Billy Lee Lisenby JR; Appellant/Defendant

Appellate/Defendant's Response To Attorney Patricia C. Rivers
Return To Motion To Appoint Counsel

The above Appellant/Defendant now makes a response to attorney Patricia Rivers's, Return To Motion To Appoint Counsel. Attorney Rivers has made statements with hopes that they will not be checked for accuracy. The case that the Appellant/Defendant is appealing, he was represented by A.C. Michael Stephens. This hearing was held on 7-25-17. Appellant/Defendant had 10 days to appeal this. He called and wrote A.C. Michael Stephens, and he never responded but asking him to appeal the fact that his bond had been revoked.

Appellant had mother and girlfriend call Patricia Rivers back to back asking her to appeal his bond being revoked. Appellant's mother finally got a call from her on 6-3-17 at 1:40 PM. Mrs. Rivers spoke with his girlfriend on Aug. 2, 17. Both defendant's girlfriend and mother asked her to appeal the bond revocation. As of today, Mrs. Rivers never contacted him. The last time he saw or talked to MRS Rivers was 7-11-17. He appealed on his own because A C Michael Stephens and MRS Rivers wouldnt Respond.

Michael Stephens represented him at the hearing and it was his duty to appeal. These duties do not fall on Tonya Copeland-Little, because she was not his attorney at the time, and knows nothing about the hearing.
