Appellate Case #2017-000294
Pastene v. McMillan

Dear Ms. Abbott Kitchings:

I am writing to you in reference to a misplaced Transcript from a hearing that took place before Judge Maddox, on the 29th day of July, 2013. The Court Recorder is now retired, and her name is Renee H. Tollison.

I am in the process of securing a transcribed copy of it.

As I understand it, the proper channel to secure it is South Carolina Court Administration in Columbia, and toward that purpose I requested a transcription by mail as instructed.

Frankly, I do not know how to proceed since I have already submitted my Initial Brief & the Designation of Matter to be included in the ROA, at SC CT App.

I will need: to include this transcript as part of the Designation of Matter; the 30 days from the day I receive it to review it; inform your Honorable Court as soon as I receive it; and copy the attorney for the Respondent. Also, it may have to amend my Initial Brief. Maybe you can guide me.

Looking forward to your respond, I remain

Sincerely,

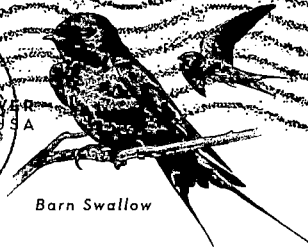

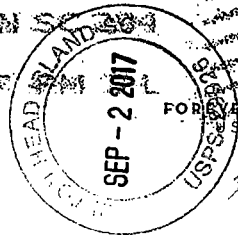

cc. Attorney David A. Wilson, Esq. ✓
For the Respondent
