated case, all right. I know what the order says, and I'm now taking a second look, which is the very purpose of 59, okay. I don't know that that -- okay. I'm with you. I'm with you so far.

MR. KUHN: And I agree, Your Honor. As I was sitting down, I said have I ever asked for more time to argue? Almost always, as a knee-jerk reaction, I stand up and say: Your Honor, that's plenty of time.

THE COURT: I understand. I understand. Well, you're doing real well. Let's keep going.

MR. KUHN: But in this particular case, this surveyor -- I think that is it. This deed is not intended to say this road is still in existence. This deed is simply intended to show that at one time, there was -- that Pleasant Point Drive, as shown on that plat, was located here.

THE COURT: And I'm not sure that it wasn't --

MR. KUHN: The surveyor --

THE COURT: I'm not sure that I agree with you that it wasn't shown for the purpose. I'm just looking. It's got the label boundary and tree survey. That's --

MR. KUHN: Yes, sir. I think what he's showing on here is this is where that road used to be located.

THE COURT: Got it.

MR. KUHN: And if you look at Page 120, I've taken, again, that same plat, and if the road was still in existence, following the same surveyor's technique that he did, showing everything else, if he had intended to say that road still is in existence, this is how he would have drawn it. He would have moved the boundary of my client's property, if that's part of the road system, and he wouldn't have said Pleasant Point Drive as shown on the above-referenced plat like every other road, the other three roads shown on here, he would have just said Pleasant Point Drive.

So I do not respectfully submit the surveyor neither intended, nor did he have the power, to establish that that road was in existence still. That's a matter of law for this Court to decide based upon the entire record of this case and the law.

The next several deeds, Your Honor, starting on Page 121 are deeds back and forth between Mr. and Mrs. Young and a corporation called Alyon. They all have the exact same legal description, and I don't know why they went back and forth so many times.

And then the deed at 135, this is where it was foreclosed upon against the Youngs, the bank got the property, and then the deed went forward, but my clients got it from the bank.

And then lastly, the last document in here, Page 144, this is where the defendant, Mrs. Ewing, acquired the property on September 2013 and show that thereafter, this is where this lawsuit began.

Looking at the totality of the circumstances, looking at not just the creation of the easement as a matter of law, but the scope of the initial easement as a matter of equity, I think it is abundantly clear that when this subdivision was created, the access to Lot 1 was intended to be on Sussex Court, that Pleasant

Point Drive originally extended up to Lot 1, that the intent, as testified to and not rebutted, was that that would serve the property on which my clients now live.

For some reason, the clubhouse never came into existence, and that became a private residence. Shortly thereafter, they reconfigured the entire subdivision, rerouted the roads.

The Tompkins, Mrs. Ewings' predecessors in title, then entered in negotiations, acquired a lifetime easement, resolved any dispute way back then that might have existed over the reconfigured road system, because, as Mr. Branning testified, he and General Tompkins were good friends. There were absolutely no problems, as long as General Tompkins was alive, using that easement. Whether they wanted on or wanted off, it was all permissive.

And all of the deeds, everything in the chain of title, shows that that road was abandoned, not just in fact, because it was never used, but legally, many, many years ago, my clients have acquired all the rights by adverse possession as well as by clear title, and they have waited way too long to try to resurrect the road that basically died back in 1974.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Are you okay to keep going forward?

THE REPORTER: Sure.

MR. TEDDER: Good morning, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And it is a Friday, I'd point out, my favorite day of the week.

MR. TEDDER: I'm not going to go in order because I want to address something right at the outset, and Your Honor picked up on it when you looked at the plat at 68 at 170 that's mentioned in every plat that shows the dotted line, and Fred just -- Mr. Kuhn just drew on, saying that the surveyor didn't show things right.

Now, as an officer of the court and having done closings since 1982, a titled insurance agent, and a constant looking at plats, the significance of a dotted line is that it is not a property boundary. The solid lines are what surveyors use to show the property boundaries.

The fact that they show easements on there by dotted lines is just indicating that there's something there, and in this case, there's even a pointer to another plat to say look over at that one, which will have the easement shown on that.

So these things about dotted lines, it's going down a rabbit hole to chase a red herring, to mix metaphors, especially when you look at the equation and the defendant's argument about the fee simple, the road went away.

You can own the fee of the property subject to an infinite number of different types of easements: Utilities, avigation, road, whatever. The fact that you own the fee means you own the ground, but it doesn't mean you own everything in that bundle of sticks, as our Supreme Court of the United States has described property.

