Appellate Case #2017-000294
Pastene v. McMillan

Dear Ms. Abbott Kitchings:

I am in receipt of your letters dated August 23, 2017, in ref. to noted deficiencies to my initial brief and designation of matter that I have hastened to correct and am sending enclosed to this one back to you.

Please note that I discovered a few typos in my Initial Brief that I corrected and highlighted at the end of the last page. Nothing else was added or amended.

I am sending two (2) white Designation of Matter cover stock, signed: one showing the attorney for the Respondents, and another without the attorney for the other side, because I was unsure whether his name was to be included or not. Please, discard the one which does not apply.

Always eager to comply and amend any unintended errors that I may have incurred, and thanking you in advance for sending back the clocked copies back to me, I remain,

Sincerely,

Alexander Pastene, Esq.
Appellant.

Appellate Case #2017-000294
Pastene v. McMillan

Dear Ms. Abbott Kitchings:

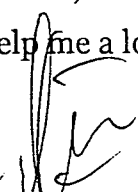

I am in receipt of your letter dated & mailed September 7th, 2017, which was placed in my post office box on the 13th, i.e., on yesterday's date.

Please note that, yours is a dated letter, which requires that I address & comply with all of the items by Sunday, the 17th day of September, which leaves me only three (3) days to comply, or rather (4) by Monday, the 18th. Irrespective, I will attempt to comply to the best of my ability.

This morning I consulted with the US Postal Service on Hilton Head Island, and was informed that, indeed, my mail, which included your letter, was placed into my post office box on yesterday's date (the 13th) insomuch that they did not receive their mail from Florida for distribution due to hurricane Irma's evacuation.

Would it be possible to update your letter, and extend the ten (10) day limitation, so, that will expire on or about Monday, the 25th of September, 2017? If "yes", then, due to time constraints, would it be possible to either call or text, or email your answer to any of the addresses in the letterhead supra? That will help me a lot.

Meanwhile, and thanking you in advance, I remain,

Sincerely,

cc. Court Administration, Suite 201
