Re: The State v. Robert M. Watkins
Appellate Case No. 2017-001863

Dear Mr. Watkins:

Upon reviewing your document dated August 22, 2017 which is being construed as a new notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed:

- The personal data identifiers and other sensitive information have not been redacted as required by the Supreme Court's Order dated April 15, 2014, which can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2014-04-15-02.htm.
- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, you do not have the caption listed for your notice of appeal.
- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.

- The notice of appeal is not in the proper format. See Rule 203(e)(1), SCACR, and Form 3 in Appendicies C for an example of what a notice of appeal should look like.
- The document has not been timely filed. A motion to allow the late filing will have to be made.
- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by a copy of the order or judgement being appealed.
- A proof of service has not been provided showing the notice of appeal was served upon The State.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
