FACTS

Because Lancaster County for years has assumed administrative responsibility for the voter registration and elections for the City of Lancaster, this matter is before the Lancaster County Election Commission (Commission) based upon the timely filed protest of the Petitioner, Jackie Harris. The protest was served on November 10, 2016. The protest challenges the November 8, 2016, election for the District 3 seat on the City of Lancaster Council. The certified results of that election indicated that there were a total of 518 votes cast for that seat. Of those, the Petitioner received 235 total votes, 14 of which were absentee paper ballots. The Respondent, Linda Blackmon-Brace, received 281 votes, 154 of which were absentee paper ballots. Two votes were cast for others.

Based upon legal advice from the South Carolina Elections Commission (SCEC), and in compliance with §5-15-130 of the S.C. Code of Laws, the protest hearing was held on Friday, November 11, 2016, at 2:30pm. The Petitioner and the Respondent were each given three (3) hours verbal notice of the hearing date, time, and location.

Upon conclusion of all testimony, the Commission voted unanimously that the evidence presented during the protest hearing of Jackie Harris was insufficient to, even if truthful in all respects, invalidate the certified results of the City of Lancaster District 3 election.

An appeal was filed by Jackie Harris on December 9, 2016. Respondent Linda Blackmon-Brace filed a Motion to Dismiss for Improper Service on January 13, 2017. A hearing was held on January 23, 2017, and the Court took that matter under advisement. Linda Blackmon-Brace later withdrew this Motion prior to the Court issuing a decision. The merits of the Appeal of the Commission's decision was heard by the Court of Common Pleas on February 2, 2017. The Court affirms the decision of the Lancaster County Election Commission.

LAW

Municipalities are authorized to allow County Election Commissions to conduct their municipal elections. S.C. Code Ann. § 5-15-145(A) (2004). "As a general matter, municipal election disputes are to be adjudicated by municipal election commissions." Bluffton v. Fulgham, et. al, 686 S.E. 2d 683 (2009). However, the Court of Common Pleas hears appeals from County Election Commissions when municipalities have abdicated their local administrative responsibilities for voter registration and elections.

> Construing these statutes together [§5-15-145 and §7-17-30], we therefore hold that the only reasonable interpretation of §5-15-145 is that it establishes a framework whereby county boards act to authority bestowed upon them by municipal bodies. Therefore, the proper appellate court for any petitioner seeking review of a county boards's decision made pursuant to a transfer of authority from a municipality is the circuit court. Id.

Therefore, this appeal from the Lancaster County Election Commission was properly before the Court of Common Pleas.

"The Circuit Court sitting in appellate capacity does not conduct a de novo hearing or take testimony. The circuit court must examine the decision for errors of law, but it must accept the factual findings of the commission unless they are wholly unsupported by the evidence." Taylor vs. Town of Atlantic Beach Election, 609 S.E. 2d 500 (2005).

"The right to contest and election exists under common law and the procedure proscribed by statute must be strictly followed." Taylor vs. Town of Atlantic Beach Election, 609 S.E. 2d 500 (2005).

S.C. Code 5-15-130 states,

> Within forty-eight hours after the closing of the polls, any candidate may contest the result of the election as reported by the managers by filing a written notice of such contest together with a concise statement of the grounds therefor with the Municipal Election Commission. Within forty-eight hours after the filing of such notice, the Municipal Election Commission shall, after due notice to the parties concerned, conduct a hearing on the contest, decide the issues raised, file its report together with all recorded testimony and exhibits with the clerk of court of the county in which the municipality is situated, notify the parties concerned of the decisions made...

"The notice in an election contest should briefly state facts or a combination of facts sufficient to apprise the contestee of the cause for which his election is contested. It is insufficient to allege generally that fraud was committed, or to allege mere conclusions of the pleader. The purpose of notice requirement it to adequately inform the contestee as to the nature of the contest. Butler v. Town of Edgefield, 493 S.E. 2d 838 (1997). "Reason and justice require that grounds relied upon should be stated plainly and clearly that the contestee may prepare to meet them without unnecessary labor or expense. Id. After the hearing, "the statute does not require a written order containing findings of facts or conclusions of law similar to those of [other tribunals]. Taylor vs. Town of Atlantic Beach Election, 609 S.E. 2d 500 (2005).

ANALYSIS

The Circuit Court has proper jurisdiction of this municipal election appeal. Bluffton v. Fulgham, et. al, 686 S.E. 2d 683 (2009). The Circuit Court is sitting in appellate capacity and cannot conduct a de novo hearing. Taylor vs. Town of Atlantic Beach Election, 609 S.E. 2d 500 (2005). "The Circuit Court must examine the decision for errors of law, but it must accept the factual findings of the Commission unless they are wholly unsupported by the evidence." Id.

S.C. Code 5-15-130 states a hearing of a municipal election protest must be heard within 48 hours of the protest being filed. The Commission conducted the hearing within 48 hours. Ms. Harris motioned the Commission to continue the hearing until "Monday or Tuesday" of the following week. The Commission denied the motion. The Commission has the discretion to grant or deny a Motion for Continuance. Therefore, the Commission's denial of a continuance was not an "error of law."

Ms. Harris also alleges the Commission violated her procedural due process. "The fundamental requirements of due process include an opportunity to be heard in a meaningful way and judicial review." S.C. Const. art. 1, § 22; Stono River Envtl. Protection Ass'n v. S.C. Dep't of Health and Envtl. Control, 305 S.C.90, 94, 406 S.E. 2d 340, 342 (1991). Ms. Harris filed the protest pursuant to S.C. Code 5-15-130. This statute states, inter alia, the hearing before the Commission will be held "within" 48 hours. [emphasis added]. The statute provided Ms. Harris notice that the hearing would be held within 48 hours. Ms. Harris was also notified on the date of the hearing approximately three (3) hours before the hearing. This was approximately three (3) days after the November 8th election results were announced and approximately twenty-four (24) hours after the protest was filed. Ms. Harris and her counsel were at the hearing.

The Court finds the statute affords procedural due process to all parties to a contested municipal election, specifically in this particular case. Ms. Harris, by and through her counsel, was allowed to present her case to the Election Commission. The hearing lasted approximately three (3) hours. The Commission took a fifteen (15) minute break to allow Ms. Harris and her counsel an opportunity to gather more evidence and information from the Lancaster County Voter Registration office. (Tr. p.17). After the break, Ms. Harris presented the Commission with a bundle of documents, testified, called witnesses and cross-examined witnesses. Ms. Harris concluded her direct testimony by stating, "All that – all that I have to offer right this minute without being able to –to do the research that I need, is—is there" (Tr. p. 80, Lines 20-23). The burden of proof was on Ms. Harris to present her case and prove the allegations of the protest. The Commission was sitting as a tribunal, not as an investigative body. The Commission concluded after a meaningful hearing, "[u]pon the conclusion of all testimony, the Commission voted unanimously that the evidence presented during the protest hearing of Jackie Harris was insufficient to prove that, even if truthful in all respects, would have changed the certified results of the City of Lancaster District 3 election." (Order, p. 2).

CONCLUSION

This Court is sitting in its appellate posture and cannot conduct a de novo hearing. There is no evidence in the record of an error of law by the Commission. The main thrust of Appellant's argument is that the election protest statute is unfair due to its time constraints. However, this is an argument best decided by the South Carolina Legislature, not the Courts. This Court upholds the decision of the Lancaster County Election Commission and orders Ms. Linda Blackmon-Brace be sworn in on Lancaster City Council as the District #3 representative within 30 days.

CLERK OF COURT
LANCASTER, SC

Because Lancaster County for years has assumed administrative responsibility for the voter registration and elections for the City of Lancaster, this matter is before the Lancaster County Election Commission (Commission) based upon the timely filed protest of the Petitioner, Jackie Harris, the protest being served on November 10, 2016. The protest challenges the November 8, 2016 election for the District 3 seat on the City of Lancaster Council. The certified results of that election indicated that there were a total of 518 votes cast for that seat. Of those, the Petitioner received 235 total votes, 14 of which were absentee paper ballots. The Respondent, Linda Blackmon-Brace, received 281 votes, 154 of which were absentee paper ballots. Two votes were cast for others.

Based upon legal advice from the South Carolina Elections Commission (SCEC), the protest hearing was held on Friday, November 11, 2016 at 2:30PM. The Petitioner and the Respondent were given three (3) hours verbal notice of the hearing date, time and location. As noted, advice from the SCEC required that, regardless of extenuating factors enumerated by the Petitioner's counsel, the hearing must be held within forty eight (48) hours of the protest's filing and that neither an extension nor a continuation of the hearing was permissible. Further, a decision by the Commission must be made immediately following the hearing. Thus, motions made by the Petitioner during the hearing were not considered.

The merits of the Petitioner's protest revolve around several allegations, namely:

1) that the Respondent's legal residence at the time of the election was not within Lancaster's District 3;
2) that the Respondent completed the paper absentee ballots for others;
3) that there were violations of South Carolina Code Sections 7-5-610 and 7-5-620 by persons who voted for the Respondent by absentee ballots in District 3.

As evidence of the allegations, the Petitioner introduced nine (9) exhibits containing multiple pages. However, because of time constraints mandated by the SCEC, neither the Petitioner nor the Commission was able to identify with specificity the accuracies of the alleged violations. Additionally, because of the timing issue previously referenced, the Petitioner was unable to subpoena various witnesses to offer testimony.

The Respondent presented to the Commission as her evidence two (2) multi-page exhibits purported to be summary sheets from the Respondent's personal records that indicated the names, addresses, etc. of those persons whom she assisted in registering to vote, changing addresses, delivery of paper absentee ballots to the Respondent's address, etc. In summary, the Respondent's position was that she worked hard in campaigning and complied fully with all state laws in her efforts to successfully secure the District 3 seat.

Upon the conclusion of all testimony, the Commission voted unanimously that the evidence presented during the protest hearing of Jackie Harris was insufficient to prove that, even if truthful in all respects, would have changed the certified results of the City of Lancaster District 3 election.

Accordingly, the protest of Jackie Harris is denied.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY OF LANCASTER	)	BEFORE THE LANCASTER COUNTY ELECTION COMMISSION
JACKIE HARRIS, Petitioner, v. LANCASTER COUNTY ELECTION COMMISSION, LANCASTER MUNICIPAL ELECTION COMMISSION, and LINDA BLACKMON-BRACE, Respondents	)	PROTEST OF LANCASTER CITY COUNCIL ELECTION, DISTRICT THREE, NOVEMBER 8, 2016

COMES NOW, Petitioner, by and through her undersigned attorney, who does hereby protest the results of the election for Lancaster City Council, District Three, as to the as yet uncertified results of the election; and requests a hearing before the Election Commission pursuant to § 7-17-30 et seq.

Petitioner alleges counts of irregularities in addresses of certain voters in the election, as well as fraudulent registration or voting; disenfranchisement of voting; undue influence or the appearance of undue influence on voters; bribery at elections; and procuring or offering to procure votes by bribery.

Allegations

1. Candidate Linda Blackmon-Brace is not domiciled and is not a resident of City Council District Three.
2. At least one (1) voter was disenfranchised from her right to vote in her own precinct and for her own City Council District due to an unlawful change in her voter registration address.

3. At least one (1) voter was given a bribe to vote in the election.

4. At least one (1) voter indicated that candidate Blackmon-Brace gave him a paper absentee ballot and told him to vote for President and she would fill out the rest of the ballot. To his knowledge, he only voted for President.

5. Candidate Blackmon-Brace owns two properties within the district, 103 and 104 Rose Lane. She contends that she lives at 104 Rose Lane. No less than ten (10) other people had address changes to show residence at either 103 Rose Lane or 104 Rose Lane. According to eyewitness information and county records, none of these people live at these addresses within the district. S.C. Code Ann. § 7-3-325; and § 7-5-610-620.

6. There are numerous voting irregularities which point to fraud and illegal coercion in this election. Ms. Harris won the polling site and absentee electronic sites with 65% of the vote. Of the paper absentee ballots, however, Ms. Blackmon-Brace had 92% of the vote. This creates at least an appearance of impropriety and an ethical violation.

7. At least two votes were cast by what appears to be the same person, with the same address and date of birth, and only a slight spelling variation of her name.

8. Voters residing in one area of the District suspect that their paper absentee ballots voting for Petitioner may have been altered by or on behalf of Candidate Blackmon-Brace, especially due to the low number of results on the paper ballots that were for Petitioner.

9. Of the written requests for absentee ballots, a vast majority indicated a mailing address of 701 E. Arch St., Lancaster, SC. This is the residence of the candidate. The absentee ballot request forms, procurement, voting, and delivery are all subject to investigation by the petitioner, this commission, law enforcement, and state authorities.

Petitioner reserves the right to supplement these allegations after investigation through the subpoena power of the Commission and further ongoing investigation.

JOHN WEAVER: Elvira, let's roll. You just need a book? I don't know if John needs one, I just gave it to him because I thought you had one. We can get him another one.

(There is inaudible background talking.)

JOHN WEAVER: Sure. I thought you still had one. I thought you had, all right. The red numbers is (inaudible).

FEMALE VOICE: Okay.

JOHN WEAVER: And I just went back and took all the red -- all the numbers from the other night.

FEMALE VOICE: (Inaudible.) Okay.

JOHN WEAVER: Which really weren't a whole -- city council raised the -- there really wasn't any motion to approve this as presented. Okay. Let me look at this one real quick. Let me get it started. Okay. All right. Let me just -- ladies and gentleman, my name is John Weaver, I'm the county attorney.

The hearing itself will be conducted by the commissioners, I want to tell you that if you've not come here before please speak into these microphones all of which are live. This is being recorded by Ms. Berano (phonetic) over here. And in the event that there is an appeal to the Circuit Court that will -- this will have to be transcribed and typed up for the reading by the Judge. So try not -- two people don't talk at once and talk clearly and distinctly. Anybody who stands up will have to be sworn in. Ms. Berano will swear you in to do that. Everything will be under oath and -- and lastly if there are any documents to be presented please give those to Ms. Berano and she will mark them by simply dating and initially them and then there will be considered by the commission as they deem appropriate. Thank you.

RICK CRIMMINGER: And I'm Rick Crimminger, I'm the chairman of the election commission. We started a meeting this morning at 9 o'clock to certify the election results and as we got through with that we had to take an adjournment for lunch so we're going to certify those election results now and then we'll go into the protest hearing right after that, okay.

So districts have been presented with a numbers that are being submitted to the State for official presentation to the State as our Lancaster County numbers. I'd entertain a motion at this time to approve those.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Second, Elvira Faulkner McIlwain.

RICK CRIMMINGER: We've got a motion from Elvira.

MARSHALL BENSON: I second.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Second from Marshall. Any discussion? Any questions? All those in favor then please raise your right hand. It's approved unanimously.

I'll now accept a motion to adjourn from our certification meeting?

MARSHALL BENSON: (Inaudible) motion certification at this time.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Second.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Second. All those in favor raise your right hand. We have now official adjourned from that meeting so we'll start the next meeting, so. John, do you want to see who wants to make what statements where?

JOHN WEAVER: This is the protest hearing of Jackie Harris who has brought a complaint against the Lancaster County Election Commission, the Lancaster Municipal Election Commission and Linda Blackmon Brace.

I will tell you that the responsibility for the elections that are held within the City of Lancaster have for many years been turned over to the Lancaster County Election Commission and the Voter Registration, Mary Ann Hudson heads up that. So while we are talking about the City of Lancaster and the protest of an election there, it is actually Lancaster County who is conducting the hearing and will be making the decision based upon the findings of these three out of the four members, which does represent a quorum.

This is being conducted generally in accordance with the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure that would be used across the street in the Court of Common Pleas. However the commission and I and everyone realizes that with the exception of myself and one other person, there's only two attorneys in here but -- but so it will be strictly adhered to but if it gets too far a field I'll take it upon myself to recommend to the chairman that we -- that we do something perhaps a little differently.

The role is to give everybody the full opportunity to be heard, present their cases completely and as fairly as can be done so that the commission, if they're so inclined today to make a decision as to whether to uphold or to reverse the decision of the voters. So with that, Mr. Chairman, I'm prepared to go.

RICK CRIMMINGER: (Inaudible.)

ELIZABETH HYATT: Thank you, Mr. Chairman, Members of the Commission, my name is Elizabeth Hyatt, I represent Jackie Harris in this protest.

The first thing I would like to do before I even go into an opening statement is to speak to what Mr. Weaver just stated, that the whole --

JOHN WEAVER: Could you please be sworn in by the Clerk.

ELIZABETH HYATT: So sorry.

THE CLERK: (Inaudible.)

ELIZABETH HYATT: I do. I'm not providing testimony however I just -- what Mr. Weaver just said that the purpose of this contest and the purpose of this hearing is to allow the parties, both parties present to present their cases completely so that you can make a decision on the allegations in the protest that we have made.

In researching this from the time that I became involved which was two days ago, to -- to today I have discovered that this -- this process is very confusing because of the difference between the municipality and the county. And even looking at the -- at the statutes and the ordinances for the City it -- it still very confusing to me. But the whole process has to be done with due process in mind, that both parties have the opportunity to be heard and an opportunity to present witnesses, to cross-examine witnesses and to present documents and evidence.