So I think Your Honor did a very good job in its initial order of sorting out those issues as to -- it's clear. We, my client, has not claimed ownership of the fee underlying the 40-foot roadway as shown on the initial plat, 18 at 45. Everything out of 18 at 45 -- after 18 at 45, save and except that smaller easement, are outside the chain of title and are irrelevant.

Just as Your Honor pointed out, people can draw pictures all day long about what they think they own or what they think is there, but that doesn't make it so, and courts have sorted out these types of things for hundreds of years.

The chain of title is sacrosanct, and what is shown in one's chain of title is what one is subject to. And in this case, as you pointed out in your order, it is clear that the defendant's chain of title put them on notice of an existence of a 40-foot easement originally shown as Pleasant Point Drive, extending all the way up to the carport, as well as the prescriptive easement that you talked about that we didn't talk -- that he didn't get into in his argument, because he was showing chain of title.

But I want to go back now to the law. You picked up, when you made your order, the very seminal and bedrock cases of Carolina and Blue Ridge, and they talk about the length of time that something could be nonused.

In Carolina, the initial plat was drawn in 1945. The lawsuit over whether they could close off the road didn't occur until 1973, 28 years. In this case, the only evidence that we have in there was there was some testimony from Mr. Branning that there were some hedges that may have blocked the area for a number of years. All of that is irrelevant when you look at Carolina Land. It doesn't -- the fact that there were some bushes there, in the Carolina case, for 28 years didn't cause an abandonment.

I think Your Honor tried to do the right thing when he looked at this and said, okay, I have an easement by this plat. Was there anything else to detract from that? The only thing that's out there that could detract from that was the second easement in 1976.

Now, I need to have stuff here so I can refer to the pages.

Much is made about dates out there. I just -- it's curious. If you look at the easement plat, it's dated in 1974. That's when they started thinking about it. Didn't happen in 1976. And all these plats that he was running through when Pleasant Point Plantation was willy-nilly filing things out there, outside our chain of title. We don't care about it.

The easement that was drawn had a number of purposes that were testified to at trial that are self-evident on its face. And first off, let me point out, Mr. Kuhn has used in his motion and in his argument the words the exclusive right to use that area. Nowhere in that easement -- I looked, I went back and looked again this morning -- can I find the word exclusive in through there.

It was for -- and the testimony said for landscaping, mowing, and other things, which are not inconsistent of a road right-of-way use for accessing it. It doesn't mean the whole thing has to be a road. And in fact, all of the plats that show roads show that there's something there way back when. Dirt drive has been there throughout the whole time.

We know there was a dirt drive surrounding -- from the testimony, surrounding the Manor House that looped around, Mr. Branning said that, back before the plats were done. Well, some of these plats don't show that dirt road. That doesn't mean it didn't exist. It just wasn't put on the plat by the surveyor, because it may not have been included in the purpose for which the survey was being created. A boundary survey doesn't necessarily show all of the as-built features on the land.

So I think a lot is being made about some drawings without taking into consideration the limited purposes for which some of those drawings were made.

And I go back to -- and I think I argued this at trial, or I at least made mention of it, the Kingstree case from about a year-and-a-half ago, where we have a situation where a road was drawn, the town accepted it, and they wanted to close it down, and the Court said that is between a private landowner who bought lots in reliance on that plat and the town, who wanted to abandon it.

That's fine, the town could abandon it, but they still have a private easement in that, because there are two types of easements: Private and public. They can both coexist. And that's the whole point of this, not to go down a rabbit hole of a public versus a private or private versus public, because there are different standards on that.

I could spend a lot of time rebutting, or trying to rebut, each and every plat reference in here, but I think the simple answer is it doesn't matter. It doesn't matter because it's outside the chain.

What does matter is that 18 at 45 referenced on all the plats, including the most -- excuse me, all the deeds, and including all the deeds that are most important here, the deed into the defendants, reference it, because you're put on notice of everything that shows on your plat. You know what you get when you go to the public record.

Now, I just want to say one thing to clear up the reference to the 1999 lawsuit. It has no resolution that you can find. There was a complaint, there was an answer and counterclaim, and there's nothing more. There's not a stipulation of facts. It's a nullity. It's just a red herring, smoke and mirrors. It was never resolved.

I don't want to get into my main argument. I'll try and keep this thing moving along. But the suit, if there's not -- you know, I'm sure there's some cases out there I can't remember the name of but that say the fact that the parties reach an agreement and do not reduce it to writing or put it on the record means the case isn't over. It wasn't ever settled. It wasn't ever finalized. It's as if the case never happened. There's no collateral estoppel. There's no res judicata.

