v.

Billy Lee Lisenby JR;
Appellate

Motion For Stay and To Re-Instate Bond

The above Appellate has appealed the illegal revoke of his bond. He alleges that he had a curfew from 10:00 PM until 7:00 AM. His attorney, Patricia Rivers, told him he could only go to work or school during these hours, other than that, he must be home. His attorney wasn't present for the hearing to defend him. An attorney by the name of Michael Stephens was present, who knew nothing about the case. He didn't have the Appellate's files, and wasn't even paying attention at the hearing. The Appellant wasn't given any rules to abide by and he was never advised on who he must notify if he had a job. His bond was revoked because he went to work.

Appellant now ask that his Motion For Stay be granted, and his Bond be Re-instated until this Honorable Court makes a decision.
