Defendant.)

COMES NOW, the Defendant/Appellant, Montre Brown respectfully submitting this pro se Notice of Intent to Appeal for this Honorable Court's review and consideration.

Pursuant to the mandate of Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv), the Defendant/Appellant asserts that the issues to be raised on appeal may include:

The main issue that I have is that the lawyer told me that she was going to state the facts of my case in front of the presiding judge + she said nothing of that nature. She didn't jump around the facts or shy away from certain areas of the fact she just simply didn't say anything pertaining to the case with that being said. I feel like the judges decision was swayed by her not saying these things. I asked her several times before going up for the plea offer if she was going to present these facts + was told yes every time. The only thing she elaborated on was my lifes history. T. scrimuel... resulted in the harsh decision of the presiding Judge. Respectful

Respectfully submitted,"
