2 MR. CLEVELAND: Regarding Ms. Kilgore, Your Honor,
3 this occurred on April 10, 2015. The defendant was stopped
4 by loss-prevention personnel at Walmart in Easley as she
5 attempted to leave the store with $669 worth of sporting
6 goods and other items without paying. She physically
7 struggled with the two loss-prevention officers and was 8 still fighting with them as police arrived. She actually
9 tried to bite them. She refused to give up, and officers
10 had to tase her to get her under arrest. A vehicle
11 actually pulled up and was trying to pull her into the 12 vehicle away from the officers when the police arrived, and 13 that vehicle sped off. Never caught that guy.

14 Two employees suffered some minor injuries in the 15 struggle.

16 Prior to this, she has 29 prior property offenses not 17 including fraud checks dating back to 1983.

18 The recommendation in this case is 42 months straight
19 time, credit for 253 days.

20 THE COURT: Tell me her record.

21 MR. CLEVELAND: 57 pages is her NCIC. I've got it
22 written down, but I can hit the highlights.

23 THE COURT: Hit the highlights for me.

24 MR. CLEVELAND: Her first shoplifting was in '83, some 25 public disorderly conducts went through the '90s until '93

1 when she had, it looks like, seven, eight, nine counts of
2 forgery and a breach of trust -- a felony breach of trust;
3 '94 probation revocation; a DUI in '95; a string of fraud
4 checks through the late '90s, about 36 of them. Then in
5 2005, receiving stolen goods. Going back a little bit,
6 2003 she got a DUI and some receiving stolen goods; 2004,
7 resisting arrest and 10 counts of third property offense
8 which she did three years in prison followed by five years
9 probation; three forgeries in '06; some driving offenses
10 through the late 2000's until she got -- 2011 when she had 11 a bunch of fraud checks, it looks like 17, 18 of them, and 12 obtaining signatures by false pretenses. She got a 13 probation revocation then, too. Did two years on that.
14 And then in 2013, a fraud check and a shoplifting.

15 THE COURT: Is all that true and correct?

16 DEFENDANT KILGORE: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: What do you want to tell me? Anybody?
18 Anything you want to say?

19 MR. GRAVLEE: Your Honor, she's expressed to me that 20 she's been in on some priors now in SCDC for about a year.
21 She feels that she'd be convicted at trial and is guilty of 22 the crimes charged and remaining in SCDC to serve her time.

23 THE COURT: What do you want to tell me?

24 DEFENDANT KILGORE: I don't know.

25 THE COURT: You don't know.

1 57 pages NCIC criminal history.

2 DEFENDANT KILGORE: Well, it was basically a drug
3 history, but I'm not on drugs anymore. I was involved with 4 a younger man. He was on drugs. I tried to support his
5 habit, my habit, and it ended me back in prison again.
6 Since then, I ended that relationship and I'm more focused
7 on my 90-year-old mamma and getting home to her. And I am
8 clean and sober today and will remain that way.

9 THE COURT: Good. Five years on the shoplifting, one
10 year on the resisting, time served on the other two. Good
11 luck to you.

12 MR. CLEVELAND: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Stanton.

14 MR. CLEVELAND: Mr. Stanton. This occurred on 15 April 8, 2015. Defendant broke into victim Joseph Miller's 16 Kia Rio, stole a handicap placard, a Lone Ranger tin box, a
17 Ziploc bag of miscellaneous items and other items less than 18 $2,000. Search incident to arrest revealed the defendant
19 was in possession of 28 1/2 long white pills identified as 20 Xanax for which he did not have a prescription.

21 Recommendation is a YOA suspended on probation.

22 THE COURT: True?

23 DEFENDANT STANTON: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: What do you want to tell me?

25 DEFENDANT STANTON: I've just been clean now, been

1 going to rehab classes and everything trying to do my best.

2 THE COURT: How long have you been on drugs?

3 DEFENDANT STANTON: I've been taking -- I took pills.
4 I don't take -- I don't do anything now. Before I was just 5 like two or three years, three or four maybe.

