Ms. Kitchings,

Thank you for the prompt decision and notification. As interesting as this consolidated argument would have been, I believe it is clearly the best choice under the circumstances. The State has no objection to these three appeals being submitted on the records and briefs. You stay safe as well.

Dear Counsel:

Good afternoon. After considering the possible impact of Hurricane Irma upon our state, the panel would like to cancel oral argument scheduled in the following three appeals: 2013-000091 State v. Michael A. Williams, 2013-000149 State v. Raymond L. Young, and 2013-000207 State v. Esaiveus F. Booker. The panel intends to submit these appeals during the month of September 2017 on the records and briefs, unless the parties object.

Please respond to this email to acknowledge receipt.

Many thanks to all of you. Please stay safe.
