Case No. 2017-001489

SC Court of Appeals

I the Appellant before the court, Vincent Rice, must inform the court that the Institution mailroom staff at Lieberman has caused me undue hardship upon my appeal because it has made it practice to not timely forward my legal mail to its own within its own Departmental branches.

I mailed a copy of an "Amended Coversheet" to the Respondents on Sept 14, 2017. The letter was returned to me because my indigent envelop was deemed "outdate" by incompetent staff. This is error because the Dept issues two envelopes, and then "limits" and "restricts" when it can use them. Consequently this limits my case as undue hardship. General Counsel is "inter-agency" department, therefore my letter, could have been deliver by State Dept staff.

This has happened on many occasions here within the Dept, not only here. Upon information, and facts, I've concluded this is a deliberate strategy by the Respondents to thwart my case and win "outside of the courtroom". I am currently on an administrative lockdown, where the movement is highly restricted, this also has created a burdensome circumstance to ~~have~~ assert my right to meaningful access to the court. As of late, I have to rely on "officers" to deliver and mail my legal content, and they are not conducted this duty in a timely manner. There is a complete disregard for me and others to, assert our right to correspond litigation without "limits". I ask ~~about~~ the court to give this prejudice conduct and circumstances a full consideration.

Respectfully