6 THE COURT: Doing what?

7 DEFENDANT STANTON: Pills. Pills and weed.

8 THE COURT: Why do you like that stuff?

9 DEFENDANT STANTON: I don't know.

10 THE COURT: Huh?

11 DEFENDANT STANTON: Honestly, I don't know.

12 THE COURT: Why would you do it?

13 DEFENDANT STANTON: The night that I did that, I was 14 -- I was -- took a good bit of Xanax, and I was just 15 blacked out.

16 THE COURT: I thought Xanax knocked you out.

17 DEFENDANT STANTON: It just made me sleep, I guess you
18 can say.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Cantrell?

20 MR. CANTRELL: Your Honor, he is on the road to 21 recovery, and we would ask you to accept the 22 recommendation.

23 THE COURT: Did you graduate high school?

24 DEFENDANT STANTON: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Well, I hope you understand that if you

1 keep this up, you're going to go to prison. Do you
2 understand?

3 DEFENDANT STANTON: Has.

4 THE COURT: All right. YOA not to exceed five,
5 balance are suspended, probation 30 months, substance abuse
6 counseling, random drug and alcohol testing, $500 public
7 defender fund. I was going to give him time served on the 8 other two so we don't have to mess with it. Oh, and pay
9 restitution as a condition of probation. All right.

10 MR. CANTRELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Good luck.

12 MR. CLEVELAND: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 Ms. Gray, May 13, 2015, at 119 Pathfinder Circle in 14 Easley, the defendant and her mother were arguing about her
15 taking her children with her. Mother of the defendant
16 called law enforcement because she thought the defendant
17 was under the influence of drugs. Police arrived, and she 18 was screaming profanities at her mother and appeared to be 19 jittery, red eyed and had pinpoint pupils. Defendant got 20 in her car and yelled she's not going to jail, attempted to 21 start the car. Law enforcement pulled the defendant out
22 and arrested her for public disorderly conduct. The 23 defendant resisted and attempted to run from law
24 enforcement, pushing the officer.

25 When they arrested her, they found crack in a crack

1 pipe in the defendant's purse, and an inventory search of
2 -- during an inventory search of the car. The children
3 were ages 3 and 2 at the time during this ordeal.

4 Recommendation is nine months HIP followed by 5 probation.

6 THE COURT: Whose got your kids?

7 DEFENDANT GRAY: As of yesterday, my mom's got full
8 custody, and I am back in the home and everything, so . . .

9 MR. CANTRELL: Your Honor, she's got a good job. She 10 is on -- she is on the road to recovery also and has been 11 actively involved in that process for months now and is 12 clean. We would ask the Court to accept the 13 recommendation.

14 THE COURT: DSS involved?

15 DEFENDANT GRAY: Not no more. It was closed
16 yesterday.

17 THE COURT: Do you got a bad record?

18 MR. CLEVELAND: She's got -- she showed some arrests,
19 but no convictions on her NCIC.

20 DEFENDANT GRAY: Just got in the path with the wrong
21 people.

22 THE COURT: Well, whose fault was that?

23 DEFENDANT GRAY: Mine.

24 THE COURT: Don't you ever forget it.

25 DEFENDANT GRAY: I'm sorry?

1 THE COURT: Don't ever forget it.

2 DEFENDANT GRAY: Oh, I won't. This stuff is for the 3 birdies.

4 THE COURT: Did she graduate high school?

5 DEFENDANT GRAY: I dropped out in the 11th grade.

6 THE COURT: All right. Five years provided upon nine
7 months HIP, probation for 30 months, get your GED,
8 substance abuse counseling, random drug and alcohol
9 testing, $500 public defender fund, three suspended during 10 probation on the assault and battery and the drugs, one
11 suspended on resisting arrest.

12 Good luck.

13 MR. CANTRELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 MR. CLEVELAND: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 Lastly, Mr. Hendricks. This occurred back on 16 February 19, 2014.

17 THE COURT: I gave you -- sentenced Ms. Gray to 18 Mr. Hendricks' offense. Sorry. Go ahead.

19 MR. CLEVELAND: About 11:30 that night on the 19th,
20 the defendant went to the Pickens County home of the 21 victim. The victim was awakened by the defendant beating
22 on the door, yelling loudly. Once he got inside, they 23 began to fight.

