APPELLANT'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

SC Court of Appeals

Concerning the above-referenced Appeal, Appellant files this Motion for Extension of Time. Appellant requests an extension of fourteen (14) days from the day that I receive the transcript of the hearing for Partial Summary Judgement in the above referenced case that occurred on April 20, 2016; from Veritex Legal Solutions to serve the Record on Appeal to all parties that filed a brief in this case (pursuant to Rule 210(a)). This hearing was tried before the Honorable S. Jackson Kimball, Master in

✓

Equity, in York County South Carolina.

The attorney for the Bank of New York (Respondent) at this hearing was Demetri (Jim) Koutrakos of the law firm Callison Tighe (Columbia, SC) and Veritex Legal Solutions was the court reporter for this particular hearing. I have included a copy of the Letter Ordering the additional Transcript that I mailed to Veritex Legal Solutions, the Certificate of Service for the Letter Ordering the additional Transcript, as well as the Certificate of Service that I served on the respondent's attorney concerning this motion.

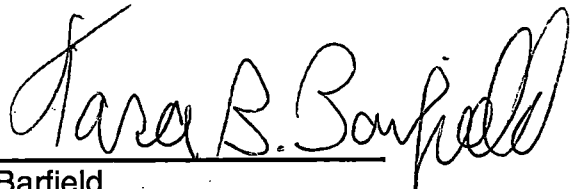

Good cause exists for this Motion because it just recently became apparent that there is information in the transcript of this additional hearing on the Motion for Partial Summary Judgement that is relevant to this appeal. This motion is not being made for purposes of delay.

Appellant requests that all current deadlines be held in abeyance until the Court issues an order regarding this motion.

Appellant has not conferred with Counsel for Respondent concerning this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

August 21, 2017