I submitted a subpoena this morning for some documents at the voter registration office, I have not received those yet. I can't conduct an investigation to provide you information without those documents. Likewise I've got about six subpoenas here that are probable going to be increased for witnesses that I can't -- I found out about this hearing two hours ago. I can't get those people here in time to testify and to give you an idea of what we are talking about in our -- in our protest.

So in looking at that I want to look some of the statutes and the rules because I am making a motion to continue this hearing based on -- based on several factors of law and -- and the facts of this case specially.

First of all, the municipal corporation elections are under the fifth chapter of the -- of the statute. County elections, State elections, general elections are under section 7. There are different time lines and different requirements. I believe just in looking at legislative intent in some of the cases that I've read, that the reason that the time lines are less for municipal elections is because municipal elections generally are a lot smaller than a county wide election, especially on a general election, presidential elections status.

Municipal elections that are just run within a city, run a municipal election commission are generally going to be a few offices at a time and a much smaller number of people. So certifying that vote is not going to take several days as it does for the county.

I was under the -- the municipal statute required to file this protest by 7:00 p.m. two days after the election which I did. But that was even before these results were certified as you just did a few a minutes ago, so I had to file the protest before the election was even certified, which is not the case for other elections, you wait until the next week after the election has been certified.

Then the statute in the municipal -- under the municipal guidelines, under the municipal election commission says that within 48 hours after filing that contest the municipal election commission which we do not have, it has been abolished by the -- by the city, after due notice to the parties concerned, conduct a hearing on the contest, decide the issues, file its report with all the supporting testimony and exhibits.

I contend that we have not have due notice. Two hours is not due notice for -- for me, it's not sufficient for witnesses, it's not sufficient for an investigation. There's nothing that we can present to you within that two hours that is going to be more than the allegations we've been able to make. I do believe that when I get that -- those witnesses subpoena and when I get the documents that I need, that we'll be able to provide you with the evidence that you need to make the decision, but we can't do that on the time line that is provided. So it does say within 48 hours but it says after due notice to the parties concerned.

Additionally, under the section of the statute that allows for these hearings to be -- to be done which is under Chapter 7, forgive me, just one second, 7-17-30 I believe is the statute number. Actually 7-17-50 is the one hearings, specifically says, as Mr. Weaver eluded at the beginning that the Chairman of the board shall provide for and conduct the hearing as nearly as possible in accordance with the procedures and rules of evidence observed by the Circuit Courts of the State.

And in fact this is the South Carolina voter registration election laws, it's just a compilation of -- of election laws and so it has all of that as well municipal election information. But on the -- in the last page of this before the -- in the very last section before you get to the index, it talks about South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. And the first one that they've printed is computation of time.

That's one that lawyers use to decide whether our case is going to go forward, whether we've had enough time for a hearing, for notice, whether we've had enough time for somebody to be served, for the Complaint to be brought, all of that goes back to this rule which is a very general rule in the -- in the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and it says specifically, when you're talking about and computing any period of time the last day of the period which would be the 48, so 48 hours after 7:00 p.m. last night would be 7:00 p.m. on Saturday. The last day of the period so computed is to be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a state or federal holiday in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor such holiday.

So generally speaking that would be Tuesday in our case because we have a state holiday or a federal holiday today and then a Saturday that the 48 hours ends on. So in just looking at the Rules of Civil Procedure I think that we at least need to have until that period of time.

However under the statutes that govern the county elections, we wouldn't have this hearing until Monday, November the 21st. That is -- I'm asking for that amount of time just because of the simple volume of papers and information that we've got to go through to be able to present a full case to you. We've -- we've asked for documents related to the election and in order to go through any of those we -- we need the time and ability to do that.

I believe that in addition to Rule 6, I know that there are some press members here, but I don't think that we have met the (inaudible) requirement for notice. I certainly don't think that we've had due process notice. I have not received the documents in the -- in the subpoena. The -- I guess it's just patiently unfair to a municipal election that is held within a county so that there are that many more papers and that many more items that have to be looked at to try to do this in such a short period of time.

I think that that impacts on my client's ability to have due process for this case. I also understand that the hearing is supposed to be conducted with a certified court reporter so that there can be a transcript. And there hasn't been time for that to be, I appreciate the recording of this, but it's also got to be transcribed. And anybody that's tried to transcribed from a tape recorder knows how difficult that is.

I don't have any exhibits to provide to you today, I just -- I don't have any of the documents. There is some case law that I know the state elections commissions has pointed at, it says that the timelines for the municipal elections have to be followed by the county. That one case is from Bluffton in Buford County and that is talking about who it has to be appealed to.

That you are sitting in -- you are sitting instead of a municipal election commission and they do not want the state as far as the state election commission to be responsible for those elections. So they have their appellate process to go to the Circuit Court. And that's what that case leaned on. It said that even though you were sitting instead of the municipal election commission you -- the -- the appeal should go to where that appeal should go which is the Circuit Court and the state elections commission.

We're not looking at an appeal, we're looking at the conduct of this hearing. And I don't think it's fair to my client, to Blackmon Brace and to you to try to decide this on any type of information to try to do this on this type of notice. So I -- I would ask for a motion for -- or I would ask for the commission to give us a continuance till allow us to issue the subpoenas that we're supposed to be able to -- to produce, to allow us to gather the documents that we need to investigate and to present a full case before you. Thank you.

MALE VOICE: Thank you, Ms. Hyatt.

JOHN WEAVER: Blackmon Brace, do you have any comments you'd like to make? I'm assuming you want to proceed to be decided this afternoon?

MALE VOICE: (Inaudible.)

JOHN WEAVER: No, sir. If this commission were to entertain a motion to continue for the reasons that were made by the attorney, you could make that decision now if a motion was properly made and second, you could hold that motion in abeyance to decide later during the presentation of evidence and bring it up at a later time, whatever the decision of the commission majority would be.

MARSHALL BENSON: (Inaudible) commission. Due to the fact that we to adhere to a time limit, that is not geared by us but geared by a municipality, I don't even know if we have the permission to extend it beyond the 48 hours.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Conversations that the county attorney and I and Mary Ann and everybody else has had, we've been told no, that we didn't have that permission, so the (inaudible) election commission. Don't let me speak for y'all, nod your heads if y'all are in agreement with that?

MARSHALL BENSON: Based on that fact I -- I feel that as -- as unfair as it may seem, I would recommend that we proceed today and take any -- into consideration any affirmation that's available and do the best we can and make a decision based off of information that we have that's going to be presented.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Okay. I agree.

RICK CRIMMINGER: All right. We've got two commissioners that basically agree that we ought to proceed with it and without hearing a motion to delay it then we'll proceed.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Then we ask for a recess for a few minutes to try to get those -- (inaudible) we have no evidence to -- to present at this time. I asked for the subpoena this morning and I don't think that voter registration office has had time to get us the -- the new documents.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Yes, ma'am. We're take a 15 minute recess.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Thank you, Your Honor.

(A recess was taken.)

RICK CRIMMINGER: We'll call the meeting back to order. (Inaudible) this time, if you want to make a presentation.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I do want to put on the record and I know that you've already ruled on this but I do want to put on the record again that I believe that this is -- having this hearing today is in violation of my client's due process rights. And we are at a severe disadvantage in trying to -- to get this due to the fact that the county election has taken so long to certify and we're -- we're unable to -- not that they were not helpful in the voter registration office, but they just had so much to do.

And I think it's been -- I think it puts my client at a disadvantage. However I would like to call Mary Anny Hudson to the stand for my first witness.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Ms. Hudson, if you would, come to the microphone there, be sworn in please.

THE CLERK: (Inaudible.)

MARY ANN HUDSON: I do.

JOHN WEAVER: You can just stand right side by side will be fine. Turn that microphone towards you if you would.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Or you can put it down there, either way.

MARY ANN HUDSON

having been first duly sworn, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Ma'am, can you state your name for the record?

A. My name is Mary Ann Hudson.

Q. And where are you employed?

A. I am the director of the Voter Registration and Election's Office in Lancaster County.

Q. And were you served a subpoena this morning by my office?

A. I was.

Q. And were you able to comply with that by 12 o'clock?

A. No.

Q. Okay. And why not?
A. Because our responsibility as the election office is the certification of the general election results and those results had to be certified by 1 o'clock and that involves the certification and a post audit and that is our responsibility at that time.
Q. Thank you. You've got some documents here, do you mind if I -- I don't really know what I'm looking for so (inaudible) at some of those and ask you, are you the custodian of the records of the voter registration department?
A. I am.
Q. As such, do you -- do you accept applications for voter registration?
A. We accept applications for voter registration, we do.
Q. What about things of --
JOHN WEAVER: (Inaudible) mic please.
BY ELIZABETH HYATT:
Q. What about change of address?
A. We accept change of address forms also.
Q. What about sending out absentee ballots?
A. We send out absentee ballots and absentee applications.
Q. So applications and then ballots?

A. Application has to be mailed first and the ballot is mailed as soon as the application is returned.

Q. And this box contains some of those items in it?

A. It contains absentee applications, the ballots that were cast, the envelops that they came in and the authorization to return the ballots and various change of address forms.

Q. Okay. Now, I ask you are aware that of course that the county election commission has -- takes over for the city and handles the municipal elections, is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. So on city elections what do you have to do differently than you do for county, state, national elections?

A. Well, we have a municipal election along with the general election, our responsibility is that we really handle two elections at the same time. So we have the city election which has its own election number and we have the general election which is a separate election number but we take applications for both of those elections and we send out the ballot for both of those elections.

Q. And are you aware that there are certain differences in who is entitled to vote in municipal elections versus county elections?

A. If you are going to vote in the municipal election you have to be a resident of a municipality and in this election you had to be a resident of either district 3, district 4 or district 6 to be eligible to vote in the municipal election.

Q. And pursuant to section 75610 which is entitled who is entitled to vote in municipal elections, those people have to live within the incorporated municipality for 30 days prior to the election, is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And you've got some changes of address, is that correct?

A. Yes. I think but most of the changes (inaudible) they're still change of address forms.

Q. Okay. I'm sorry.

A. So a lot of our change of address forms are actually the voter registration form can be used in lieu of the change of address and so a lot of these are their change of address but they're on voter registration forms but it can be either way.

Q. (Inaudible) down so we can see it.

A. Okay.
Q. This is a -- what -- what is this document right here?
A. It was used as a change of address for them.
Q. Because they've selected change of address, is that correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. Okay. And their address on this where they live, physical address is what?
A. The physical address listed is 103 Rose Lane.
Q. And is that in District 3?
A. It is.
Q. In the city?
A. It is.
Q. And when was this application turned in?
A. On 10/26 of -- well, 10/27 of 2016.
Q. Is that 30 days prior to this election?
A. No.
Q. Okay.
A. That would have had to be October the 8th.
Q. Okay. And who -- what's the name of the person on this -- on this document?
A. Rachel Stewart.
Q. And in fact before this Rachel Stewart, do you have her previous address?

A. She was at Country Club Road in Kershaw.

Q. Is that in the City of Lancaster?

A. No.

Q. Okay. This is my first exhibit.

JOHN WEAVER: Could we please take that exhibit and give it to Judy. Judy, if you will mark it as Number 1, put your initials and today's date.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. And I'll show you another document, this is a change of address?

A. It is.

Q. And when was that clocked in?

A. It was closed in on November the 4th.

Q. And what is the physical address on that one?

A. 1908 Pardue Apartment.

Q. Okay. Do you have any idea where that person lived before?

A. No. I would have to look that up.

Q. Okay. But we could get that information, is that correct?

A. It's -- it's -- right. It's part of our records.

Q. And the name on that document?
A. Brenda Nelson.
Q. Okay. That will be -- these are all going to all be Exhibit 1, would that be okay, if I just give all of these documents and then we'll give them to her at the end?
JOHN WEAVER: Can they do them 1A, B, C but I -- but I do want them distinguished in some manner.
ELIZABETH HYATT: I just didn't want -- you want her to go ahead and give her that one then?
JOHN WEAVER: Yes.
ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay.
JOHN WEAVER: Judy, if you'll mark the first one 1-A, mark the second one 1-B and in that sequence as they hand them to you.
BY ELIZABETH HYATT:
Q. Okay. And likewise, what is the address on this -- on this document?
A. 601 Party Street.
Q. Is that in district 3?
A. I would have to have -- I would have to have a map to make sure that -- right. I was -- I mean, I'd have to look that information up too.
Q. And what's this person's name?

A. Amy Bell.
Q. And when was this one signed?
A. On 11/2 of 2016.
Q. And what -- and what was her previous address?
A. We'd have to -- all of that would be -- okay, 212 and a half Hunter Street.
Q. And is that in district 3 or do you know?
A. I'd have to -- I'd have to be able to have my assistant up here and look.
Q. Okay. That would be number 3 or 1-C. Let's see, what's the address on this one?
A. 617 Central Avenue.
Q. And before this person lived in the county, is that correct?
A. Yes, I think so.
Q. And the person's name is?
A. Debbie House.
Q. And what -- when was that one clocked in?
A. November the 2nd.
Q. That's D.
MALE VOICE: That's District 2 -- that's District 1, that (inaudible) -- ELIZABETH HYATT: I don't --
MALE VOICE: (Inaudible.)

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. This address, 304 West Gay Street, is that within -- I know you don't -- you know some of them, is that correct, some of the address?

A. I really -- I'm -- I used my system in that so -- or a map, I don't know if we can get a map up here, but I don't -- I just don't -- I don't know off the top of my head, no, I don't.

Q. Did this person --

A. We could pull out her absentee application and it would show what districts it put them in after --

Q. And that's what -- I apologize because that's what we had hoped to do was to cross reference these -- these documents but we can't do that.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Okay. But the purpose in going through each one of these individually is submitting them as a group or whatever?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes, it is and to submit that at least -- at least a number of these have moved into the city or did a change of residence into the city within the 30 day time period that is required by law. So they would be not qualified to vote. Our contention would be that they were not qualified to vote and that those -- those should not be allowed. So I can just --

RICK CRIMMINGER: Can we just submit these?

JOHN WEAVER: If you would --

RICK CRIMMINGER: Tell us how many you have.

JOHN WEAVER: -- just enter all those and give us a final number as to how many in total.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Do you think --

JOHN WEAVER: If there are more than 26 and we get to Z we'll mark them as AA, BB.

ELIZABETH HYATT: No, I believe that the ones -- and I'm sorry, I'll have to look, this one -- I think of these we've just got the -- that are in the city before the 30 days, we've got two more.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: I've got a question, you're saying the ones that you're turning in are registered to vote with the 30 days or not within the 30 days?

ELIZABETH HYATT: They are with -- they are -- they're supposed to have been in the city for 30 days prior to the election in order to vote in the city election.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: And --

ELIZABETH HYATT: We're saying that this change of address into the city or into a district within the city was done within that 30 day time frame.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: So they actually just changed their address?

ELIZABETH HYATT: They just change their address just prior to the election. So no idea when they changed their address but they didn't do a change of address to show us that they lived in the city until way less than 30 days before the election.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Okay. A change address can be done the day of voting so that -- that -- sorry.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I'm sorry.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Change address can be done the day of voting. If I go vote and my address say for 11 East Gay Street and my driving license says 321 then I can have my address changed at that very moment and also vote at that time. So it's -- I'm not clear on what you're trying --

ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes, ma'am. But I don't think that we can -- that anybody can prove because there was no proof address that these people actually lived in the city for 30 days prior to the election. That -- that's what I'm saying. That they -- they didn't show any -- any type of proof that they lived in the city prior to the election, just prior to the election.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Your contention is that they should have voted a fail safe ballet which would have voted all county wide elections and state and federal elections instead of voting a silly -- city ballet, is that what your contention is?

ELIZABETH HYATT: I -- I don't know. What I'm saying is that there's a -- there's a concern there because those were done within the time frame that there's a specific provision for city elections that they live in the city. If people move in from Kershaw into the city and we don't know that they've lived in the city for 30 days, I think that raises an error of impropriety.

THE WITNESS: Fail safe voting is only allowed on election day.

RICK CRIMMINGER: I guess my -- let me -- let me ask a question while you're looking through some of that stuff. What would we do if we had a person that came in from out in the county, came into the office and change their address into the city precinct what's our standard procedure?

THE WITNESS: Change their address and let them vote. A ballet's the same. That's one of the issues with doing the municipal election along general election.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: In the handbook it says process to voter page 18, step 4, is verify address. The manager must ask the voter if the address on the voter registration is -- is the voter's current resident address. If the voter address is correct and shown, the voter should be allowed to vote. If the voter current address is different than what is listed on the voter register list, see voter's address discrepancy in the election date issues sections.

So to me that -- well, I've already stated that you -- as long as you register and you change an address you can do it the day of.

THE WITNESS: It's just when you do the day of election you can vote a fail safe ballot, that option is not available prior to the election.

FEMALE VOICE: Right.

THE WITNESS: You're able to change your address and vote a ballot.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Ms. Hudson, can you -- can you change of address on that one?

A. Ricky Nesbitt.

Q. And where is his address?

A. 103 Rose Lane.

Q. Okay. I'm just going to have you put that to the side for a second.

FEMALE VOICE: That was his previous address.

THE WITNESS: That's right, that's his old address, sorry. 885 Chesterfield -- I am so sorry, 885 Chesterfield Avenue.

JOHN WEAVER: Speak up again I'll dismiss you, okay. Now just understand.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Can you tell me what the new address is on that document?

A. 104 Rose Lane.

Q. And what's the name on that document?

A. Shevon Coleman.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Beg your indulges one minute.

JOHN WEAVER: Ms. Hyatt?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes.

