Appellate Case #2017-000294
Pastene v. McMillan

Dear Ms. Abbott Kitchings:

I am in receipt of your letter dated & mailed September 7th, 2017, which was placed in my post office box on the 13th, i.e., on yesterday's date.

Please note that, yours is a dated letter, which requires that I address & comply with all of the items by Sunday, the 17th day of September, which leaves me only three (3) days to comply, or rather (4) by Monday, the 18th. Irrespective, I will attempt to comply to the best of my ability.

This morning I consulted with the US Postal Service on Hilton Head Island, and was informed that, indeed, my mail, which included your letter, was placed into my post office box on yesterday's date (the 13th) insomuch that they did not receive their mail from Florida for distribution due to hurricane Irma's evacuation.

Would it be possible to update your letter, and extend the ten (10) day limitation, so, that will expire on or about Monday, the 25th of September, 2017? If "yes", then, due to time constraints, would it be possible to either call or text, or email your answer to any of the addresses in the letterhead supra? That will help me a lot.

Meanwhile, and thanking you in advance, I remain,

Sincerely,

cc. Court Administration, Suite 201
Attorney David A. Wilson, Esq. for Respondent

to me

I received from SC Court Administration a copy of your request for the transcript from the above hearing. Since this transcript has never been produced for either party, you would be required to pay for the original. I am currently at the coast of SC and packing up to head back to the Upstate tomorrow ahead of the hurricane. I will send you another email when I am there and settled with a proper letter including the particulars.

I expect the transcript to be approximately 35 pages long. The current page rate is $3.25 per page plus $6.95 postage. I require payment in advance. In order to expedite your receipt of the transcript, you may send a money order (no checks, please) in the amount of $120.70 payable to me at the below address. Since I am retired and receive very few transcript requests, please let me know by email when you have mailed the payment so that I don't waste needless trips checking an empty PO box.

Feel free to contact me at this email address.

Regards,
Renee Tollison