And I don't know what it does, except to confuse the issues on here, because this is really, when you get down to it, a clear chain of title case, with the exception of could the defendant prove an abandonment by clear and convincing evidence, I think is the standard.

Your Honor had looked at that, and I have not heard anything new here today that wasn't argued at that initial trial that would have shown that you missed a fact that would have shown an abandonment of the 40-foot easement. And in fact, Your Honor found, beyond that, the prescriptive easement, so we don't have an abandonment.

They alleged estoppel. They have not proved the elements of an estoppel, nor waiver, nor adverse possession. None of those required elements have been proven or supported by the evidence that was placed forward.

The fact, again, that the same owner of the plantation or a different owner of the plantation chose to make up different plats down the line to suit his own references doesn't affect someone outside that chain of title.

In the testimony of David Youmans, the surveyor, who Your Honor mentioned in his order, the final order, he interpreted the plats, and what he put on the plats and what they're showing there, in his mind, and referenced in your order, is the fact that that road was -- the easement was there.

Which gets me to another thing about the defendant's argument as submitted in the reconsideration. There has been a bandying about of terms of easement, roadway, road, dirt drive, whatever. They're all different types of things, but sometimes they're the same thing. That 40-foot easement is a roadway. There's a dirt drive. Is the drive a road? It depends on what you're looking at.

In this case, we have a roadway that's been dedicated. Our contention is it still exists. It has not been abandoned. It has not been waived. It has not been lost through adverse possession. We're not estopped from using it.

And notwithstanding all of these documents which -- that we took the ones that were in each chain of title, they all go back to one thing, 18 at 45, the original subdivision plat.

It was a subdivision plat, not a lot plat, not a boundary survey, but a subdivision plat showing numerous things.

The Sussex Court issue, again, is a red herring. The fact that you might have another access available to you doesn't make the other one go away. And in fact, remembering that we have Lots 1, 2, and 3 involved in here, the little sliver of access shown off Sussex Court to Lot 1 doesn't necessarily show that it's there for Lot 2. Lot 2 fronts on Pleasant Point Drive extension.

And so this argument about obviously they intended the access to be off Sussex is again going down another rabbit hole, because the road was shown on the other side, Pleasant Point Drive going up to that area. Doesn't mean that you only get -- where does it say you only get one access? And the fact that you have one doesn't create an abandonment of the other. So I believe Your Honor correctly, in its initial order, got it right when it went through those different matters.

Again, the easement was not exclusive; it was for a different purpose. And the surveyor and Mrs. Ewing both testified that you could not have accessed the carport through that trapezoidal easement which reduced itself down to an infinite point at the edge of the carport, not even at its entranceway, but by its side. So that itself, that they accepted an easement or negotiated an easement for purposes far beyond access, clearly does not indicate an intent to abandon the rest of it.

The easement plat was drawn and showed the easement. It didn't need to show Lot 28 and 29, the Manor House. It didn't need to show Lots 1 and 2. It didn't need to show any of those things. And in fact, it correctly described an easement that no longer exists, because it was a limited easement, not exclusive.

If you try to use the argument that what was shown on these plats binds someone, clearly, 68 at 170 that was in the last deed into the defendants shows the driveway turning into the carport. So how there could be said that there was an abandonment, I just -- I can't get there.

I'm not going to belabor the Court's time with regard to this. I think it's nice we've got all these documents here. It's nice there's all these references to plats that didn't show the road. So, as my favorite judge, Tom Kemmerlin, used to say, what don't matter don't matter. It's outside the chain of title.

And with that, I'm going to ask for a five-minute recess before I begin my argument, or after Fred has his reply, because I have the need for the facilities.

THE COURT: Sure, absolutely. Do you want the recess right now? Let's take it right now.

MR. TEDDER: If you don't mind.

THE COURT: If you don't mind, Counsel. In fact, let's take a ten-minute recess, okay, for everybody in the room.

(A recess transpired.)

THE COURT: Back on the record. This is your reply to his argument.

MR. KUHN: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And I am going to hold you to a short period of time, not 20 minutes, but you can have five minutes.

MR. KUHN: I'm not even planning on taking the five, Your Honor.

I think I've covered all the points. Just one thing I'd like to emphasize is -- I spent a lot of time talking about the minutia -- is the big picture. We are here basically talking about an implied easement arising by implication from the original plat that was recorded.