JOHN WEAVER: About 30 seconds.
ELIZABETH HYATT: I'm sorry, but --
JOHN WEAVER: I'm sorry, I mean, you know --
ELIZABETH HYATT: I don't have the ability to go through everything and I should have. Let's see if I can pull this document.
JOHN WEAVER: Can I ask a question for clarification of Ms. Hyatt? Is it your contention that in a municipal election that a voter voting in a municipal election must be a resident of that municipality for at least 30 days prior to the -- they're being allowed to vote?
ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes, it is. That's what the statute says.
JOHN WEAVER: In this case would you give us that State statute please?
ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes, it's 7-17 --
JOHN WEAVER: Fifty, is that what you cited earlier?
ELIZABETH HYATT: No, 7-5-610.
JOHN WEAVER: 7-5-610?
ELIZABETH HYATT: And 7-5-620 talks about the proof of that residence.
JOHN WEAVER: And is it your contention that these documents that you are going through now will show that one or more of those documents did not comply with Section 7-5-610 or 7-5-620 of the State law?

ELIZABETH HYATT: I'm saying that the documents themselves on their face indicate that there is some question. I don't know where these -- these people live or when they moved and there's no indication of that. What I'm saying is, is that it is a question as to whether or not they lived in the city for 30 days. It's not just a change of address thing, and that's not what I was -- was noting.

I understanding about changing an address the day of, what I'm -- what I believe to be the case is that when there is a municipal election somebody has to, especially moving from the county into the city, they have to have been in the city for more 30 days and that's my -- that's my contention.

I don't know other than on the prima facie evidence of these documents how to prove that.

JOHN WEAVER: Thank you.

ELIZABETH HYATT: If we were allowed to continue this, and I'm not saying -- I know that we've -- we've got a lot to go through, if at the end of the day we end up having to continue this I might be able to subpoena those people to let us know.

MARSHALL BENSON: Let me ask you a question, one, that statute, could you read that again?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Absolutely. Every citizen of the State and the United States who is entitled the -- the statute says who is entitled to vote in municipal elections. Every citizen of the State and of the United States of the age 18 years and upwards having all of the qualifications mentioned in 7-5-120, so your general electoral requirements, who has resided within the corporate limits of any incorporated municipal in the State for 30 days previous to any municipal election who has been registered for county, state and national elections as herein required, is entitled to vote at all municipal elections of his municipality.

MARSHALL BENSON: Okay. So that's the first question. The second question is, because you're going through a listing based off of what you have available to you, how many of those people do you feel will meet that criteria, are not in the area?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Based on the -- the documents that I've provided so far that I've seen there have been, I believe six, seven.

MARSHALL BENSON: Yeah, but I'm looking for your total number, what you think you may have.

ELIZABETH HYATT: That's all -- we tried in that 15 minutes to -- to put them in date order and that's -- that's what we found. I haven't seen any others that I can --

MARSHALL BENSON: So right now you're coming up with the number 6?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes.

MARSHALL BENSON: Okay, thank you.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Ms. Hudson, do you recognize this document?

A. I do.

Q. And what is it?

A. It is the voters that are listed on either 103 or 104 Rose Lane that -- I mean, that's -- that's registered voters that live in -- at those two addresses.

Q. And how many voters are listed at 103 Rose Lane?

A. Four.

Q. And that's what they've given you as their permanent address, is that correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. And how many of those voters are listed at 104 Rose Lane?
A. Six.
Q. The -- are there -- is -- does one of the candidates list as her primary residence 104 Rose Lane?
A. Yes.
Q. Who is that?
A. Linda G. Blackman-Brace.
Q. And to your knowledge does she also own and rent out 103 Rose Lane?
A. I don't know.
Q. Okay. Do -- there are two individuals listed there that live -- one lives in I believe it's the last two, what are the last two names?
A. Both of them are Rachel Stewart, Rachel C. Stewart.
Q. And they -- do they have same birth date?
A. Yes, they do.
Q. And they live in?
A. One is listed at 103 Rose Lane and one of them is listed at 104 Rose Lane.

Q. Okay. All right.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I want to move that into evidence as (inaudible) --

JOHN WEAVER: Have we got all of the 1 A through A, B, C, D?

ELIZABETH HYATT: That I know of, yes.

JOHN WEAVER: (Inaudible.) A through D? So we only have four?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Oh, yeah. Those two, I'm sorry, I've got to more that we're waiting on.

JOHN WEAVER: That will be E and F.

ELIZABETH HYATT: And F and this is --

JOHN WEAVER: And the second document that Mary Ann's holding giving you separately will be Exhibit Number 2.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I've -- I've put that document into evidence, that's going to come into play. I needed for Ms. Hudson to -- to identify it so that's why it's in evidence right now. I'm sorry.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. I'm sorry, this is one of those change of address forms, is that correct for 103 Rose Lane?

A. It is.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I'd like to put that in,

Exhibit 1-G if I could.

JOHN WEAVER: It goes with 1-B?

ELIZABETH HYATT: G, that was one --

JOHN WEAVER: G.

ELIZABETH HYATT: We went through F, that would be 1-G.

JOHN WEAVER: And Mary Ann, do all of the documents that have been introduced come from your records?

FEMALE VOICE: (Inaudible, off mic.)

JOHN WEAVER: Okay.

THE WITNESS: Yes, they are all part of the permanent records.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. What is this document called?

A. It's an authorization to return an absentee ballot.

Q. And tell me what this is for.

A. When a person receives their ballot they receive the authorization to return the absentee ballot inside with their package so that if they are not able to return the ballet themselves they can designate a person to return their ballot for them and they sign the form saying that they're allowing the person and another person signs the form saying that they are person returning the ballot.

Q. And who did this person authorize to return a ballot?

A. Linda Blackman.

Q. And can you read the bottom of this for the person returning the ballot, what it says?

A. I hereby certify that I'm not a candidate, a paid member of any candidate's campaign staff of a volunteer reimbursed for time expended on any candidate campaign or an office to be filled in this election or the absentee voter above is a member of my immediate family, spouse, parents, children, brother, sisters, grandparents, grandchildren and mothers-in-law, fathers-in-law, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law.

ELIZABETH HYATT: That would be Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3.

JOHN WEAVER: And is that document for a single person?

ELIZABETH HYATT: That is.

JOHN WEAVER: Or a single voter who was absentee ballot?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. I believe these are applications for absent ballots, is that correct?

A. They are.

Q. And you -- you -- you indicated that the -- you can ask for an absentee ballot to be mailed anywhere, is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Is it unusual to have ballots mailed to someone else's home?

A. It's hard for me to -- it's hard for me to know that because when they give me an address -- I mean, if there's somewhere else, sometimes it's like they go to Florida or somewhere or they're vacationing so I don't know whether it's just -- most people have theirs mailed to their home but I'm not saying that there's not a lot of people that don't have it mailed to different addresses.

Q. Is it unusual to have many ballots mailed to one address, one -- one single residence's address?

A. You're asking me if it's unusual if you have several ballots mailed to your address?

Q. Yes.

A. You mean you pick one address, I would -- I would say that's unusual.

MARSHALL BENSON: Let me ask a question of you, Mary Ann, is it illegal?

THE WITNESS: You can have your ballot mailed to where you want your ballot mailed to.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Do you have an idea of how -- how many addresses we have that get more than five or six ballots mailed to them?

THE WITNESS: Now, I don't have an idea but I mean, for the most part, you know, it was -- it's maybe a husband and a wife or, you know, husband and wife and -- and a -- and a child is the most cases that we have some -- of ballots mailed to, the same --

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. And I'm -- I'm going to through these while we're -- while we're talking. Do you know where 701 East Arch Street is?

A. I do.

Q. And do you know who owns that residence?

A. Linda owns that residence.

Q. The other candidate owns that residence?

A. Linda Blackman Brace owns the residence.

Q. And these are all the applications that you have for -- for absentee -- applications for absentee ballots to be mailed to an address, is that correct? This stack that I've got right here?

A. It's not all of the absentee applications, because we have however many for all over the county, those are I think the city ballots.

Q. These are just the ones for the city?

A. Right.

Q. Okay. I'm -- I'm going through these as -- as we talk and I'm putting these in two different stacks. Tell me, this person just for an example, Sandy Blair, where is she having her email -- I mean, where is she sending her ballot?

A. She's having hers mailed to 208 North Willow Lake Road.

Q. Is that her address?

A. I would -- I -- I -- yeah, I would say so.

Q. Okay. And -- and a lot of these are addresses are vacations or -- or whatever.

A. Most addresses are out of town.

Q. These -- this stack is all -- can you tell me where all of those are being mailed to?

A. 701 East Arch Street.

Q. Okay. And I've gone through roughly -- roughly half the stack and that's one, two, three, four, five, six, ten, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, that's 23, 24.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Twenty-three at the same address or 23 --

RICK CRIMMINGER: Twenty --

ELIZABETH HYATT: Twenty-four mailed to seven -- are asking for their absentee ballots to be mailed to 701 East Arch Street and I haven't gone through the rest of -- I'm going to -- if you don't mind, I'm going have someone else go through these while we're -- (inaudible) just so I can give you a number.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. This person, what is their old address?

A. 4464 Mount Carmel Road.

Q. In Health Springs?

A. In Health Springs, South Carolina.

Q. That's not in the city, is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. And when was that one given to you?

A. This was done on 9/29 of 2016.

Q. And what's the address?

A. Well, actually -- yeah, that's right. That's when we received it. The new address is 702 East Gay Street.

Q. Okay. That would be --

A. Denise Mills.

ELIZABETH HYATT: That would be Exhibit Number 5.

JOHN WEAVER: What number are we, individual numbers not the A, B, C's?

ELIZABETH HYATT: The last one was three.

FEMALE VOICE: Three.

ELIZABETH HYATT: So this one will be number 4.

THE WITNESS: Just a minute, we're going to have to take a ten minute break so I can just go (inaudible) something with (inaudible).

ELIZABETH HYATT: That's okay, I'll call her -- I'll return her to the stand if we need to when she gets back.

JOHN WEAVER: That's fine.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay. I'm going to call Linda Thompson to the stand, Thomas, Thompson, Linda Thompson to the stand.

(Whereupon, Linda Thompson took the stand.)

JOHN WEAVER: If you --

LINDA THOMPSON

took the stand and testified as follows:

(If sworn, it was inaudible.)

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Ms. Thompson, can you state your name of the record?

A. Linda Thompson.
Q. And where do you reside?
A. 436 Chester Street (inaudible).
Q. And did you have occasion to help work the polls this week?
A. Yes, I was a poll watcher this week.
Q. And you were a poll watcher.
A. Uh-huh. (Affirmative response.)
Q. And where were you?
A. At First Baptist Church.
Q. And did you have an opportunity to speak with a lady who was disenfranchised from voting?
A. I spoke with her a little after (inaudible).
Q. Can you describe the scene and tell -- tell us what -- what occurred, without saying what she said, I'm not asking you to -- to have hearsay, I'm just --
A. Uh-huh. (Affirmative response.)
Q. Tell me what -- what happened in your view.
A. She came into the precinct to vote and did not have her photo ID. She was looking (inaudible) she could vote provisionally based on the fact that she would bring her ID by Friday to have everything certified, she agreed to that. She went to get her ballot, she found out the address was not the address that she was residing at.

Q. Now, when you -- did you -- did -- was she supposed to vote at another location based on her change of address?

A. Based on the change of the address she was to vote at another precinct.

Q. Okay. And do you know where the other precinct was that she was supposed to vote?

A. Eastside Academy.

Q. Okay. Eastside Academy -- okay.

A. On Lancaster Street I think it's officially called.

Q. Okay. And did she say what district, city council district she lived in?

A. She didn't know but she gave her physical address and it was in another district.

Q. Do you remember what that address was?

A. (Inaudible) Street.

Q. Do you remember what her name was?

A. Velma Issard (phonetic)

Q. Okay. And -- and was she -- was she visibly upset that she was not able to vote?

A. She was. Yes, she was.

Q. Did she indicate that she had not changed her address?

A. Yes, she did. She said she had --
Q. She had lived there for --
A. She's lived there for a number of years and she's never changed her address.
Q. And that the address that they had was someone else's?
A. The address that they had her listed at was her brothers.
Q. Thank you, Ms. Thompson.
ELIZABETH HYATT: I've got -- I've documents on that that I have to wait for Mary Ann to -- to identify before we can put those into.
ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Okay. On the young lady that did not get to vote, does she get an opportunity to go to the precinct that she was supposed to vote at?
ELIZABETH HYATT: May I call the chairman as a witness? I think that he spoke with her.
RICK CRIMMINGER: She was there at five minutes till seven and so she didn't have time. She was waiting on a ride to go (inaudible) East and they -- at 7 o'clock nobody picked her up.
JOHN WEAVER: Charlie, based upon -- based upon the facts that Mary Ann has testified that all these documents are her official records, I think it would be fine if you want to take that group and mark that without her --

FEMALE VOICE: That's right.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay. What I have here, and -- is -- are several documents and I just -- I'm providing them to you for you to touch -- to make your own conclusions with -- with regard to the handwriting and the documentation. There is a -- there is a document here for Ms. Issard to receive an absentee ballot which she obviously did not place because she went to vote. There is a document here for a change of -- of address for Michael Thompson at 251 North Willow Lake Road and there is another document for Velma Issard at 251 North Willow Lake Road. Which she indicated was her not her address and these I believe are old registrations for her.

So I would put all of these together as Exhibit Number 5. I'd like to call Ms. Jackie Harris to the stand.

(Whereupon, Jackie Harris took the stand.)

MALE VOICE: Ms. Harris be sworn.

FEMALE VOICE: Do you solemnly affirm (inaudible).

MS. HARRIS: I do.

JACKIE HARRIS

having been first duly sworn, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Jackie, state your name for the record.

A. My name is Jackie Harris.

Q. And you were a candidate for?

A. City council, district 3.

Q. You were the incumbent, is that correct?

A. Yes, ma'am.

Q. Jackie, were do you live?

A. I live at 443 West Spring Street.

Q. And that's in district 3?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. Jackie, you've seen a copy of the protest that I filed on your behalf, have you not?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. The information that's included in this protest, how did you come about some -- some of the information we found out after, how did you find out about some of this information?

A. It was personally contacts made to me canvassing, getting ready for the election, going out and meeting with voters.

Q. And during -- before the election did you encounter people who talked to you about absentee balloting and -- and different things about the election upcoming?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. You had an opportunity to talk with a gentleman who you offered to take the polls, is that correct?

A. I did.

Q. Who was that?

A. His name was Charles, Caskey (phonetic), I don't remember his last name. I remember his first name is Charles. And we came across him by canvassing Caskey Lane.

Q. They lived on Caskey Road?

A. Caskey Lane, yes.

Q. And did he indicate to you -- when was this approximately?

A. It was approximately the last of October, the last week in October, the 20 -- it was a Thursday, I'm not quite sure absolute -- absolutely what the date was. But as me and my designated poll watcher canvassed Caskey Lane we knocked on doors, he was sitting in the yard and I asked him was he registered to vote and he said yes. I gave him my brochure, discussed with him my platform and I what I had did while an elected official for district 3 and his response was that I already -- my absentee ballot has already been done. And I was like due to the hurricane the absentee ballots were somewhat late and I said are you sure you've done your absentee ballot and he stated that Ms. Brace always takes care of that for him.

So he didn't recognize me by name but once we started to talk he recognized my name and I said are you -- are you sure you voted and he said well, Ms. Brace had been by there to get his ballot and -- and I commenced to talk to him about other things on the ballot and he said I only voted for the president. And I said well, you know, we always want to make sure that our Constitutional rights are upheld when it comes to voting and the importance of that making that choice and other things were on the ballot besides the presidential race.

So I said would you like to take a look at the ballot, I can take you up there to actually see the ballot yourself and look and he said yes. He was picked up, taken up here to the ballot, his absentee ballot had not been turned in yet and he (inaudible).

Q. And did he indicate to you that -- that he had only voted for the president and was there anything else about that statement?

A. I asked him had he considered the senate races, he knew nothing of it. So as I went down and discussed the alcohol sales and the sheriff's race with him, he said that he didn't know that any of those things were on the ballot.

Q. He had already turned in his absentee ballot?

A. Yes.

Q. Since the election have you had people to -- well, let's -- let's just talk briefly about the election itself. When the -- when the votes were counted that night, when they did the initial canvassing of the votes that were done by electronic methods at the polling places, do you recall what the -- what the split was?

A. I had won 65 percent of the people going into the ballots and voting and I think Ms. Brace had won like 35 percent of the -- of that.

Q. And then -- and then pursuant to the absentee ballots that was cased here in the county building by electronic method.

A. Uh-huh. (Affirmative response.)

Q. Did you win those as well?

A. No, I didn't. I -- 92 percent to 8 percent.

Q. I'm sorry, the -- the ones that were cast on the machine here in the county building?

A. Oh I -- yes, I did win those.

Q. You won those.

A. Yes.

Q. And then the paper ballots is where the -- where the election was lost, is that correct?

A. Yes, it was 92 percent to 8 percent.

Q. Have you been contacted by people who think that their votes were disenfranchised?

A. I have been contacted by people who are very concerned with how the votes -- the ballots if they were altered -- the ballots were altered and which made me think very long and hard about this process. When you look at those numbers and after the elections individual start to talking to you and you hear things that go on when people are disenfranchised to vote, it's five minutes before the election is over with because there is a discrepancy and address changes or anything to that nature, that is -- that is a great concern to me.