24 The victim -- defendant fled the scene, but he was 25 identified by a witness as being the man on the scene

1 there. She could tell he was charged high.

2 Very big factual discrepancy in this case. The victim
3 is actually in SCDC now on voluntary manslaughter. He shot
4 and killed a guy about a week or two later.

5 Recommendation in the case is time served to assault
6 and battery second. He's done 183 days in the jail, and 7 he's been on an ankle monitor for bond for 526 days and 8 stayed out of trouble, so give him credit for all that.

9 THE COURT: How'd you do that?

10 DEFENDANT HENDRICKS: I just stayed away from 11 everyone, Your Honor, and just been living right, sir.

12 THE COURT: Huh?

13 DEFENDANT HENDRICKS: Been living right, sir.

14 THE COURT: What is that? What is living right? I'm 15 going to send you down to the LEC and tell them what that 16 is. What is it?

17 DEFENDANT HENDRICKS: Well, in my eyes, just staying
18 as close to God as I can.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 DEFENDANT HENDRICKS: Doing the right things.

21 THE COURT: You wouldn't be reading a book a week and 22 the Bible every night, would you?

23 DEFENDANT HENDRICKS: No, sir. I don't -- I don't 24 stay on the Bible like I should, but keep my prayers, and 25 my personal life is -- I try to do -- I just try to do

1 right.

2 THE COURT: Yeah? Who was this? One of your old
3 buddies or something?

4 DEFENDANT HENDRICKS: It was actually at a residence
5 of some people that I knew, but I didn't actually even know
6 the -- the alleged victim.

7 THE COURT: Anything, Ms. Manigault?

8 MS. MANIGAULT: Thank you, Your Honor, for time
9 served.

10 THE COURT: I haven't done anything yet.

11 MS. MANIGAULT: Thank you for time served.

12 THE COURT: You stay on the straight and narrow. Good
13 luck to you.

14 MR. CLEVELAND: Thank you, Your Honor.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER SENTENCE

TO: THE HONORABLE EDWARD W. MILLER

COMES NOW Defendant, Janice Lynn Kilgore, by and through her counsel, and pursuant to Rule 29 of the South Carolina Rules of Criminal Procedure, respectfully moves this Honorable Court to reconsider the sentence in the above-captioned case. The sentence was imposed by Order of the Court on January 28, 2016. Defendant received a five-year sentence on one Shoplifting Enhancement charge and a one-year sentence on one count of Resisting Arrest to be run concurrently at the South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC). Defendant also received a sentence of time-served on two counts of Assault and Battery in the Third Degree. Prior to the plea, Defendant was already incarcerated in SCDC, serving a two-year sentence on an unrelated offense.

The following is submitted in support of Defendant's Motion:

1. Counsel for Defendant received a recommendation from the State of 42 months, to be back-dated from Defendant's initial date of incarceration of February 25,

2015 on an unrelated offense.

2. Counsel for Defendant advised Defendant before the entry of the plea that, should the Court be inclined to not follow the recommendation from the solicitor, Counsel would make a motion to attempt to withdraw the plea.

3. Before having the opportunity to make such a motion, the Court imposed a sentence of greater duration than initially recommended by the assistant solicitor.

4. Counsel could not make a motion to attempt to withdraw the plea after the imposition of the sentence, and Defendant was therefore denied an opportunity to make such a request from the Court.

5. Although Counsel acknowledges the Court is not bound to follow the recommendation and “[t]he withdrawal of a guilty plea is generally within the sound discretion of the trial judge,” State v. Riddle, 278 S.C. 148, 150, 292 S.E.2d 795, 796 (1982), Counsel for Defendant nevertheless urges this Honorable Court to reconsider the sentencing based on Counsel’s inability to make any such motion prior to the upward departure from the sentencing recommendation.

WHEREFORE, for the above-stated reasons, as well as any other reasons which may appear to this Court, Defendant prays that this Court grant her motion and order:

1. Defendant’s sentence be reconsidered and adjusted to reflect the 42 month recommended sentence discussed with Defendant prior to the plea.

2. In the alternative, Defendant's sentence be vacated to allow Defendant the opportunity to reevaluate her decision to plead or proceed to trial on the charges listed above.