And there's a case, Inlet Harbour versus South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation, and Tourism that talks about the difference between the creation of an easement and the scope of that easement, if it is created.

And that case, sort of similar to this, plat, subdivided, roads created, lots sold based upon the plat that showed the roads, and the Court concluded that, yeah, there was an implied easement, but it was limited. It wasn't for ingress and egress, it was for conservation purposes only, because looking at the intention of the parties, that was what we find.

THE COURT: What's the citation?

MR. KUHN: It's 659 S.E.2d 151, a 2008 case from the Supreme Court, South Carolina Supreme Court, of course.

But what I'd like to emphasize is as they talk about these implied easements, and they go since the purpose of an implied easement is to give effect to the intention of the parties to a transaction, and because the implication of an easement and a conveyance goes against the general rule that a written instrument speaks for itself, implied easements are not favored.

And they go on to explain implied easements ask the Court to take a deed between a grantor and a grantee which is silent regarding any grant or reservation of a right to cross one party's land to access the other's and implied what the parties must have meant to include in the deed, but did not.

And they go on to talk about the seriousness of granting to someone the right to use someone else's property that they do not own, and that's what we're talking about in this case.

So looking at the big picture, we've got a plat that creates a subdivision, the very plat that the Ewings rely upon, which clearly shows that the access to Lot 1 was intended to be off Sussex Court.

If you look at the plat and look at the intention of the parties when that plat was created and when that deed was conveyed, I think it is clear, abundantly clear, that the intention of the parties was that Lot 1 would be accessed off Sussex Court, and everything else that has taken place in the 40 intervening years simply confirms that.

Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. TEDDER: Just to be clear -- I don't know if I said this in my first initial argument -- I mentioned res judicata and adverse possession. They were not pled in the original action, so I don't think they're properly before the Court. I took some time to look back just to make certain.

But notwithstanding that, our motion to amend the final order deals with -- one is basically just a technical matter to have the Form 4 amended so that it shows correctly that it does affect title to real estate, so it gets recorded in the right places, which is more of a technical matter than a substantive change, but it does require Your Honor to take action to get that done.

THE COURT: Do you have the -- or can you email me a copy, the opposing side, the tax map survey number for this that you want to be in the Form 4?

MR. TEDDER: It would be -- Fred, it would be the parcels owned by the Ewings and the parcels owned by the Guests together, which I think they're five parcels, all told, I think, maybe four.

THE COURT: I think I could find it in two minutes, but I'm not sure I'm the one who's supposed to do that. I think you're the one who's supposed to send that.

MR. TEDDER: I'll make certain that that's done.

THE COURT: And that then he has -- Fred has an opportunity -- opposing counsel has an opportunity to object to anything that you sent, okay.

MR. TEDDER: In the order, you discussed that the plaintiffs have proved a prescriptive easement, and the testimony in the case showed that there were two areas where the drive had been used in excess of the period, et cetera. Those two areas, one, were up by the carport, where the 40-foot easement stopped short of the end of the carport, but the testimony was that it was used all the way out to the end.

And so if Your Honor is going to continue after this hearing to find the prescriptive easement, I think we need to define it and clarify that it includes that area to the end of the carport, that extension across it, which could be done either through words or through a line on an exhibit to show the area that you find there was a prescriptive easement.

THE COURT: Send me exactly what you propose to put in the order as amended, send a copy, obviously, to opposing counsel, and I'll take it under consideration, okay.

MR. TEDDER: And that also goes to the meandering of the drive, to what your intention was in that area to show that, which all of which shows on a plat that we have in evidence, for the most part, but I think -- I'll do what you say. I'll show you what we think you're meaning to that and provide it to the other side.

The other matter was in our initial pleadings, we had asked for a preliminary injunction and a permanent injunction to restrict the obstruction of the areas by the defendants. If you recall back at the beginning, there was a fence put up. Most of the fence is gone now. There were other obstructions of vehicles, et cetera, that were mentioned in the initial pleadings.

We would request that Your Honor include, as properly pled, a permanent injunction from the obstruction of those areas of the easement as shown on the plat and the prescriptive easement as we're going to propose, as well as restoring the drive to its prior condition before this suit was brought. The initial reason of bringing the suit was that the road was blocked, and then it was moved, and so we're asking that things be -- the status quo presuit be restored.