Now, the outcome of this is not in my hands but I think it needs to bring -- brought to the election commission's attention.

MARSHALL BENSON: Let me ask a question while on this line. You say that it was brought to your attention that certain people's ballots were altered.

THE WITNESS: They were concerned.

MARSHALL BENSON: Okay.

THE WITNESS: Because they had just voted for the presidency and not the rest of their ballots and asked to just sign.

MARSHALL BENSON: So you're saying that they didn't -- themselves did not put the ballot in the envelop, seal it up and sign it stating that this is their ballot?

THE WITNESS: Right.

MARSHALL BENSON: Having it witnessed by someone else, they just gave somebody a ballot with one mark on it?

THE WITNESS: Well, from my understanding if you've ever been in politics and when absentee ballots come out, and I'm a candidate, I guess my moral value is that I'm not there to influence your -- your vote and therefore I should not be signing for you to -- because I am a part of the election.

MARSHALL BENSON: So I understand that -- that aspect of it. But what I'm saying is the person that you're gathering that information from indicated that they marked their ballot but they did not put it inside the envelope, seal it up and have it witnessed?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: So if that's the case, if they fill -- filled it out, signed it up and did or did not have a witness, I didn't get you?

THE WITNESS: They said that the only person they voted for was for president.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Right. I got that.

THE WITNESS: And that they gave their ballot back to the individual who was there to collect.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Right. And --

THE WITNESS: And they did not say that they sealed the ballot themselves, they said that they voted for president and was told the rest of it will be taken care of.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Right. And this is someone telling that this hearsay, you don't know this for a fact?

THE WITNESS: I was not there. No, ma'am.

ELIZABETH HYATT: That's one of the witnesses that we have prepared to subpoena. I've got the subpoenas right here.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. The -- just a second. Have you been -- in fact how many -- do you know how many absentee ballots were passed by paper ballot in this election?

A. There was over 1,800 I was going to assume. I don't know a number specifically but I know that those ballots are scanned and then they're counted, a tape is ran at the end. So --

Q. Do you know how many in your district -- you said that Ms. Blackman Brace won by 92 percent, do you know how many paper ballots you got -- I mean, paper votes you got?

A. I think it was eight and she got 114.

Q. Okay. I think, and we'll ask --

RICK CRIMMINGER: I've got the numbers.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Do you, thank you.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Yeah.

ELIZABETH HYATT: What are those numbers, Mr. Crimminger?

RICK CRIMMINGER: Blackmon got 154 on the optical scan machine, Ms. Harris got 14.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Okay. So 14 is the number that I was going to ask you about.

A. Yes.

RICK CRIMMINGER: The county as a whole got 2,163.

BY ELIZABETH HYATT:

Q. Ms. Harris, you -- the -- the certified results of the election show that you 14 paper votes from absentee ballots. Have you been contacted about that number by anybody?

A. Yes, a very -- a number of individuals was concern with the amount of paper ballots that were cast.

Q. Did they indicate to you that they had cast a paper ballot?

A. Yes.

Q. And that they wanted to ensure that their paper ballot had not been changed?

A. Yes, and they were encouraged to contact the elections office and from my understanding upon that contact the individuals were told that they needed to contact the city in regards to that.

Q. Okay. And do you know where 103 and 104 Rose Lane are?

A. Yes, ma'am. I do.

Q. And do you know whether anyone lives permanently at either of those addresses?

A. I do not know if anyone lives permanently at those addresses because I do not live on that side of town.

Q. That's in your district though, correct?

A. Yes, it is. When canvassing the neighborhood we did not get any answer at the door.

Q. Did it surprise you to learn that there were four people that were registered to vote at 103 Rose Lane?

A. I guess anything shocking when you're in an election. The things that you hear and -- and the things that you -- you see, so I was not shocked by it, no. Knowing that Ms. Blackman Brace signifies that as her address.

Q. Okay. And this is a -- this is a printout of the water consumption at 103 Rose Lane, is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And what does that tell you?

A. That says that at -- that's -- are you talking about 103 Rose Lane?

Q. I'm sorry, 103 Rose Lane.

A. That there has not been any consumption there.

Q. Since when?

A. Inactive since 10/31/14.

Q. So there's no water service from the City there?

A. Not that I can tell, no.

Q. How about 104 Rose Lane?

A. 104 Rose Lane does have consumption and they've only used a very small amount of water.

Q. Okay. All right. Excuse me one second.

ELIZABETH HYATT: All right. I don't have any further questions.

JOHN WEAVER: (Inaudible) register of deeds doing back there with his calculations?

MALE VOICE: (Inaudible) sweating.

ELIZABETH HYATT: You're done, okay.

JOHN WEAVER: Okay.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I had 23 before, now there are 29 that -- the absentee ballots are going to 104 Rose Lane and another 10, so that's 33 where the ballots are going to 701 East Arch Street?

JOHN WEAVER: Thirty-three?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Thirty-three and 29.

JOHN WEAVER: Let's separate those into individual -- not individual exhibits but in packs and identify them. What is the next number, Judy?

JUDY: Six.

JOHN WEAVER: The next number is six. So what will Exhibit 6 be?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Exhibit 6 will be -- okay. These are going to 104 Rose Lane. And they're also witnessed by the candidate.

JOHN WEAVER: All right. Exhibit 6 are absentee ballots that went to 104?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Rose Lane.

JOHN WEAVER: Is that correct?

ELIZABETH HYATT: That's correct.

JOHN WEAVER: And how many of those are there?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Sorry, I'm trying to find them, I put them altogether and then -- okay. There's 29 in that group.

JOHN WEAVER: So Exhibit 6 will be 29 absentee ballots that went to the addressed that she referenced?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Applications. Applications for absentee ballots.

JOHN WEAVER: Absentee ballots -- absentee -- absentee ballot applications.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Applications or the ballot to be mailed to be mailed to this address.

JOHN WEAVER: If you'll -- if you'll separate those and give those to Judy please.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay. And then there's 33 being mailed to 701 East Arch Street.

JOHN WEAVER: And that will be Exhibit Number 7. Those likewise were absentee ballot applications, correct?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Yes, and those would be Exhibit Number 8 whish is the utilities for 103 Rose Lane.

JOHN WEAVER: How many of those? How many?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Two.

JOHN WEAVER: Two.

MARSHALL BENSON: Let's go back to your numbers again. 701 East Arch Street?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Thirty-three I believe.

MARSHALL BENSON: Elliott said 24.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay. Then there's 34 because there were ten more, so 34.

MARSHALL BENSON: Change that from 24 to 34?

ELIZABETH HYATT: That's correct.

MARSHALL BENSON: Okay.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: I know 30 on 104.

ELIZABETH HYATT: And 104 there were 29.

MARSHALL BENSON: And does that include the six that you gave us earlier?

ELIZABETH HYATT: Those were change of address forms so they -- I don't --

MARSHALL BENSON: Application.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I don't know whether they go together or not. Although there was one in fact I don't know whether we ever put that one into -- yeah, we -- we did put that one into evidence I believe, that was one of those change of addresses to 103 Rose Lane.

At this time because I -- I have it and I reiterate that I need some time for these subpoenas. I don't have the witnesses to -- to handle a couple of the allegations that I've made. However, I think that this has to be looked at from a systemic point of view and not just on the basis of one or two documentation --

JOHN WEAVER: You'll have an opportunity to make a closing statement.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay, I'm sorry.

JOHN WEAVER: Ms. Brace, if you -- you know have the opportunity to cross-examine if you want to, you don't have to, any of the three people that have been sworn and that's Ms. Hudson, Ms. Thompson, Ms. Harris, if you have questions for them you can stand up and -- and call whoever you would like.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I have one more exhibit, this is -- these are requests for absentee ballots, I just want to put those in for you to look at.

MARSHALL BENSON: What -- how many?

ELIZABETH HYATT: I don't know.

JOHN WEAVER: What is the relevance of the request for an absentee ballot?

ELIZABETH HYATT: The -- these also have the -- the ballots are to be held as (inaudible) Street, and some of them are asking for this -- the first one, --

JOHN WEAVER: You need -- let me stop you a minute, you need to come back to the microphone.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Sorry. I can go through these and count them if you want me to while she's preparing but the first document that I found in --

JOHN WEAVER: Hold on just a minute. This is going to be and additional number that go with either Exhibit 6, 7 or 8?

ELIZABETH HYATT: I'm just going to introduce it as a separate exhibit because they're different forms of paper, I don't want to mess up Mary Ann's stacks.

JOHN WEAVER: As she -- as she is having the opportunity to cross-examine any of these witnesses, if you will be counting those.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Sure.

JOHN WEAVER: And then when they finished, if you'd come back up and identify what they are intended to be.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I will.

JOHN WEAVER: And how many of them there are.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay, thank you.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I would like to cross-exam Mary Ann and she's not present. But can I say something?

RICK CRIMMINGER: If you want to make an opening statement that will be fine and -- and --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I am Linda Blackmon Brace and --

RICK CRIMMINGER: Hold up, wait just a second (inaudible) whatever, I need to get your sworn in.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Oh, I'm sorry.

RICK CRIMMINGER: John, if you would contact Mary Ann and ask her if she's free, we need her testimony again and ask her to come on back up here please. Okay. I've requested that we get her back up here and you've been sworn in so we'll have an opening statement from you, Ms. Brace.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Hi, I am Linda Blackmon Brace, and due to the request of some of the applications being -- come to 104 Rose Lane, was due to -- this was a process back in 2015, that we were getting ready for the Hillary Clinton campaign. When in 2016 and they sent out 2,000. All the people at the beginning didn't even get it, so Mary Ann in the voter registration commission say we're going to send them out one more time and if you don't get them this time we won't send them out.

That's why I, at the end for everybody who did got theirs at their address, and rather guys believe this or not, you would be surprised of the people who do not have a mailbox. You would be surprised of how we started the process in September -- I mean, in January and when we go back in August those people have moved and we have no way of knowing where they are.

So my thing was that, and Ms. Mills can say it's sometime just getting an application is ten trips. It's ten. Sometimes getting the ballot and it's nothing that we can do with it until we get the person. Now, with that stack that she gave I would like if y'all are going to consider, that all of those are not for district 3. They're for -- some of them are for district 1, some of them are for district 2, some of them for district 3, some are for district 4, some of them are for district 5, some of them are for district 6. And when she look at that other stack we did over 600.

We did over 600 -- and then when you see Kershaw, this other stack, these were elderly people and if you see the big change in Pardue (phonetic), it was because the transition of Pardue you probably don't do not have 60 percent of the people that is -- are still living there. Now, I went back, we keep documents and in 2012 80 people that died and just what -- in -- in district 3 that was some of my supporters. So what I did I said I got to replenish this.

So I went back around, when they questioned the young lady, Annabelle, I didn't even know that she lived there. She saw me out, she's from Gray Fall. So and I think that the attorney does not know that you -- the only thing that you have to do is to be a registered voter, you don't have to live in the city for 30 days. She don't know the law, I can assure you of that.

And the only thing that you have to give a -- now, even with some of the convents or the convictions I got their voter registration in, in a timely manner before October the 8th. I knew that they were going to get the paper from the voter registration saying that they could not vote because they were a convicted felon, therefore I had the 30 day window to work on getting X, Y, Z. And everybody was saying well, I'm not on -- I said but you've got to go back and register like you a brand new voter.

The only thing that I said that I'm saying is that I did my homework. I did my leg work. I walked 400 miles every week, I walked almost 17,000 miles every -- 17,000 miles. And really when I started I really started for Hillary Clinton. Now, if somebody is upset and I see the names that she is saying, these people didn't even cast a ballot, they weren't even able to vote. And Mary Ann can -- can you come on up, Mart Ann?

RICK CRIMMINGER: Let's -- finish your statement.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Okay. And this is what is so upsetting to me is that we keep a little book. We don't go and try to invent the wheel, we just build on what we got. And so we -- I had my nephew who got ready to go off to college and my niece that got ready to go off to college, they went out there and said let's rock this boat. Let's get this boat in.

It was young people, 18-35, not older people and when you're talking about the Pardue area, some of Gay Street area, some of these people were on dialysis, if I'm saying it right. And they said, well, Ms. Blackmon, mail it to your address because I can't walk up there with my key and then I don't -- I can't -- would you have it mailed and I thought about it.

Wouldn't it be great now then for Neicy and Salanda (phonetic) and all them going back ten times, if came to the foundation. Now on all of that it was people coming to the foundation asking me, asking me to do a -- an application for a voter registration and Ms. Blackmon, you help us do it. They were asking me, they were coming to my -- to my office, to my brother's foundation. And when they talk about 103 Rose Lane, I do not own that home. A gentleman and his girlfriend just moved in there about maybe five weeks ago. I do own 104 Rose Lane and I can tell you and if -- and if this -- and if -- if it be told, I had a $500 water bill for a busted pipe and they adjusted that and what it is, it had to be repaired.

Now, when they brought you that they didn't bring you this outrageous water bill, one was $200, one was $500. So then -- and I used the home because I just want to say to the commission, what do you say to an individual whose -- who are living in abandon houses and then the abandon house is torn down where they were sleeping and now everything that they own is in a box or in -- wrapped up in a (inaudible). I do not and I will not -- I left my home to try to help individuals and my neighbor at 111 Pleasant Hill Street when people were going through transition, when it was a criminal domestic violence and the husband could not go back home.

When it was a criminal domestic violence and the wife could not go back home. If it was just somebody that was down on their luck from all walks of life. I will not, I will not tolerate that because of the goodness of my heart and what I tried to do for this community, that I will be knocked down so bad because people were coming to me. I even let some of those people go to my business, my brother's foundation to live there because they had no where to go. They had no where to go. They got evicted, they had no where to go.

And as far as the -- the -- the client that you're talking about from Kershaw that moved up here, I was getting a house ready for her that I owned in Kershaw. Let the record be -- show that I have over 15 homes down in Kershaw. I did not have anything available in Lancaster County. Now, I will not let nobody play hate me and if I'm using the right word or not, and if I -- if it's not coming out right, because of my heart and because of the accomplishments that I have, if I've got 30 homes and God has blessed me with that and I have taken that to help others.

If I've got homes that gets doing this election after I lost my seat in 2012, I did some traveling. I enjoyed my lake home, now if you want to say that I live there or whatever, I was just enjoying my lake home. I have never asked for a 4 percent for that home, I don't even get a 4 percent for Rose Lane. So I'm not up under any circumstances going to let my opponent come here and say that she and everybody that she said because I'm so in touch with the community.

Everybody that she said couldn't cast a ballot anyway. They couldn't -- they didn't -- their ballots didn't even count and if she did not have but 14 it's because she didn't get out to the work. Now, she got out but she got out late. I started in January. I started in January, she probably started October the 8th. Now my daddy used to say, and I'm going to do closing statement, he said Linda, if you're going to be at the landing you've got to be on the takeoff and I never understood that until I became a woman.

And I said well, what did daddy mean by that? Well, what he's saying you can get there but you ain't going to get there on the plane. So what I'm saying yes, we hooked up how many mailbox, Neicy, maybe about 20 mailboxes that people did not even have mailboxes. You won't even believe that, it's -- I can't even. Then we saw where the mailboxes were so small they're not going to be able to even put the ballot in the mailbox because it's this big. And now with the U.S. Post Office make them take it off the porch and put it on the -- on the -- on the street, here go boxes and everything was getting beat up. Their mails and everything was stolen.

So I knew that that question would arise but I bet you out of all of those that she have, all of them are not district 3. They're not district 3, they're 4, they're 5, they're 3 and they're 1. Now, I would like to call Mary Ann up and ask her a question, would you come, please.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Does that conclude your statement?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: That -- that -- that -- that concludes my closing -- opening statement.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Mary Ann, if you would please. You're still under oath. If you would just answer what ever questions she has.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Thank you, Mary Ann.

MARY ANN HUDSON

returning to the stand, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY LINDA BLACKMON BRACE:

Q. Thank you, Mary Ann. I would like to ask you that when -- in the last two years you have seen me at voter registration probably every day, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. And every day probably for the last two years I have brought in at least five new voter registration, right or wrong? Twenty-five --

JOHN WEAVER: You have to answer, not nod you head.

THE WITNESS: Okay. Yes. Yes.

BY LINDA BLACKMON BRACE:

Q. Okay. So when we had the -- and then in 2016 of January I started -- I wrote a -- a -- a request and the request said that I am requesting the democratic election, the democratic primary election, the democratic runoff, the mayor's special election and the general election. I did all those things with one request so that I didn't have to come back and redo it every time, did I do that correctly?

A. (Crosstalk.)

Q. I did that. So I did not have to come when God forbid we lost -- we had to have a mayor special election. I requested that, did I -- did I not do that, Mary Ann? Nobody else came in the office but me, at that time I wasn't even thinking about running. I was thinking about electing Hillary Clinton and trying to break that glass seal, that's what I was doing.

JOHN WEAVER: Ms. Brace, if you've got a question.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: All right. Okay. I'm sorry.

JOHN WEAVER: This is -- this is cross-examination not --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: All right. I'm sorry (inaudible) --

JOHN WEAVER: -- (crosstalk) --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yeah.

