SC Court of Appeals

Dear Jenny,

I'm writing to your Court my memorandum in regards to my appeal. There were Constitutional laws violated in this Civil trial. One was not allowing the victims to be present as it is written under S.C Law 44-48-100. They were never notified of the trial to speak or witness the statements that was presented. Also I'm asking of this court to find the judge in violation when he overruled an objection made by my attorney and allowed the Office of the Attorney General's Jim Bogle to continually point out to the jury and Dh. Gomez who testified on the stand of her opinion of my daughter being diagnose with PTSD cause by abuse of her father to paint a picture in the minds of the jurors to declare a conviction to be Civilly committed under the Sexually Violent Predator Law.

The jury simply deliberated on emotions due to the fact of Dh. Gomez and Bogle how they delivered the testimony in one main part of the trial over and over to win the jury. The effect on the victims was irrelevant and highly prejudicial as it is written under S.C Law C.f. State v. Byram, 326 S.C 107, 118, 485 S.E. 2d 360, 366 (1997). I pray that this Court grant me a Reverse to a new trial because of unfair prejudice that took place in this Civil matter.

Im With Kind Regards,

Tim,