THE COURT: Let me talk to you a little bit about that. This really gives me some pause. If I order things to be restored back to a certain date -- by no means have I decided to do that, this is just a hypothetical -- and there is an appeal, which I have reason to think will happen, and I say that only because when you file 59(e) motions, that's sort of the signal, in the world that we all live in, that there's going to be an appeal.

And I don't claim to be so vain as to believe I got it right. By the way, I don't think I necessarily got it wrong. I just think this is a close one, really, really plain. This is a close one, for a number of reasons.

You know, you could end up -- if we restore it, you could end up having to redo it, so to speak, after the appeal. So do you have any thoughts about holding off on that issue or sending this to -- you can't send it to the Court of Appeals, although I'd like to.

I'm really puzzled by exactly what you want me to do, and is it -- I guess it's your call. Is it wise to do it at this point? Or maybe declare that if, after appeals, the order stands up, then it could be restored.

I mean, I'm interested in hearing what you have to say about this, and frankly, I'm going to ask the opposing counsel their thoughts right here in this little hearing.

MR. TEDDER: Two parts to that. One is the order keeping the carport area from being obstructed. I don't think that requires any restoration in that area.

THE COURT: I don't have -- that's a lesser problem.

MR. TEDDER: Down at the beginning of the road, where it was moved over. It is my understanding that an appeal of an injunction does not stay the effect of the court order. And I believe, and I stand to be corrected, because I'm not an appellate court, that it would be up to the appellate court to be petitioned for a bond to stay.

I believe that's the process. I have to be honest with Your Honor, it's as murky as mud when you start reading the rules trying to figure that out, to me at least. If you don't mind, my associate might be able to, not to be arguing two on one, Fred, but --

THE COURT: That's okay. I accept it as in the convenience of the situation.

MR. INGLESE: It is very murky, Your Honor, because I think that if your order says that they're permanently enjoined, that that is an exception to the stay of the filing of a notice of appeal, so if they filed --

THE COURT: I think that's right. I think that --

MR. INGLESE: So that's clear.

THE COURT: That part is clear.

MR. INGLESE: So if the driveway gets realigned -- first of all, your order is an order, so the presumption going on appeal is that your order is correct. That's the presumption going forward.

THE COURT: I've heard of presumptions. They have as much weight as -- you know, up until Christopher Columbus, the presumption really was very strong this was a flat world, okay, and then it turned out that presumption was wrong.

MR. INGLESE: And, of course, the judge who heard the preliminary injunction request was wary of doing anything too, because he was wanting this to -- this trial to happen and for your decision to make that call as far as realigning it.

THE COURT: By the way, at the end of the day, I guess I will make calls. I mean, that's the nature of this particular position. I'm delighted that I don't do this permanently. Talk about permanent. I don't know, and I never will ask, and I don't want to be told, how in the world you came up with my name. That's an issue I don't want to know. I really don't.

But it is murky as to exactly what the process is, and I wondered if you had any thoughts about it. I will do what I think is right and try to explain it and have some degree of knowledge about appeals, some, okay, but you're on a hot spot.

MR. INGLESE: The issue of the bond probably, from my reading, should be addressed by you.

THE COURT: I know.

MR. INGLESE: But that's murky. That's not totally clear there. Here's what I would propose should happen.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. INGLESE: Because the flip side of your concern is that we have an order that says put it back, and the Guests are gone next year or while the pending -- the appeal is pending. While the appeal is pending, what happens while the driveway is waiting to be readjusted? If we don't have your order that says put it back now or pending appeal, and something happens, the Guests are gone, whatever could happen, then we've got a big question mark hanging over our head for a long time, which I think would be unfair --

THE COURT: I understand.

MR. INGLESE: -- given the rest of the state of the order. So that's the flip side of your concern for us.

THE COURT: My other concern is that, frankly, if the order gets reversed, all right, then you may have to put back what you just undid, and that just seems troublesome to me.

But any way you go, this one is -- this one is not easy, okay. This one, this part of your case, is not easy for me. If you have suggestions -- I'll leave it this way. If you have suggestions, put them in writing, copy the other side, I'm going to ask them the same thing, and I will deal with this like I deal with other stuff.

MR. TEDDER: Something that Christopher said just jogged a memory in my mind. From the Charleston area, if you remember the Johns Island water line case, where they were going to expand the water line out toward Kiawah/Seabrook, and the environmentalists appealed that, and I think Judge Rawl imposed an appeal bond, so I think perhaps -- I'll do some research. I do believe that it's your prerogative to put up a withdrawal.

THE COURT: Just what I want to hear.