BY LINDA BLACKMON BRACE:

Q. Okay. So when I came in your office at all times I always tried to treat you with respect. Now, a lot of times you -- you -- you said Linda, you can't do that. And I respected your position, you know, I think it was only one time you said no. Huh-huh.

(Negative response.) Let me get back in contact with you. Have I in anyway do you think that I in any way did anything wrong because before I did the -- I knew I didn't -- I know I did not do anything wrong as far as taking the voter registration up there. I asked you was there a conflict of interest after I signed up for the seat, for me to turn in the application. You said no. You said where the problem will be --

JOHN WEAVER: That needs to be in the form of a question.

BY LINDA BLACKMON BRACE:

Q. Okay. Well, when I asked you was -- was there a conflict of interest with me turning in the voter registration application you said (crosstalk) --

A. I promise that's exactly right. I called the state election commission and they said that that was acceptable.

Q. Okay. Therefore all I brought in was application and a lot of applications were mailed in also. Okay. Now, did you see me bring in any ballot -- I did -- I did not even bring in not one and I don't know how maybe somebody put Linda Blackmon and they --

JOHN WEAVER: Let her -- let her answer the question.

BY LINDA BLACKMON BRACE:

Q. Okay. Did you see me bring in one ballot?

A. Well, I don't remember you bringing the ballots. But now in all fairness I did not take most of the ballots --

Q. Okay.

A. -- but I -- I don't -- I think that you're right, that you did not bring in the actual ballots.

Q. I did not bring in not one ballot. Okay. So during this time when I asked you -- I asked you a question about I think I did everything right, I think you treated me with respect and I treated you with respect, I respected your position and anytime that there was a question you would say hold up, Linda, let me call Columbia. And most of the time I can say that you were fair, you -- you -- you did your part but I -- I -- I -- I don't think that I did anything wrong.

I think what -- what has happened I mean, I was trying --

RICK CRIMMINGER: Ms. Brace.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Wait a minute, I would like -- I'm going to ask you the question.

BY LINDA BLACKMON BRACE:

Q. Did you not see me, let's be honest, for two years coming to voter registration every day turning in all the voter register -- turning in new voter registration and that is what I did?

A. If you want me to say that yes, Linda does take in -- to bring in a bunch of voter registration forms and change of addresses, that's -- yes, you do.

Q. Right. And what that is with the change of address and why it is so many new -- look like new voters, it's not new voters. What we decided to do at the end it's just go on and do a brand new voter registration because if something happened you're going to have their date of birth on there and you're going to have their social security number on there so there was no problem.

A. And I think that what we discussed was that if they were not registered to vote that would -- that would -- if they were not registered that would suffice for the voter registration form or the change of address that they could be used (crosstalk).

Q. So all of that being said I thank you very much and for answer that and I have no other questions.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Any other questions for anybody else?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: No (inaudible).

JOHN WEAVER: Okay. All right. Okay.

Before you start asking her, do you have -- do you have other exhibits that you were going to introduce on behalf of Ms. Harris?

ELIZABETH HYATT: I do.

JOHN WEAVER: Would you -- if you'd give us the number that will be Exhibit 9 and what you purport that to be.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Thirty-four, these are additional -- 34 additional applications for absentee ballots that are to be mailed to 701 East Arch Street. But I do not that there are on top, these are not the forms, these are printed or -- or typed written documents, they're not the -- the actual forms so they're a little different, all of them are different. But the top two I just want to call your attention to, the fact that they say I did not feel as if I understood the applications and ballot, I therefore requested Linda Blackmon to assist me. I made my own decision as to whom I wanted to vote for.

Just I wanted to call that out to your attention. There's 33.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: And would you state on (inaudible) on the ballot.

MS. HUDSON: That's correct.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Let that be known that it's not someone that live in the City of Lancaster. That's a county person in Kershaw and we did -- they came (inaudible).

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay.

MARSHALL BENSON: Let me ask you a question concerning those 34. Of the 34 are you indicating that any of those may be new?

ELIZABETH HYATT: I don't know, they're just application for absentee, so I wouldn't know whether they were new or not. They're not checked -- they're -- they're not even forms, they're just type written documents. Mary Ann would have to tell you that, I don't know.

MARSHALL BENSON: Thank you.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Ms. Blackmon, you run the Michael Blackmon Foundation, is that correct?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yes, I do and I also run several businesses over there.

ELIZABETH HYATT: And who works for you?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Nobody.

ELIZABETH HYATT: You don't have any employees?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I do not have not one employee. I even, and I don't mean no disrespect, I downsized and I do my business myself. You can -- I -- I'm about like this, you can pull my tax return.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: No employees.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Thank you.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I think that's all, thank you.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Uh-huh. (Affirmative response.)

JOHN WEAVER: Ms. Harris, is this phase completed at this point? But as far as evidence is concerned?

FEMALE VOICE: (Inaudible) objection.

JOHN WEAVER: I understand, is -- is all of the evidence that you plan on presenting through Exhibit 9?

ELIZABETH HYATT: All that -- all that I have to offer right this minute without being able to -- to do the research that I need, is -- is there.

JOHN WEAVER: I understand. And Ms. Brace, you do not have any documents to introduce for this commission to consider?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: As far as my (inaudible).

JOHN WEAVER: Any documents that would be responsive to the protest that has been filed?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yes, I can give you these documents and these are (inaudible) that I did. There's Arch Street, I don't -- Central Avenue, Dunlap, French, Gay.

RICK CRIMMINGER: What are these documents?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: These are documents that are saying the ones that I did.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Okay.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: That I did the record, all those other ones I don't know who did.

MARSHALL BENSON: Request for the application?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: The request for the application. These -- these --

MARSHALL BENSON: The number?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I think I may have did maybe 110 but they were not all in the City of Lancaster.

JOHN WEAVER: Do you -- do you have the number that you did within the City of Lancaster, district 3?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Okay. Here go two, this is probably 14, this is add eight, this is 20, this is -- this would be 24 because all of them didn't -- I want you to see that when I'm doing that number because some of them was requested but they was not received, you see where call in. Someone did call in but okay. So this one ought to be three, that was 24. Okay. This would be 27, we found out that this person couldn't, okay, so I would say we didn't get those in.

So that's 27, I'll go on and say 37, all these (inaudible) so one, two, three, four, five, six, so that would be 42. Got all those in so 42, 43, (inaudible) 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 56. So I would say an accurate count for the district 3, and these were people that I did was -- and that was simply doing the request.

The other volunteers therefore went back to them and was telling them about the issues and, you know, all of them, all of these people right here and a lot of these people right here, I want to say, Ms. Attorney, I can't say, their applications went to their homes. They didn't come to mine. The ones that did come was like you have this lady right here that's on dialysis. You have this man right here, Brad Hill, who can't walk to the mailbox. You have --

JOHN WEAVER: Ms. Brace.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yeah.

JOHN WEAVER: All right. All we need to know is how many.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Fifty-six. Fifty-six.

JOHN WEAVER: Fifty-six and you -- would you like to introduce that document into evidence?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I would like to introduce -- she can -- but you'll give me my papers back?

JOHN WEAVER: You'll get -- we'll keep them until you get them back, it will be safe.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Okay.

JOHN WEAVER: That will be -- Judy, that will be Respondent's Exhibit Number 1.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I also would like to give these as evidence also.

MARSHALL BENSON: Before you move on to that, 56, those were requested and received?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: No.

MARSHALL BENSON: Just requested.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Requested.

MARSHALL BENSON: Okay.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Right here, where on the day -- let me get those, these were probably another 52 that I couldn't even finish. I started and I backed tracked so I would like to show that as evidence. We requested another 54 and we tried to the very end and we could not get those.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Can I ask you first about one of those?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yeah, okay.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Because this is the lady that we were talking about being disenfranchised that (crosstalk) --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Uh-huh. (Affirmative response.) Because I guess -- okay, that was her and her brother and I don't know -- I -- I -- right here she was sitting on her father's porch. Her father was deceased. She was the one that stopped me and asked me would I do -- do a change of address for her. It may have been an honest mistake, I thought she lived at Thomas address.

We did not get it back in a timely matter.

ELIZABETH HYATT: Who's Michael Thompson?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Michael Thompson and Emma Thompson is husband and wife. They --

ELIZABETH HYATT: But that's the address that 251 Willow Lake Road --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I might -- I might -- I might --

ELIZABETH HYATT: -- is what address --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yeah. I might --

JOHN WEAVER: Can we get that introduced before you talk --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Okay. One is Michael's -- Michael --

ELIZABETH HYATT: Okay.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: -- and Emma address.

JOHN WEAVER: (Inaudible) -- hold just a minute. That will be marked, Judy, as Exhibit Number 2 and tell them what that document -- those --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: These documents are (inaudible) --

JOHN WEAVER: Ms. Brace.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Oh, I'm sorry. These documents right here is probably over 60 that I -- people that we started the process but we could not finish.

JOHN WEAVER: So that -- that doesn't have anything to do then with the count actually taking last Tuesday?

ELIZABETH HYATT: But actually -- I mean, I am concern because she's got the document that I put in on Velma Issard which was the lady that came to First Baptist is listed on that -- that paper. So her change of address did go through even though it was not appropriate, so.

JOHN WEAVER: All right. Let's mark that then as Exhibit Number 2 for the Respondent. Give that to her if you would please.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: (Inaudible) some too so it may be up to -- I don't know.

MARSHALL BENSON: I'm thinking of the relevance of it. If nothing was taken on it, it's just a bunch of names on a piece of paper, accept for --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yeah, (inaudible).

ELIZABETH HYATT: Well, it does have that Ms. Issard.

MARSHALL BENSON: We do have that with that particular name already as an exhibit.

FEMALE VOICE: (Inaudible.)

ELIZABETH HYATT: And I guess I'm fine either way, I mean it doesn't matter whether it comes in or not to me. But with -- can I start my closing because I'll go -- go right in.

JOHN WEAVER: Let's first of all decide, are you going to introduce those documents, Ms. Brace, or not, it's up to you?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I will not.

JOHN WEAVER: Will not. So we have --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: I don't have anything to hide, I can -- all I ask that -- and these are the people that we were going to take -- that we took to the polls that day. We had over 110 (inaudible) only six was in district 3, all the rest of them was in the county.

JOHN WEAVER: And before we do closing arguments, closing discussions or whatever you want to call it, the commission may want to ask questions to any of the people, other than the attorney, who have been sworn. So that opportunity will come now. So any of the three of you who have questions of any of these people other than the attorney, please feel free.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: I have one for Mary Ann to confirm what -- one of the statements that she said that it didn't make any different how many went to that house, that it was not illegal to your knowledge?

MARY ANN HUDSON: I'm just saying that people can decide where they want their ballot or their application mailed. That is the voter's choice.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Also to you, Mary Ann, that the voter have the right to ask whoever they want to get their ballot or to help them with their ballot or is there a law saying that a voter cannot do that?

MARY ANN HUDSON: Are you talking about assistance?

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Yeah, assistance. If a person, like for instance, an example, if at I'm home and I need Rick to come in my house to help me with my ballot is that considered illegal, if I'm requesting Rick to come to my house for my ballot?

MARY ANN HUDSON: (Inaudible) assistance that your --

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Right.

MARY ANN HUDSON: -- the voter (inaudible). That's hard to answer in a house. If we have assistance that the law says that it's because you can't read or write --

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: I'm (inaudible) that.

MARY ANN HUDSON: Right. But -- but, you know, in a home then -- then we really don't have anything to do with it.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Exactly, that's the point I'm trying to make. Okay. The other question that I have, is that Jackie was sharing that a lot of people had called her in reference to their concern about the voting. My question to Jackie is, that I know that you tried to answer their question to your ability, but my thought process is on that is you should have had them to come to the voter registration.

JACKIE HARRIS: Yes, and -- and those folks --

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: And should have had -- and they should have had a document, I wasn't finished with my question. I wasn't finished.

JACKIE HARRIS: Oh, I'm sorry, excuse me.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: And then if that's the case it should have been a written document from that person saying that I had this issue that's going on, you know what I mean?

JACKIE HARRIS: I -- I understand what you're saying, but if someone is communicating with that with you and they have contacted the voter registration office to discuss any issues that they've had with vote -- with voting in regards to this process which only gave us 48 hours so in turn we would have been able to do that. But the statute doesn't allow that and of course me being a good judgment and moral value I did instruct those individuals to contact Mary Ann in voter registration, also you as commissioners.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: All right. And that's what I'm saying, a lot of this stuff should have been documented prior to because I had a problem with a voter person trying to confuse my vote and are messing up my ballot, I'm going to write documentation and present it to the voter registration office saying that this is what happened to me and I need some help with this clearly.

JACKIE HARRIS: I think you're looking at an individual as Blackmon Brace stated, those who are elderly or on dialysis that may not be able to communicate themselves in writings to voter registration about any issues that they may have, they thought they did what they though was in the next best interest and in regards to communicating any displeasure that they had with the voting process. I do understand what you're saying, I understand the point that you're making, but remember we only had a two hour notice in regards to this.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: I'm not talking about as far as this meeting.

JACKIE HARRIS: Yeah.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: I'm talking about when --

JACKIE HARRIS: Yeah, in regards to that, they were directed to call voter registration and I think Mary Ann did get a call which was direct -- if I'm not true, that what she was concerned about how her vote cast and was directed to call the municipality of the city to voice her concern in regards to that. At no point in time did Ms. Hudson tell her to -- that needed to be put in writing. That was not directed to me, that was a call made directly to voter registration.

ELIZABETH HYATT: In fact I spoke with Ms. Hudson too and the -- the ones that we know about that people have called Ms. Harris or have called the election commission or called the municipal about problems with voting, there is no documentation. There's no documentation about the Velma Issard incident other than what Mr. Crimminger asked what he asked for the pole back, there's not like a -- there's not a report form that they do. So there's, you know, even if they did contact the voter registration I don't think that it would be document there.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Thank you.

JOHN WEAVER: Okay. Other questions, Marshall?

RICK CRIMMINGER: I've got a couple. Denise, I needed to ask you a question if you would, stand up please and be sworn in.

FEMALE VOICE: Raise your right hand. Do you solemnly affirm that the testimony that you're about to give is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

DENISE: (Inaudible answer.)

RICK CRIMMINGER: Hey.

DENISE: Hi.

RICK CRIMMINGER: You're just always in the middle of all this, okay. And as we -- and as I look at this form, this authorization return ballots and who can return one and so forth, I know you return a lot of ballots. And I know you are also on the campaign staff and that sort of thing to do this sort of thing. What type of compensation or do you have compensation?

DENISE: It's just on volunteer.

RICK CRIMMINGER: It's just on volunteer, anybody pay for the gas or anything else or you pay for your bills?

DENISE: (Inaudible.)

RICK CRIMMINGER: Okay.

DENISE: (Inaudible) and my daughter.

RICK CRIMMINGER: All right. I just want to make sure it's on the record. That's what it is, all right, thank you. Anybody else have a question?

DENISE: Okay. Also --

RICK CRIMMINGER: Just a second, Denise.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Also, Miss Denise, on your signature on all of these applications you take in, like for instance the ballots that come back themselves, are you aware that the signature as a witness need to be on those ballets?

DENISE: Yes.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Okay. Thank you.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Ms. Blackmon, I've got a couple of questions for you, please.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Gladly. (Inaudible.)

RICK CRIMMINGER: Yeah, the evidence has been submitted and that sort of thing, and, you know, and we got to take all this with a grain of salt and sort of try to absorb all this in a short period of time and that. 104 Rose Lane, is that your address?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: That is my address.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Okay. And --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: And that is where I reside.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Well, let me (inaudible) --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Okay.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Can you explain the water, why there's only been 500 gallons or whatever it was, water that was used in one month time?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Because if you go back and they will pull that, I had a $500 water bill the month before and the month before that was $300. Some pipe bust, I had some tenants -- I had some of the people living there and I think with it being 500 they adjusted it so I had to get somebody to come and re-plumb the whole house. We cut the water off because even the city themselves, came and turned the water off at the base so by it being those, what you say, those iron pipes, we had to do the piping back over and we brought water from one -- 701 East Arch Street to 104 to use, cook and bath.

RICK CRIMMINGER: You just told me you had tenants living there?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yeah, I did. Those were the people that they were saying -- the people who liked Warren and Miss Rachel and some of the other people, my nephew that lived there that they needed the water. So I housed the water to them.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Okay. But you got tenants living in the house --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: And I don't say -- I don't -- I will not call them tenants, maybe I used the wrong word, maybe it was just a transition, they do not pay me any money. They do not may me anything, it was just helping somebody try to get -- get a hand up, that's what it was.

RICK CRIMMINGER: I guess my -- my question is, is knowing the size of the house and that sort of thing.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Uh-huh. (Affirmative response.) Uh-huh. (Affirmative response.)

RICK CRIMMINGER: How do we have you living there, and we also have tenants living there, whether we call them tenants or --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Because -- because I did -- I did away with the living room. I took the living room and turned it into a bedroom.

RICK CRIMMINGER: You know as well as I do that's always been (crosstalk) --

RICK CRIMMINGER: -- (crosstalk) --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: -- and then I have another, what would you say Neicy, that's a 16 by 18 adjourning building away from there and the reason that I did it like that because when it was small, that small my husband say well I can't get any sleep so we did not put that building to the house, we put that building away from the house so that me and my nephew could not have to walk on eggshells in that small house. So in that -- that particular -- it's a 16 by 8 with a kitchen, with a bathroom, with all the things that you need and it's two people that live there and DSS can confirm that because both of those individuals are on -- they get, you know, service help with -- huh? They get benefits from the DSS.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Okay. That's (crosstalk) --

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: And I understand what you saying, you always worried about the size of that house and I'm going -- I'm going to say when we were growing up it was 13 of us and we lived in a three room house, so it has nothing to do with the size. And we do not have a living room but we have a nice size kitchen and we did away for the bed, okay.

