V.)

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

State of South Carolina,
Respondent,)

Comes now, Arnold Lea ward #109169, Pro-Se, [Hereinafter], Petitioner, moves in pursaunt to South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, rule 6-(b)-(1)-(A) to invoke courts on a "MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME" on Civil case matter noted above...

Applicant request from this Honorable court a Extension time of Thirty (30) day's to allow for investigation/search of lost documents so mailed through the United States postal service and/or ample time to prepare a duplicate copies of such materials requested, "More Specifically" Copies of [Initial] Brief of Appellant and/or Designation of Matter...

Applicant would show just cause of reasoning as follows:

- (1). Applicant, acting Pro-Se Attorney is a inmate confined with-in the Allendale correction Institution and is only afforded minimum access to a Law library for studies to properly prepare litigations and/or supportive Briefs...
- (2). Applicant request additional time to investigate/search and/or track lost documents processed through postal service and/or ample time to prepare duplicant copies for apposing parties with proof of service provided...

CONCLUSION

AS SET FORTH, For all the reasons stated Herein above, Applicant respectfully request this Honorable court grant the "MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME" on the Civil action matter presented above...

Respectfully Submitted,

Arnold Lea Ward #109169,