MR. TEDDER: With that, Your Honor, my motion was just clarification. I think, when I was reading this, I will point something else out that -- in your order you talked about -- and it's not pled, but I think it's a scribner's error. You talked about -- when you were talking about David Youmans's testimony, you had mentioned that a 1969 plat does not have dotted lines, and I think you're talking about a different plat at that time, because when I looked at the plat, I couldn't find dotted -- I saw dotted lines.

THE COURT: What page is this on? I'll take a look.

MR. TEDDER: I'm going to take a look at it here. I'm looking at your order.

THE COURT: And by the way, for the record, this is really unusual for me. Almost always, I try to vet what I write with someone, a law clerk or a friend who is unrelated and not connected in any way or --

What's odd is down here, I'm the only Stevenson League lawyer in the whole state. I've got an administrative assistant, and it's me. Way up in Yankee land, they got 200 lawyers, and I am part of a real estate section, and normally, when I write something, I send it up, and they will read it and mark it all up.

I decided that was inappropriate, because they're not admitted to South Carolina, I didn't know what the scope of a special referee really is, and so I decided to do this completely, solely, and only by myself, and so if there were typos --

MR. KUHN: So you want to get combat pay, right?

THE COURT: Yeah. I just -- I just thought I'd tell you this is an unusual written document for me, because nobody has looked at it but me, and you can read your same mistake over and over and over and not see it, okay. So I apologize if there are some unusual things that you would not normally see. That's the reason, for whatever it's worth.

MR. TEDDER: Having found my reference point now, it was in your Finding of Fact Conclusion No. 2, where you go on, after talking about Plat Book 18 at 45, also found on this 1969 plat is a dotted set of lines that connects Lot 1 and Lot 2 to Pleasant Point Drive. See Exhibit marked D-52. I don't think 18 at 45 shows dotted lines, I think it's another plat, but I didn't have the D-52 exhibit to see if -- what you were talking about.

THE COURT: Send me what you think, and I will absolutely, positively take a close look at it, okay. We can go from D to a D-plus, okay, on the writing.

MR. TEDDER: Well, it's just that as I have found in my life, if I write something, I sit it down for a few days and look at it. It's okay. I know what I was saying, but I didn't say it.

Thank you. That's all I have, Your Honor, unless you have some other questions for me.

THE COURT: I don't. Counsel?

MR. KUHN: If it please the Court, Your Honor, if I can -- I think these are in evidence. If not, something very similar is. If I can show you two photographs so you can visualize. You were out at the property. This may help refresh your memory on what --

THE COURT: Sure. Can we -- do you want to mark them first?

MR. KUHN: Okay.

(DFT. EXH. 2, Color Photograph, was marked for identification.)

(DFT. EXH. 3, Color Photograph, was marked for identification.)

MR. KUHN: It's obviously not evidence, but if these exact ones aren't in, something very similar is. And obviously, by having these particular pictures marked, they're not becoming evidence or part of the record.

THE COURT: Do you have concerns about me looking at something that is extremely similar?

MR. TEDDER: Your Honor, having known that you actually went out there --

THE COURT: I have been out there.

MR. TEDDER: That's just -- if I could just look to see if I'm looking at the same thing you're looking at.

MR. KUHN: No, I gave you different ones, David.

THE COURT: Yeah, he's real sly.

MR. KUHN: That's a defense lawyer trick. Come on.

THE COURT: He handed up documents from Tennessee, but other than the fact that they're a different state, they're very similar.

MR. TEDDER: That's D-2 and D-3?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. TEDDER: Which one has the water on it?

THE COURT: D-3.

What's scary is I'm beginning, just beginning, to actually understand this case. I can follow your arguments. I can follow his arguments. I have no idea whether I -- but yeah, I'm beginning to get this case. It's scary. All right.

MR. KUHN: Your Honor, these two photographs just depict looking at my clients' property. The Ewings' property, Lot 1, would be to the left. My clients' house you can see in the background towards the right. In the foreground is Pleasant Point Drive, where it makes a turn and becomes Sussex Court.

The photograph that is not flooded with water, that's how -- that's basically what it looks like now.

THE COURT: Got it.

MR. KUHN: And the one with water, I put that in just to emphasize the point that this needs maintenance from time to time. And you can see that it was very low. Now it's been built up with I think the testimony was crush and run, and we actually put into evidence several invoices for several thousands of dollars where my client has paid money to maintain and improve this driveway.

As I understand what Your Honor wants us to do is we have some thoughts on the wording of some sort of injunction, to send that to you, and what I would suggest is the status quo be maintained, at least if there is an appeal, while the appeal's going on.