RICK CRIMMINGER: (Inaudible.) Any other questions of anybody? Okay. Then the testimony part is completed, closing statements.

JOHN WEAVER: Brief closing statement.

ELIZABETH HYATT: I think that we've got to look at this as a whole and not with these little piecemeal things. In looking at this protest nobody wants to -- to be here. Nobody wants to -- to protesting this election. I think that Ms. Harris had been cajoled into this by members of her friends and constituents to -- to mounting this protest because of all the voting irregularities that are commonly talked about in the community.

We've touched on a few of those here, we've not been able to give you an organized view of that due to the time constraints but I believe as you look through some of these documents, we're not asking for you to -- for you to find 55 people that you have to take off of that role to find that Ms. Harris should have won this election. That's not our contention.

Our contention is the whole of the election that -- that we believe that there are fraudulent activities. If you look at the statute it says will it make a difference in the -- in the election barring fraud and other -- other indications. If there were one voter that shouldn't have voted, if there were 20 voters that shouldn't have voted I think we can show that there are some voters that shouldn't have voted, I don't know how many because we weren't able to do that.

But I believe that in looking at the whole aspect of this the appearance of impropriety, there is a letter that shows fraud in their own -- on it's face per se. A document that says I am not a candidate and yet she is and she's the one that return that ballot. There -- there is -- and I believe that you've got to listen to what the words that are used here, the word tenant, I picked on especially too and I think if we had an opportunity to do more investigation we could show that Ms. Blackmon Brace was not domiciled in the city and I think there's different definitions of that.

But you can't have two residences and that's, you know, that's part of it. But looking at the -- the people that were disenfranchised, the people that came forward and said that they did not -- so many people said they -- that they were given a piece of paper and they were told to sign, they don't know what was on that piece of paper, whether it was a ballot, whether it was a change of address. Like Ms. Issard, it's just -- there's too much of it and it's just not getting out the vote, it's getting out the vote for her.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Thank you. Ms. Brace, do you have a closing comment?

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Yes. And I won't be long, but I just --

RICK CRIMMINGER: If you are, we won't be here.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: Okay. I just think I did my homework. I just think that when it's one that is asked -- if it's one voter we, myself and I know my volunteers, we will -- and it was some people who say I don't want to vote for nobody but you. I ain't going to vote for a president because I don't like neither one of them, I don't care for nobody on the state level or the local level, I just want to vote for you. It was other people who say I'm just voting for the president. I don't know nobody else running.

There's others who said I'm going to vote a straight democrat ticket, it was a great number (inaudible) who did a split ticket, that wanted to vote for the republicans, wanted -- wanted to vote for all of our elected officials that did not have opposition like Jeff Hammond, Carey Hounds, the auditor that -- a lot of them knew personally so they said when -- when someone would say well, I'm going to vote a straight democrat, I'd say you're not going to be able to.

If you want to vote for -- and we had the paper ballot that we had got and say these are the people. So I cannot -- I cannot even think that if a person say I heard and this is just -- when I went to a particular area the people said that -- did Ms. Brace tell you that she was on the ballot and or did you just think you was doing for Hillary Clinton. So some of them did not -- some of them did not as far as the one that I -- that -- that I assist with, some of them just voted for Hillary.

And I kind of looked at them, some of them said I vote -- they voted for Donald Trump. I don't know Hillary, I did not try to take away of their rights vote. So whenever they said they would call me and I can show, if you -- I can tell everybody to go to my Facebook page. I had over 2,000 people who came to the Michael Blackmon Foundation to ask me or my staff to assist them because really there was no where else to go. This is something that I had put in place because I understood the importance of voting.

I understood the importance of voting as a little girl in which my grandparents, we used to have walk with them to Southside School to vote. So being that I had to the resources and the tool, as Neicy say, I'm in my element. I don't even get paid, I took a leave -- a leave off a job from June up until February the 1st to work a campaign for Hillary Clinton because I wanted to be in Washington, D.C. when she got ready to take the oath, which she won't be able to do it, I'm sorry but we're going to support president elect Donald Trump because he is our president.

I just don't see how you and -- and I can tell you right now, I can go into the community today after this election and over 100 people will stop me and say, Ms. Blackmon, what we got coming up --

RICK CRIMMINGER: The microphone.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: -- what we got coming up voting next. And some of them will say well, when we had the mayor special election, when we had school board referendum, I got out here and got over a 100 ballots for the school board referendum because I knew the importance of that referendum passing. It was nothing for me, so for -- and I think when you look at the numbers it wasn't maybe at the end that is why -- at the end they wasn't even getting them. They -- so I had a big mailbox that I knew that nobody would be going up there and here go everybody say well we didn't get it, we didn't get it, we didn't get them, we didn't get them.

So we said okay, we tried to find a solution to make it easy for the voter so that they wouldn't have to be trying to walk to the mailbox or you got to get their key or they called me. They called Neicy. I mean, we're -- we're helping people all the way out on John Edward Road, a caregiver who said please, please I want to get my vote in. I'm all the way down in Kershaw when I should be up in Lancaster trying to do my campaign. Women down there want to get their vote in.

So what I'm saying because I did my homework and because I worked and I worked and I worked and I worked. And see, most people don't know and I live -- most people don't know, you have got to follow your district. You have got to follow your district because you can have -- you can think that those 80 people still living, and they gone. So I just would like to say that I just did my homework and doing my homework, getting the vote out and getting the vote out early and over 18,000 -- 1,800 absentee ballots for Lancaster County and I heard you said the night of the election you never thought that you would see that many, am I correct? You thought with the today technology that it would not be 1,800 people voting a paper ballot.

And then you have another, over 11,000 that came and voted early, was any of those questioned? And then when you talk about Ms. Harris had 59 on the machine and I had 54 so it was some -- it was some 54 people who voted early on the machine that thought I was worthy too. So maybe you could get out the vote with -- that day of the election but I knew that these people to some point was fearful of that machine. I knew that these people at some point could not get to the polling place or come up to voter registration.

Even the day of the -- the day before the election Neicy was out here bring people up here that couldn't even walk, that didn't get their absentee -- a ballot in. We did and they were not even for me, they were in county, city, other people district. So I just think that I did my homework and I apologize for being long winded but what I will not apologize for. I will not apologize that I did not do anything illegal. I did not do anything to imitate -- to intimidate anybody, I did everything by the book. I did my homework because Neisy would assure you, when all these other people say well, I can't vote there, you had to re-register by October the 8th.

If you didn't re-register by October the 8th with these conviction, you won't be able to vote. But as for the attorney, she does not understand. She's reading the law as far as the 30 day window is to get in there October the 8th for a new voter, not an existing voter. She don't understand that law. Thank you very much.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Thank you.

ELIZABETH HYATT: (Inaudible.)

RICK CRIMMINGER: Yeah.

ELIZABETH HYATT: She just admitted to breaking the law right here in front of you, 7-25-100, it is unlawful for a person to interfere with a voter who is marking his ballot. She just stated that she was helping them and telling them that they couldn't vote straight ticket, that they had to vote all those things, I believe that she just admitted it right here.

LINDA BLACKMON BRACE: No, I didn't.

RICK CRIMMINGER: All right. We're going to take this under consideration, we'll have a discussion. We're going to do that right now.

JOHN WEAVER: Would you like to make a decision today after you go back in the back and discuss it, like a jury does? You can discuss it out front but when you made a decision it has to be a public decisions.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Yeah, yeah. Do you want an open discussion or do you want to go decide?

MARSHALL BENSON: It doesn't bother me one way or the other.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Out here?

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Okay. I just want to share that for the city counsel district 3 it was the total count of votes were 518. So that -- so everybody will be on the same page with that. And Linda Blackmon had 281, Jackie Harris had 235 and a write in for two people which made it 518 ballots counted. Okay.

MARSHALL BENSON: And I would just like to say and I understand the situation that we all find ourselves in at this present time, being such short notice as it is, I think it's sort of a disservice in a way, but we don't right the law, we have to abide what is given to us. And what has been given to us is a 48 hour window.

Knowing that that was a desire at some point in time to perhaps protest this, at least from 7 o'clock last night up until today, whether or not this meeting was going to take place, people could have been put on alert that there's a possibility that they may be called upon to provide us with some type of testimony concerning what -- what has been said.

So -- so that -- while that is not the --

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: The case.

MARSHALL BENSON: -- the actual notification at least being fully aware that I'm going to protest this, be on alert and we may need you, whether we subpoena you or not, we may need you to come in and share what knowledge that you've given us. Other than that what -- a lot of what I've heard at least has been hearsay, stuff that we just cannot put our hands on because of the constraints that we have and we can't go and look at all the information.

The voters have spoken and they made their decision, we've certified the election and looking at the protest petition itself, as I look through it I was able to come up with, I think about 15 situations that were identified that someone had possibly done something incorrect. And even if we took that into consideration, Ms. Blackmon Brace won by 46 votes so that would not be enough to change the outcome of the election.

And I certainly understand the concern that we have because our voter process should certainly be above board. And but that's -- that's just not something that we have within our power to do other than to report what has taken place, look at the exhibits and then let someone who's skilled in that particular area to take that under consideration for future elections.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Okay. You know, I talked with most of you over the last two days and that's the thing, and I think you feel my frustration that I've had in the last couple of days. Because we have argued the point and argued the point and gotten attorney's opinions from all over the place and everything else on what we could do and what we couldn't do and who had to do what and we tried to interpret it every way we could to get this extended because I don't believe it's fair to either one of you. Okay.

I mean, I -- I don't think it's fair to us as a board, I don't think it's fair to either one of y'all as candidates. Now, the decision on something had to be made in 48 hours. I talked to Don Howard when he was here earlier and I told him, I said, you know, municipal election laws need to be changed, especially with the protest hearings and that sort of thing. I said they -- y'all need to do something to get that adjusted where it's reasonable to everybody.

And he agreed with me, okay, but based on what we were dealt you got to deal with the cards that you got. And, you know, so we're doing what we feel is best and that sort of thing. My own opinion, you know, residency requirement is a matter for city council, a candidate has to live there the day of the election is the way -- is the way the law reads and they can live anywhere else they want to. The day of election they have to live -- live at that house.

If city council finds that they got a council member that does not reside in the district where they were elected, they can remove them so that's -- that's a city council issue. You know, from our standpoint I'd like to say everything's black and white and everything is right in place and that sort of thing, but there's an awful lot of gray that's been thrown at us.

And, you know, postponing doing anything else, I don't know that it's going to make any difference. Sort of like Marshall, when you start adding up how many votes and how many was effected and if you took away this many or you took away that many, is it really still going to make any difference, so.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Mr. Chairman, at this time I would -- upon considering the protest of Ms. Jackie Harris, including the testimony of witness, any documents introduced and finally the representation of counsel, I move that the protest of Jackie Harris be denied for the following reason, and both of -- the commission have gave you the reasons.

Further that I move that the certified result of the City of Lancaster be withheld. I request that the county attorney prepare an order in accordance with this motion and that it be prepared properly for this commission review and signatures.

JOHN WEAVER: And that's upheld.

MARSHALL BENSON: I second that. I second that motion.

RICK CRIMMINGER: There's a motion and a second.

ELIZABETH HYATT: May I just ask why none of the exhibits were even looked at, I thought that's what we were -- that's why we were (inaudible).

RICK CRIMMINGER: I guess the point is if we take all of them at face value that everything that you said was true, we still don't come up with --

ELIZABETH HYATT: (Inaudible) alleging 14 votes.

RICK CRIMMINGER: And fraud -- fraud is a criminal offense and not a voting offense. If you want to allege fraud I would suggest that you take it to the Lancaster Police Department and let them, you know, prosecute it from that standpoint or even this (inaudible). I know nobody's happy with this, okay, I mean I understand. I'm not happy sitting here with this.

JOHN WEAVER: Mr. Chairman, we need to have a public vote.

RICK CRIMMINGER: Yeah, we are.

JOHN WEAVER: Okay.

MARSHALL BENSON: I second it.

RICK CRIMMINGER: The moral is something illegal, we don't have.

ELVIRA FAULKNER MCILWAIN: Properly said.

RICK CRIMMINGER: We've got a motion and as second, any further discussion from us? All those in favor raise your right hand? All those oppose? It carries unanimously. The election is upheld.

END OF AUDIO.

THE COURT - All right, madam court reporter, this is the matter of Jackie Harris versus Lancaster County Election Commission, Municipal Election Commission and Linda Blackmon-Brace. It's docket 16-CP-29-1418. It's before the Court for appellate review of a decision rendered by the Municipal Election Commission of Lancaster County, which is -- the Lancaster County Election Commission operates instead of the Lancaster Municipal Election Commission by agreement and as authorized by statute. This is an appeal. The Court previously held a brief hearing on petitioner's -- excuse me -- on Respondent, Linda Blackmon-Brace's motion to dismiss. That motion to dismiss has subsequently been withdrawn, so that -- the Court did not issue an order on that. All parties are before the Court today for the hearing on the appeal, and, Ms. Hyatt, you are the appellate. I'll be glad to hear from you at this time.

MS. HYATT - Yes, Your Honor. One second, Your Honor. (Pause)

Your Honor, I think Mr. Belton has some housekeeping matters he'd like to address before we ---

THE COURT - Okay. Mr. Belton?

MR. BELTON - Your Honor, it may be -- may it please the Court. I think it's important, because I don't know where this is going to go, but this Lancaster Municipal Election Commission is really a fictitious organization that doesn't exist, and I would like the Court to remove them as a respondent, because I think it muddies the water, and even with my motion to dismiss, it muddied the water on who parties are, and since that entity doesn't exist, can we move -- remove them as a party to this action?

THE COURT - All right, Ms. Hyatt, what's your position on that?

MS. HYATT - Your Honor, I agree that the -- that the municipal election commission does not exist; it was abrogated by giving all of the functions of that commission to the county. However, my virtue of this, one of the biggest issues in this case is that although the county is serving as the municipal election commission -- I mean they're serving in their stead, they are held to the same standard which is a much lower time period, a much less time period for any types of protests. For example, the county has -- for a protest to be heard, they have almost two weeks, whereas, we have 48 hours.

THE COURT - The City has 48 hours. Right.

MS. HYATT - So I agree that it is not a real entity, however, it's deemed as one because it is a municipality. I think that that's a -- if this case goes forward, I would like for the municipal election commission to be included if it has to be appealed again; I think we've preserved that on the record, because I think that's an important issue that might need to be addressed at a higher court at some point if this case goes forward from here.

THE COURT - All right, Mr. Weaver, any position on that?

MR. WEAVER - The county election commission has no position, sir.

THE COURT - Mr. Norrell?

MR. NORRELL - We have no position. At the hearing, as I said, we consider ourselves a nominal party and aren't here to offer any evidence or do any cross examination or anything like that. We're just here sitting and observing primarily, so ---

THE COURT - All right, and Mr. Belton?

MR. BELTON - Your Honor, just finally, again, Ms. Hyatt is arguing that -- she's arguing two sets of law and I think that the Court in its opening statement indicated that the city had abrogated its responsibility to the election commission by statute. So at this point, you know, having it as a party, will somebody just explain to me who this party is? I mean how do I -- I mean they've never met; there are not members of this board. They, by statute, don't exist. I mean I can't -- how do you deal with something that's just a figment of our imagination?

THE COURT - All right, why don't we do this? Why don't I adopt a hybrid approach to it, because you're correct, Mr. Belton; you're absolutely correct that the Lancaster MEC is a fiction because it -- those responsibilities and duties of a -- of a municipal, MEC, election -- or excuse me -- an MEC, municipal election commission have been contracted and negotiated between the City of Lancaster and the County of Lancaster to allow the county election commission to handle it. There's a phrase in law where somebody stands in the shoes of another and I cannot for the life of remember it -- off top of it -- I think it may be -- and I don't want to blow your minds here -- ex mero motu or something? Y'all heard that before? Am I right, Mr. Weaver? You been around a while.

MR. WEAVER - Yeah, ---

THE COURT - Mr. Delray (phonetic), you been around as long as I have ---

MR. Weaver - Oh, like The Citadel I learned -- only thing -- in behalf of the county commission, I will say that we abided by the municipal rules as ---

THE COURT - Correct.

MR. WEAVER - --- so that's ---

THE COURT - Which is what the contract -- y'all -- which is what your agreement -- you have to do that, but I think the Latin phrase -- and I'm doing this for whatever -- wherever this transcript may go. Okay? I think it's ex mero motu where you stand in the shoes of another, so for the purpose of the actual caption, I find that the Lancaster Municipal Election Commission is not a party in interest. Okay? But for the purpose of making sure those above me know that it's an appeal from a municipal election, the Lancaster County Election Commission are standing in the shoes of the Lancaster MEC. So why don't we just leave it that way and we'll see where it goes.

MR. BELTON - All right. Thank you. And, Your Honor, and also, since we are preserving the record, there are a few more things -- well, one more item in particular if the Court will indulge me for a few minutes -- that I do need to put on the record, and I know the lawyers understood what were happening but I -- I need to put it in the record for various reasons, one for preservation moving forward. Ms. Linda Blackmon-Brace did file a motion to dismiss, because we felt like and we still feel like that we were not timely served. The Court correctly states that it did not have an opportunity to rule on it. The Court took it in to consider it and I withdrew it before the Court -- Ms. Linda Blackmon-Brace withdrew it before the Court was able to rule on it. The reason the Court -- the reason why Ms. Linda Blackmon-Brace withdrew it -- and I think this is important for preservation -- is that the County would not join us in that motion. I still believe that they were not timely served, but if the Court had ruled in our favor that Ms. Linda Blackmon-Brace had not been properly served, then she would have been -- the action against her obviously would've been dismissed, it would've been done. However, that still would have been a party left in this action, and so, obviously -- again, I understand and all the lawyers understand that, which means then that I don't feel like that Ms. -- and after the hearing transpired it was very obvious to me that the county was not going to join Ms. Linda Blackmon-Brace in its defense of this action, and so I felt like we were in a better legal position to remain in the case because we can make the -- we can make the argument, because quite frankly, in closing, Your Honor, I just felt like if we were out of the case because it had been dismissed and the Court had ruled in our favor, then simply they could've entered into a consent agreement to send it back to the election commission and that would've been the end of it, and I just felt like legally -- now, and my client didn't understand and maybe some of the other lawyers didn't understand that, but that was the reasoning and I -- I want that to be stated on the record, that that was my reason for withdrawing, not that I think that it was illegal or improper motion, I still believe it was the right motion to make and I think it had legal basis to it, however, even though we're on the same side of the V, I just didn't feel like we had any legal assistance in that. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT - Okay. The next issue is Ms. Blackmon-Brace a necessary party to this action?

MR. BELTON - I'm sorry?

THE COURT - Is your client a necessary party to this action?

MR. BELTON - Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT - Why?

MR. BELTON - Because the action is actually against -- even though the action is brought in saying that the election commission had not done itself properly, there's still an argument on who was it properly filed before, who was it properly -- and that Ms. Blackmon-Brace is the one who actually committed these -- these irregularities or illegalities in the issue, and so since she is the person who actually was initially accused, I think she is a party in interest to what happens with this overall thing, and quite frankly, they brought the action against her, as well.

THE COURT - All right. You agree with that, Ms. Hyatt?

MS. HYATT - I take the same stance that I took at the motion to dismiss. I don't believe that she's an indispensable party; I believe that we named her as a party because she needed to know that the appeal was going forward. I don't think that -- none of my arguments at this point are actually against Ms. Blackmon-Brace; they're all in what the -- we believe the commission made errors of.

THE COURT - Okay. Mr. Weaver, any position?

MR. WEAVER - No, sir.

THE COURT - All right. Well, we'll just -- we'll continue to keep her in the case then since nobody objects. All right, I believe -- any other housekeeping matters before I hear from you?

MS. HYATT - Nothing from us, Your Honor.

THE COURT - Okay, Ms. Hyatt?

MS. HYATT - Your Honor, we're, obviously, here on an appeal on an election commission protest of a hearing for city council seat 3 in Lancaster, the Municipal City of Lancaster. As you have already addressed, the Lancaster County Election Commission by a long-standing agreement with the city is responsible for administering and the handling the municipal election, and it's actually simultaneous. They actually have to do separate elections. Just by way of introduction, the election was for seat 3 in the city, was Jackie Harris versus Linda Blackmon-Brace. During the election and at the end of the day on November the 8th all of the -- all of the electronic tabulations indicated that Ms. Harris had won the election by a majority of about 65 percent, however, later that night when the -- when the paper ballots, the paper absentee ballots were addressed, Ms. Blackmon-Brace won those by a margin of 92 to 14, which created a total discrepancy between the two with Ms. Blackmon-Brace winning by 46 votes. So during -- as the election day proceeded and as the word started getting around that Ms. Blackmon-Brace had won the election, my client and the voter registration department started getting questions and concerns about some voting irregularities that they had seen at the polls and with the paper ballots. At first it was a -- it was very obvious that there were two types of balloting that made this election possible; one was the electronic ballots, and one was -- and the other was the paper ballots. They were -- they were diametrically opposed.

THE COURT - Electronic your lady won; absentee Ms. Blackmon-Brace won.

MS. HYATT - Exactly.

THE COURT - Okay.

MS. HYATT - So we brought this protest based on several factors that we had learned. The protest had to be filed within 48 hours. We did that, alleging several issues of irregularities of fraud, and then we were notified -- we filed the protest on Thursday night, November the 10th. On Friday morning around noon, we were told that the hearing would be at 2:30 that day. That same morning we had served a subpoena on the voter registration office asking for documents so that we could determine names of the irregularities we had heard of so that we could subpoena witnesses to this hearing, however, we did not get those documents and we were forced to come to a hearing at 2:30, less than 24 hours after we filed the protest. At the protest hearing we went through several motions for a continuance based on South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 6, the computation of time, that 48 hours would've ended on Saturday night at 7:00 o'clock, so based on Rule 6, that would've given us at least until Monday. The statute says 48 hours or due notice, but with due notice to all parties; we argued that two and a half hours was not due notice. We also argued that we didn't have the ability to go forward with any type of due process because the -- because we had not received any of the documents pursuant to our subpoena. At that point the -- the commission summarily denied our motions and moved on with the hearing. We requested a recess to get our facts together and the hearing -- the commissioner gave us 15 minutes with which we could retire to the voter registration and come up with some evidence that we could support our claims with, so we did that. I want to point out here that ---

THE COURT - Well, let me ask you this, because I've read your briefs that's been submitted, what I'm looking for are errors of law. You know, there's no de novo hearing up here. What errors of law -- because I -- you know, if there's facts in the record to support the decision of the commission, you know, I'm bound by those factual findings sitting in an appellate capacity, so what is the error of law or the errors of law that you believe support your client's protest?

MS. HYATT - All of my arguments are based on errors of law, Your Honor. First of all, the due process argument -- if you look at the order that the municipal -- I mean that the county election commission issued -- it's a two-page order -- it specifically states that -- that they did not consider my motions to -- to continue the case based on legal advice from the South Carolina Elections Commission that they had received prior to, the protest hearing was held and we were given verbal notice and it says in the -- that the -- they did not even consider the motions. So I think that is per se a violation of due process, that the -- that the commission that was set to hear this protest did not even listen or rule on the motions to continue that we made, all that were based on law. Secondly, they did give us time ---

THE COURT - All right, isn't a -- and I'm sorry to interrupt, but isn't a continuance motion within the discretion of the trier of fact? I mean isn't that an absent and abuse of discretion? Normally those continuance ---

MS. HYATT - I do think it's ---

THE COURT - --- continuance denials are always upheld on appeal.

MS. HYATT - I do think that it's a violation of discretion, because they didn't use their discretion. They specifically said we didn't consider the motions of the protestant.

THE COURT - Okay.

MS. HYATT - They also said that they did not consider -- if you'll look on page two -- and I'm sorry, it's on -- the bottom of the first page of the order in the next to the last paragraph, as evidence of the allegations the petitioner introduced 9 exhibits, so during that 15 minutes we were allowed to gather evidence, we were able to produce 9 exhibits that were all multiple pages, containing multiple pages, however, because of time constraints mandated by the SEEC, neither the petitioner nor the commission was able to identify with any specificity. Additionally because of the time they were -- the petitioner was unable to subpoena various witnesses. Upon the conclusion, the commission voted unanimously that even if the evidence presented during the protest hearing was all true, that it was insufficient to prove if truthful in all respects that it would've changed the certified results. They can't say that, because they never looked at any of the exhibits. We went through an entire hearing with going through multiple chances of putting all of these documents into -- making sure that we had -- these are the ballots, these are the requests for a change of address, these address this petition, these address this petition and put 9 different exhibits into evidence and at the -- at the close of closing statement, the commission took one vote and they denied the protest without even looking at the evidence. So I don't see how they can then say -- and they did not look at it during the -- during the course of the hearing. I need to add that, as well. While some of those statements were testified to, the exhibits were placed with the person who was acting as a court reporter who was manning the exhibits and the tape, and when we found an exhibit, we said this is going to be, you know, plaintiff's exhibit number 1, she took it; the commission never looked at any of those. And if you look at the transcript on page 111, it specifically addresses that they didn't consider any of those evidential documents because they wanted to look at numbers. So if we go to look at numbers, they wanted to be able to find 46 examples of mistake or fraud or collusion or any of those things, 46 things so that that would have turned the election. And this goes into my -- my argument about the standard of review. I think that is an error of the standard of review. The standard of review here is not just whether there are enough documents that say that or whether there's enough votes that might've changed the election, although, I will say that we presented over 104 documents that were never looked at and never investigated to determine whether they would be -- um -- to change the election. However, we did make many allegations of fraud, and the statutes and the case law over time in the State of South Carolina have all said you can't commit fraud and just a -- and it be okay, that it's just a little bit of fraud, there's just one incidence of fraud, so that one vote, it doesn't change the course of the election, but fraud in and of itself takes the integrity away of the electoral process altogether.

THE COURT - Well, let me ask you that -- on that line -- are you suggesting that the -- let's say the 14 items that you were able to get to in the small amount of time you had, that you -- do you believe you successfully proved fraud with those 14 items?

MS. HYATT - I think we successfully proved fraud in several ways, not just in those exhibits, but ---

THE COURT - Do you believe that even though that number would not change the result of this election, the fact that there is fraud means that the election was taunted and there has to be a new election?

MS. HYATT - Absolutely. That is my contention.

THE COURT - Okay. Go ahead, I'm listening.

MS. HYATT - Okay. So that is absolutely my contention, and I believe that the commission ---

THE COURT - Who determines whether or not you proved fraud?

MS. HYATT - I think she admitted to fraud in her -- in her testimony, but ---

THE COURT - No, but who determines that? Who are the fact finders to determine fraud?

MS. HYATT - If you look at -- I think that the commission should've been fact finders, but because they never looked at any of the evidence and then specifically said they weren't going to consider the evidence because we didn't have enough votes, they weren't looking -- they were only looking for a number.

THE COURT - For numbers and not the fraud.

MS. HYATT - And not the fraud. In fact, they -- Mr. Criminger specifically said if you've got fraud to allege, you go to the police department. Well, there is a criminal version of fraud. That's a different standard; that's out of the commission's purview. That's a -- that's a whole different set of facts and everything, but if fraud is proven in the election and if the commission had considered any of those statements of fraud and any of the evidence that we provided of fraud, then the election should be -- is tainted and needs to be overturned.

THE COURT - Okay. For example, what did she do fraudulently or what do you allege she did fraudulently that you believe you proved in front of the election commission?

MS. HYATT - Well, a couple of things. There are several. One is that in -- in Ms. Blackmon-Brace's testimony when she testified before the hearing, she testified -- there was one incident of a person named Velmar Izzer (phonetic). She's a woman in Lancaster County was in disenfranchised. She came to her polling place at First Baptist Church at five minutes to 7:00 on the election night, five minutes to go. She did not have her

ID. When she went to sign up and they asked for her address, she gave it to them; they said I'm sorry, we don't have you, you're supposed to vote at east side. She said, no, I've always voted here. The commissioner was there and heard all of this; I've always voted here; I live at this address; this is where I've always lived. Well, ma'am, we've got you living at this address; that's my brother's address; I don't -- I don't live there. That must be what Ms. Blackmon-Brace did, so we -- that was one of the specific incidents that we put in our protest. At the hearing ---

THE COURT - Was that ballot challenged?

MS. HYATT - I don't -- I don't know. She called -- she contacted -- was talking to Rick Criminger who's the chair of the commission. I don't know whether it was formally protested or how they did, but she was dis-enfranchised, because it was so late; she couldn't get to the other polling place to place her ballot. And in the testimony that Ms. Blackmon-Brace said, she testified that she thought Ms. Izzer (phonetic) lived in a different address when she filled out the change of address for her and it may have been an honest mistake. That's on the transcript on page 84. However, it's not an honest mistake if you've got somebody sitting there who obviously doesn't know what you're doing and you're misleading them into changing their address and they haven't asked you to do that. And then she went on to testify about how she as a candidate assisted voters with filling out their absentee ballots. She went on and on about how she would -- they would talk to her about how they just wanted to vote for Hillary; they just wanted to vote for Hillary Clinton, and that's all they were going to mark, and she went through the ballot with them while they were exercising their right to vote and filling out there ballot and told them, you have to do all of these, because the -- the um sheriff's election is non-partisan, so if you do a -- if you do just Hilary or if you do just democratic, you're not going to vote for sheriff and you're not going to vote for the referendum, so that's another incident that she admitted to. There are -- in the documents that we provided the commission with, there were several incidents of people who had changed their address to -- ten -- six people, in fact, that had changed their address to Ms. Blackmon-Brace's home address that she was using, 104 Rose Lane, and yet there was no water consumption there; nobody was living there, and we contend to this day that nobody lived there at the time of this election. There were also seven incidences of people who -- and this was another problem with the county election commission serving instead of the municipal election commission, because the laws are different. The laws for the municipality require that you live in the city for 30 days prior to being able to vote in the election. You can be a normal -- you have to have all of the other electoral requirements to be a voter, but you have to live in the city for 30 days. There were at least seven people who moved into the city, changed their address less than 30 days before, and there's no indication of when they moved; there's no indication that the voter registration asked them when they moved or asked for any proof, and, in fact, I believe if you look at the transcript in the testimony of Ms. Hudson, she testifies that she -- she did not follow-through with that, that she didn't know to do that, that that wasn't something she needed to do.

THE COURT - All right, let me cut to the chase though, I mean I -- I've read the transcript; I've read the brief. All right, given the time constraints of the statutory construction, 48 hours, you were able to, you believe, prove 14 incidences of voter fraud or what you allege. Is that correct?

MS. HYATT - I don't -- I said that we were able -- we have 29 documents that we entered into one -- one exhibit; we had 33 documents we entered into another 34 and another ---

THE COURT - But how many votes do those translate to?

MS. HYATT - I don't know. We were not able to -- we were only able to submit that as -- as evidence of something that needed to be investigated.

THE COURT - Who has the burden of proof at protest hearings?

MS. HYATT - We do.

THE COURT - Okay. Do you agree ---

MS. HYATT - But that's where my ---

THE COURT - --- that the election commission is a tribunal or an investigative body?

MS. HYATT - I believe that they are tribunal, but that goes to my due process argument that ---

THE COURT - Okay.

MS. HYATT - --- we did not have adequate time to do any type of investigation. We filed the protest hearing and -- a protest at 7:00 o'clock the night -- it was due at 7:00 o'clock on the night -- on Thursday night, filed a subpoena for documents the next morning, and the statute requires that when a protest is filed, that all of the -- the documents that we were asking for are to be in the tribunal when you have the protest, and none of them were there. We had to go down and pick them up. So we had two and a half hours to get my witnesses together, to prepare my client to testify, to -- we filed a subpoena. That's all we could do. We wanted to be able to cross-reference those addresses, cross-references those people. We were prepared to do that investigation all weekend long, but we were not able to do that, and I think that is the crux of our due process argument.

THE COURT - Do you have any case law to support -- - from South Carolina to support your contention that the 48 hour requirement -- well, it's really a -- it's really a 96 hour requirement. You have two days -- you have 48 hours after an election to file a protest, and then you have 48 hours from the time of the filing of the protest to have the hearing in front the election commission.

MS. HYATT - Frankly, I think that that's one of the reasons ---

THE COURT - Do you have any case law on that?

MS. HYATT - Excuse me?

THE COURT - Is there any case law on your due process?

MS. HYATT - I don't have any, and that's why I've been so determined to make a good record in this case because ---

THE COURT - Well, maybe we're going to make some then.

MS. HYATT - Maybe we will. I don't believe there is any. There's some case law that the election commission referred to in telling the Lancaster County Election Commission that they had to have the hearing under those guidelines of the municipal election commission. There is a case -- I believe it's a Bluffton case -- that says that you have to appeal any municipal election protest that the county election commission has to the circuit court. You don't appeal it to the state election commission which would be a -- a county would go to the state election commission; municipal would go here, but there's nothing about those timelines, and where I think that plays into our due-process argument and the whole crux of this case, is that when you're dealing with a municipal election, you are likely dealing with a mayoral election, some city council elections, maybe a board or two, but in a whole, it's a very small election. It can probably be certified in a couple hours as opposed to several days. In this election where the municipal -- where the county is serving as the municipal election commission for this protest, they've got a presidential election; they've got congressional elections; they've got house seats; they've got county council; school board; referendums. They've got -- and then they've got the entire county worth of people that are voting.

THE COURT - And do you think that's why they made the rules so strict for municipal elections to kind of weed that out ---

MS. HYATT - I do.

THE COURT - --- because those are at the bottom of the ladder -- not to offend anybody who serves a municipal slot ---

MS. HYATT - No. No, no.

THE COURT - --- but you understand.

MS. HYATT - I do. I do agree with that, and if a municipal election commission, the Lancaster Municipal Election Commission that was only dealing with these few ballots and these few people had to do it, 48 hours would've been plenty of time. We would've known -- we would've been -- they would've been able to give us the documents that afternoon that we needed to go through.

THE COURT - But isn't that a political decision between the municipal -- the elected officials ---

MS. HYATT - I don't think so.

THE COURT - --- and the county?