But there are some questions that we do have that we'd like answered, just to -- that I think if you could clarify it in whatever order comes out of today's hearing would be good and avoid maybe tensions down the road.

THE COURT: Got it.

MR. KUHN: Of course, ideally our position is -- not ideally, but the correct position --

THE COURT: I understand. The one thing I did get out of your excellent, okay, argument is I know your fundamental position, okay. This is truly a secondary thought, assuming -- yeah.

MR. KUHN: This is in response to Mr. Tedder's thing. Clarify who owns the road. I believe the testimony -- the evidence is the Guests own it fee simple, but I don't think that's expressly stated in the order.

And who has the right to use -- if an easement does exist, who has the right to use it. Is it everybody in the plantation, in the subdivision, everybody who received a deed based upon the plat recorded in Book 18, Page 45, or is it just the people who own Lot 1?

How wide is the area that they're entitled to use? Is it the entire 40 feet, which, in any stretch of the evidence, has never been used, or do they need to stay on the driveway, so to speak, what I've shown as the improved part of one of those photographs?

THE COURT: Let me stop you. The homeowners association is in this case, but isn't in this case, if you follow what I'm saying. The order doesn't say a word about them. That much I know.

And the question that -- you raised a legitimate question, no ifs, ands, or buts, maybe I'm questioning whether I have the authority, without inviting the homeowners association back into the case. I don't necessarily want to come back down.

Although Beaufort is a very pleasant place, and it's very nice to drive up and down the road, I'm concerned that if I go too far about what rights they may have, I may decide, for example, not to address that question. I understand why you want it addressed, but I think I got to hear from counsel.

MR. KUHN: Well, you have a few options. You could say this is exclusive to the Ewings and nobody else or say only that the Ewings have the right to use it, and I'm not ruling on anybody else's right to use it.

THE COURT: There you go.

MR. KUHN: Or you could say nobody has the right to use it.

THE COURT: There you go.

MR. KUHN: Although I believe that by being a party to this action, they are bound by your order, and so you can rightfully say the association has lost its right to this long ago.

And I think that may be their position. They have repeatedly said in court they don't have a dog in the fight.

THE COURT: Normally, if you have an issue with the property, you show up in court, okay.

MR. KUHN: Don't think you'll be ruffling any feathers, to use a legal term, to say they don't have the right to use it. I just don't want some crazy person down the road to read your order and say: Oh, gosh, the Ewingses can use it, it's a road. I'm going to start using it and going to their carport, go to my clients' carport.

THE COURT: I understand. Except for Santa Claus, okay, on one day a year. I understand exactly what you're saying, okay.

MR. KUHN: And as far as the Ewings go, are they confined to using the driveway, that approximately 12 to 14 feet that's being used, or can they just wander all over the full 40 feet and turn it into a two-lane highway?

THE COURT: I understand exactly.

MR. KUHN: We would like the scope of the use. And can they use it just to access their property, go back and forth, and not for any other purposes?

THE COURT: I hear you.

MR. KUHN: These are questions we just would like addressed, clarified. And can we keep them off the property that's not within that 40 feet as shown on that original plat?

And who pays for the maintenance of this? If this was just my clients' driveway, obviously, they would pay for the maintenance of it, as they have in the past, but if the Ewings are going to use it, should they be responsible for the maintenance of it and reimburse my client for the maintenance that has been incurred?

THE COURT: I'm going to hear counsel from the other side on one or two of these issues when you get done, even though we're --

MR. KUHN: Your Honor, these are issues we would like clarified to avoid having to come back down the road.

THE COURT: As pleasant as you all are, right, I don't want to make a permanent trip.

MR. KUHN: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. TEDDER: One second. I want to see if I can find something I think was already in the record.

THE COURT: I don't know who our wonderful observer is just sitting in the back there, but this is an unusual --

MR. EWING: Mr. Ewing.

THE COURT: Oh, you're Mr. Ewing. Oh, I apologize. I didn't really know.

MR. EWING: That's fine.

THE COURT: Okay. I got it. I understand exactly, sir, why you're sitting where you're sitting.

MR. TEDDER: What I was looking for, Your Honor, was I know that when we initially convened, Mr. Grimsley was here, made an appearance.

THE COURT: Yes, he did.

MR. TEDDER: And you offered him the opportunity to stay or go, and he chose to go after stating the position of the association, and he stayed for the testimony of the association's manager, so we have some indication in there.

But I would agree that whatever we propose to do and any of our proposed clarifications to your order continue to be forwarded on to Mr. Grimsley for his opportunity to observe --

THE COURT: I understand that.

MR. TEDDER: -- and to enter an objection at any point, even if he wasn't here.

THE COURT: Right. I'm in agreement with that. That's only fundamental theories, especially because he -- I don't know that he thought this issue was ever going to come up, because, frankly, I didn't know this issue was going to come up.

MR. TEDDER: Again, to the first thing that Mr. Kuhn was talking about about ownership, we have not contested the validity of the deeds of the property that comprises that area that's been variously described as laying between the old Lot 29 or 28 and Lot 1. Our beef has been over what that fee was subject to.

Insofar as the right to use it, is it everyone or everyone else, I think the law, if you find that the easement was completed, 18 at 45, at that time, that everyone in the subdivision has a right to rely on that, because you have a separate public easement, and you have a separate private easement. I think it's clear we have a private easement.

I think it's the homeowners association responsibility to speak for its other members as to whatever rights there may remain in them for the 40-foot extension of Pleasant Point Drive.

Inasmuch as maintenance goes, and the photographs that were shown saying the defendants have spent money, we didn't ask them to spend that money. It may be moved, so we don't want to be responsible for any maintenance that was done during the pendency of this lawsuit. They chose to do it on their own. We objected. Unless at some point in time your order, if you continue that it is overturned, that's got to come out, and it's got to go someplace else.

The maintenance of the road, if it was a homeowners association responsibility, would be on the homeowners association and those who pay dues for it. Otherwise, it would fall to the common law, which the common law says that those that use the road are required to maintain it, and then we end up either, by agreement or by court order, determining what percentage of share of maintenance and by what methodology and to what extent it has to be maintained.

Traditionally, it has been an oyster shell-type/gravel road, not paved. I think that would be an issue for a revisit after we know what the final order would be.

And as to the entire width or something else, a question that was raised from Mr. Kuhn, I think my initial argument was it is the entire 40-foot width up to the carport and to the end of the carport, which is a few feet beyond the drawn easement on 18 at 45, and that based on the prescriptive easement, it would have been where it meandered off, as shown on the plats that were submitted to the Court that no one has really stated had any incorrect depiction of the dirt road at the beginning of this lawsuit. Of course, that's subject to your determination as to what it is.

The use of the 40-foot area I think is subject to whatever is usual, customary, and normal for a roadway, which includes proper drainage, whether that is just slope or anything else, and some landscaping, whether that just be merely grass or whatever.

But I think that -- I don't want to get down to the minutia. There's going to be an argument over who's going to mow the grass in the 40-foot area, but I know that neighbors have argued over that. I think each of them have an equal right to maintain it, subject to contribution.

THE COURT: I'm thinking. I hear what you're saying. I also heard what he said. Let me -- let me think about that, okay.

MR. TEDDER: And we were talking about -- we may submit an alternative solution to where the driveway's going to be, pending any appeal, which may just be opening up both or closing down one.

THE COURT: Well, on your own, all right, before -- this is totally dicta to the parties. Dicta means unnecessary to the opinion, just the judge's own personal thoughts, okay, an aside, all right. Kind of like at a cocktail party, where somebody says that you didn't ask, and it's not relevant, but for whatever it's worth.

If there's a way -- if there's a way to resolve this case after I get done with 59(e), I would encourage you to at least sit down. You all look like very, very nice, pleasant, civil people, and I know you have excellent counsel, and if there is a way to avoid more litigation and more expenses and more uncertainty -- and if you think I'm odd, wait 'til you see --

Go off the record. We are off the record now.

(Off-the-record conference.)

THE COURT: A, I'm going to ask the court reporter to not rush it -- Marie, this is not that -- but in due course, in line with everything else, type it all up, all right, and send me a copy. I'm sure the lawyers will want a copy of what was said here today. I will email people when I get it, and within ten days, I will have finished whatever I'm going to do on these two motions.

You certainly have given me a lot to think about, you really have, and I respect both -- all of you, I really do. And as usual, it's been a pleasure to listen to a really fascinating, fascinating case.

MR. TEDDER: Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. KUHN: Thank you, Your Honor.

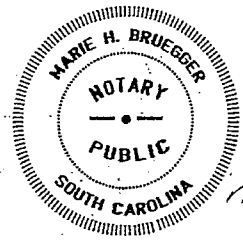

(The proceedings were concluded at 11:28 AM.)