MS. HYATT - I don't think so.

THE COURT - And that goes to the crux of their agreement for the county -- I mean -- there's nothing preventing the county council saying we don't want to do it anymore ---

MS. HYATT - And they may after this.

THE COURT - --- and the city saying we don't want you to do it anymore. Right?

MS. HYATT - And they may after this.

THE COURT - Okay.

MS. HYATT - I think that the county was completely overwhelmed with having -- I mean from what I saw, the county election commission was completely overwhelmed with not only having to certify a presidential election and all of the other sundry elections that they had to certify, and in the meantime comply with a protest that had to go on at 12 -- I mean at 2:30 on a Friday afternoon when they were supposed to have their big elections all done. They couldn't comply with it. If it was a municipal election commission that only had those few votes to deal with, we wouldn't have had that problem.

THE COURT - I think the crux -- the important part - and I want you to address -- and the other lawyers are eager to speak, and I'm going to let them address it -- and it's important because I sit here and consider this -- are you suggesting that the commission in their decision not looking for fraud are -- is that what you consider to be an error of law that was made?

MS. HYATT - That they weren't looking for fraud?

THE COURT - They weren't looking for fraud.

MS. HYATT - I think that they ignored the incidences of fraud; they didn't consider the incidences of fraud because they believed those to be criminal in nature and that they could not rule on that, and they were looking solely for numbers.

THE COURT - Okay. And what's the remedy?

MS. HYATT - Sorry?

THE COURT - What's the remedy you seek?

MS. HYATT - I'm asking for the election to be overturned and a new election to be done. I believe that the city requested at the last hearing we had that their only concern was that there be a pristine election and that the city not suffer from the hands of there being some quandary over who is supposed to have that seat, and I think the only way you can remedy that is to cancel that election and have a new one.

THE COURT - All right, thank you, Ms. Hyatt. I'll come back if we need to.

MS. HYATT - Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT - All right, let me hear from the election commission first before I hear from Ms. Blackmon-Brace.

MR. WEAVER - The order pretty much speaks for itself, and other than throwing my two cents in as to what the facts are, ---

THE COURT - Yes, sir.

MR. WEAVER - --- if you would like to hear those, I'll be glad to ---

THE COURT - I would. I want to hear from you. I want to hear your position, and I've read the order, as well, but let me hear from you then as the county attorney, kind of the ex officio of the election commission.

MR. WEAVER - I believe that the commission would have continued the case and allowed all parties sufficient time to gather their evidence but for the advice that we were given from the state elections commission. I asked the lady lawyer at the state elections commission if it had to be held that day; she said yes. That was a federal holiday. I asked her, if we heard it today, could we consider the evidence at a later time, post-pone the decision; she said, no, you have to make it immediately. I asked this question: I said, suppose this was Charleston County and on Tuesday everything was wonderful, the weather was great, everybody had on shorts, but on Thursday Hurricane Hugo hit, would we still have to have the hearing; she said absolutely. And when I heard her say that, from my years of practicing law with due process, I felt she was absolutely wrong, but the commission was there and heard her say that; they were listening on the telephone on speakerphone, and so we moved forward with that directive. We had three commissioners there; one had to be gone at 4:00 o'clock. The other one that was not there was a school teacher and he was in the middle of teaching school, and he, like everyone else, had only three hours notice. So we proceeded ahead, really, against my better judgment in advising the commission, but their decision was to move forward based upon what they heard from the state elections commission's attorney. As for the evidence that was presented, we had laymen given three hours, Ms. Hurley (phonetic) was part of that, of course, as speaking for Ms. Harris. They didn't -- they didn't have time to gather the evidence; they didn't have time to gather their subpoenas. Nobody knew what to put in; nobody -- it wasn't like if we were trying a case here, you'd have a witness testify as to exhibit A and verify it and you would introduce it and give it to the court; they just put stuff in, and that really is all that happened, and I've never seen it to this day. You have it before you, and as far as I know, the commission has never seen it. It was not -- in my opinion, it wasn't fair to Ms. Brace; it wasn't fair to Ms. Harris, and it wasn't fair to the elections commission itself, but we abided by what the state elections commission attorney said and the results are what they are, and I tried to set that out in the order as best I could.

THE COURT - Yes, sir, thank you.

MR. WEAVER - Thank you.

THE COURT - Mr. Belton. Yes, sir.

MR. BELTON - Your Honor, may I approach?

THE COURT - Yes, sir.

(WHEREUPON, DOCUMENT HANDED UP TO THE COURT.)

MR. BELTON - And for the record I have also given that to opposing counsel.

Your Honor, there are a couple things I want to address before I get to the substance of the legal memorandum, and I think it's important, number one, is that when you -- when the protest was filed, it wasn't -- the law has it set out, clearly states that you don't just file a protest and then go and try to find information to substantiate the allegations. You have the reason for filing, and what I've heard here today over the entire presentation before this court is, I don't know, I'm not sure, if we would've had time we could've done this, we should've done this and we could've gotten a subpoena, when the reality of it is, the law is clear. And what I've also heard here today is we disagree with the law, and as I indicated in that memo that this is not the correct place if we disagree with the law. A few more things, Your Honor. The law is that strict, and it's that strict to prevent what we have here and just bald assertions being made out that there may have been something out there but we weren't able to find it. Also the reality of it is, Hugo didn't hit. There was no justifiable reason for offering or allowing a continuance other than we need more time to do our investigation. So -- and in terms of the election commission from my understanding with the number of members who were present, there was a quorum present, so it was a body that was sitting in its legal capacity to make this decision and if -- and the commission, regardless of what we may think about it, it abided by the law, and that's what we have to govern ourselves under, the rule of law. Now, Your Honor, if you will, I do want to turn to the memorandum that I have given you, and I think it kind of to some degree speaks for itself, so certainly that -- you know, the court has already indicated that it's sitting here in an appellate capacity, and what it appears that even now my co-counsel wants -- or opposing counsel wants -- is she wanted the commission or her client wanted the commission to do the investigation. That's not the job of the commission.

THE COURT - Well, that's why I asked the question.

MR. BELTON - And that's why it's in my memo.

THE COURT - Tribunal or an investigative panel.

MR. BELTON - And that's why I have it here at the bottom of page two, Your Honor, that it is not -- well, one of these I have it there -- that very point, that it's not an investigative body. It was sitting as a tribunal; it was the trial court, and it's not their job to go through the thing (sic). I think they were more than fair, that they're allowed 15 minutes to go downstairs and go through the things, and I'll address that here in a second. And what they did was go down and say, hey, give me Brian Gibbons, give me Montrio Belton, give me Linda Blackmon-Brace, give me their ballots, because I know they are fake and come up here and put them in their hands. They didn't do that. They went downstairs and got a arm full of documents and came up and threw it on the commission and say, here, you all go through there and you may find something in there because we believe that there is some evidence in there that is not right. So, Your Honor, let me also talk about the notice of this election commission. If you read here in the case -- and you can read the brief -- it speaks for itself -- should briefly state facts or accommodation of facts sufficient to apprise the contestee of the cause the election (sic). So even in that particular statute -- and it's clearly outlined in the Butler case I gave you -- the purpose of the notice is really for the contestee. It's not for the person who's bringing it, because the assumption is, from the law the person who's bringing it already has the evidence that they're going to bring there. So to argue there was an insufficient amount of time is really, Your Honor, I would argue, not a proper argument. Secondly, Your Honor, the 48 hours when Ms. Harris filed her contest of the election pursuant to the statute, she filed it pursuant to the statute, therefore, she knew the 48 hour limitation, because the statute clearly outlines what the limitation is ---

THE COURT - Let me interrupt you here. Some of the case law -- in fact, some of the case law you handed up, which I've researched on my own, talks about after-discovered evidence. There was no way under the way the statutes have it set up that the protestor could've found this and in the exercise of due process with all this after-discovered evidence we found we need to have -- we need to go back and have a new election because there was fraud. What do you say about that?

MR. BELTON - Your Honor, I'm glad you brought that, because I've also thought through that, as well, and if you read there when you get toward the end of my memo, I talk about that in it, Your Honor. The reality of it is, the vast majority of Ms. Harris's claims here are about absentee ballots and residence. Number one, I would argue, and I know this is not a de novo hearing, but that my client is a resident there and if the court wants to see it properly, I can prove that, but that's not an issue. They didn't prove it. That's -- that's first of all. Secondly, when you talk about the -- the evidence -- and I lost my train of thought there for a second -- when you've talking about the after-discovered evidence, ---

THE COURT - What page do you refer to it in your brief?

MR. BELTON - Oh, the absentee ballots. That's where I was going.

THE COURT - Yes, sir.

MR. BELTON - Most of her -- most of -- the argument from Ms. Harris is about residence and absentee ballots, but if you look there at page 4 of my brief, Your Honor, absentee ballots, actually by statute, are due 9:00 am the day before the election and are open to the public. So to argue now that I only had a few minutes to go downstairs -- less than 15 minutes to go downstairs and look at them, Your Honor, that's actually inaccurate. They were open to the public at 9:00 o'clock the Monday before the Tuesday election. So if you go from the Monday to Friday when the hearing was held, they actually had five days to look at every absentee ballot that they wanted to look at if there was some belief -- because remember now, absentee balloting closes before the election. This didn't become an issue until Ms. Harris lost due to absentee balloting, then she said, well, there must be something wrong here, we need to go in here and file this contest and see, Your Honor, what she had from Monday, but there was no -- no thought about that until afterwards, Your Honor. So, Your Honor, I'm going to -- I'm going to wrap up here and one or two last points.

Your Honor, I think it's clear here that what we had was Ms. Blackmon-Brace simply worked, and she out-worked Ms. -- she out-worked Ms. Harris, and she won this election. She won this election her contention has been and mine has been and we'll present to the court that she won it fair and square. This court's sitting in its appellate posture, Your Honor, I think the correct interpretation of law is, they followed the statute. If we disagree with the statute, we deal with the legislature. That's first. Second of all, that the -- that the commission was not sitting as an investigative body; it was not their job to go through these bundles of things and try to find something. Thirdly, there were bald assertions that were made that were not able to be proven, and as a matter of fact, if you look at the next to the very last sentence of their order, I think they said, there was insufficient evidence that was presented, and Your Honor, to say that they didn't give a fair hearing is also a disservice to what the commission did. Your Honor, I have here, and I know you have the transcript, and I too, have read the transcript every word of it. There was a line of question on page 33, 5 through 7 where Ms. Hyatt is talking about that, and then on page 92, people have called the commission, but there was no documentation of who these people are or who called. Number 3, Chairman Criminger questioned Denice regarding whether or not you were paid, because there is a part of the statute that states that there's nobody who works on your campaign or who receives any money for you can be involved in the absentee thing. The volunteer was questioned by the chairman and the concluding (sic) said I want that on the record. When he asked Denice, were you paid to work on her campaign? No, sir, I was just a volunteer. On page 88 there was asked of -- is it illegal and how many go to her house? She say, no, absentee ballots, that's the reason why people sometimes have address. College kids may live off at college and their absentee ballot goes there and they get it and mail it in. That's the whole purpose. I was in the army. My absentee ballot was shipped to Alabama and wherever else I was and I voted (sic) back in. That's the whole purpose of absentee balloting, and the law clearly states that absentee ballots can go where they want. Again, a bald assertion, an assumption, but they brought no proof to prove it. And one of the commissions said on page 108, line 2, lot of what I heard is hearsay. And it goes on and on. Your Honor has read it. So the reality of it is, Your Honor, to say that a three hour hearing is not enough time where they were given notice, 48 hours, and they followed the statute, so I would say they were on notice, because they filed according to that statute. Number two, were they given an opportunity to present their case? They did present their case, albeit it was a weak case, they were given an opportunity to present it. Were they able to cross-examine witnesses? Absolutely they were able to cross examine witnesses. And were they able to enter evidence? Absolutely they were able to enter evidence. And so all that understand about due process, those are -- those are the factors into due process and it was given to them. They may disagree with the 48 hours, but that's all I've heard, I disagree with the law. And, Your Honor, that's beyond the capacity of this court, and I think that Your Honor, I'm asking that you uphold the decision of the commission and order that Ms. Blackmon-Brace be sworn in immediately as the representative of District 3. Thank you.

THE COURT - Thank you, Mr. Belton. Ms. Hyatt, you get the last word.

MS. HYATT - Thank you, Your Honor. In looking at this 48 hour thing and the I don't like the law, that's not my position. It's not that I don't think that the law is the law or that I don't like the law. What I think is that there is such inconsistency in the way that the two types of entities are supposed to work. In fact, I emailed the elections commission when I was trying to figure out all of this and when I had to file the protest, and I got, you know, the answer that it was a 48 hour thing. But in my email I, I said, looking at all of the different statutes, I'm attempting to file a formal protest, the voter registration office sent me the following information regarding deadlines and procedures; she informed me that the City of Lancaster had given over its election functions, so the Lancaster Election Commission would handle the protest, however, the deadlines are different. So I quoted all of that. Then you've got the -- it says to follow the procedures in the municipal election handbook. So the municipal association election handbook says, a municipality can transfer its authority for conducting -- conducting municipal elections to the county election commission code section 5-15-45. As a condition of the transfer, the governing bodies of the municipality and the county must agree to the terms of the transfer and enact ordinances embodying the terms of that agreement. And it goes through all of the different things that you can put in there. Pursuant if you have sent everything over to the county pursuant to 5-15-45, the MEC, the municipal election commission is abolished. If a municipality transfers only a portion of the responsibilities, then they continue as a municipal election commission. So we contend that the municipal election commission was abolished. If it is abolished, then how can you have to abide by municipal election commission rules when there is no municipal election? So then from the Lancaster City Code of Ordinances, it seems to say that the entire authority of the municipal election commission was transferred to the county, which I had always heard, that the county had everything and it was aggregated, but then it goes on to outline in the code for the city, outline duties and terms for the municipal election commission that they are to provide. They have appointment for the municipal election commission, terms of office, powers of duties, filing of protests and in the -- in the Lancaster City Municipal Code of Ordinances under Section 8-43, which is contest of election, it does not say that it shall hold a hearing within 48 hours. It says the municipal election commission shall after due notice to the parties concerned, conduct a hearing on the contest. I am concerned -- and I say this to the election commission because of all of these different discrepancies -- that I don't have enough time to do all of these things, when do we have to file. The answer I get is the same that Mr. Weaver gets, 48 hours period, 48 hours period. We filed it within 48 hours and I did go to the election commission, and I did look -- we did look at documents; however, we were not allowed to make copies of those so that we could cross reference and get the information we needed. We had the information that we provided in the protest. We weren't asking the county election commission to investigate this. We were saying, we've presented evidence of these -- these documents; we can present more, but this is what we've presented here, and we've presented evidence of fraud, and you can not allow -- and in looking at the Bagwell case, you can't allow the irregularities to taint the entire process for the -- for the county, for the state, for anything; the election process has to be inviolable. And let me just address the Court on the issue, because I do think that's an issue. The commission stated that they had a quorum and they were duly-appointed body. Mr. Weaver states that there were two people that were on the commission that couldn't be there. We also knew that people had to leave at 4:00 o'clock and certain people couldn't be there on Saturday, so we couldn't wait til Saturday. The commission by statute is supposed to have seven people. The two -- two of those seats have been vacant for two years. There are only five members on the commission, but there are seven seats, so we contend that there was not a quorum present and that four members would've been a quorum, so that -- that is my last argument in my brief. And in your thing about -- I'm sorry - in your -- your statement to Mr. Belton about the after-discovered evidence, that's -- that's part of my argument, as well. In the Bagwell case, which I think is instructive in this matter, it talks about -- in that case the -- there were two people -- two people -- that were questioned whether or not they lived in the city the residency requirement of 30 days, two people. Those -- that election was entirely overturned because that led to the impropriety of that election. So I think that case is definitely instructive and right on point with this case. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT - Thank you. Mr. Belton, you want to say something?

MR. BELTON - Your Honor, just two things very quickly. In terms of the -- the quorum issue was not before the tribunal and is not properly before this Court. I mean it's never raised. That's the first time it's been raised. Secondly, Your Honor, in terms of after-discovered evidence, before that tribunal -- not that Court ---

THE COURT - Right.

MR. BELTON - -- I misspoke, but um ---

THE COURT - Did you raise that in front of the election commission, they didn't have proper quorum?

MS. HYATT - I did not. They -- I wasn't aware at the time that there were seven seats on the election commission. I just knew there were five ---

THE COURT - I've always thought quorum is you go with the majority of active members.

MS. HYATT - I -- we just assert that there is not ---

THE COURT - Well, that's -- certainly you have seven seats, but two are vacant, so if there's five, then three would be a quorum.

All right, go ahead. Anyway, go ahead.

MR. BELTON - Yes. Your Honor, again, just for -- it wasn't before the commission; it wasn't raised then; it's not properly before this Court.

THE COURT - I agree with you on that.

MR. BELTON - All right, secondly, I mean in terms of after-discovered evidence, I -- there still hasn't been any presented, still allegations, still bald assertions, none. And the last thing I'll say, in terms of the confusion by the statute, there is no confusion with the statute on how it's -- how it's to be governed and how it's to be operated. I gave to Your Honor the Bluffton case; I'm sure Your Honor is familiar with it. It was mentioned at the commission; I've read it; I've researched it; I've shepardized it. There is no -- there is no confusion how this statute operates, the interplay between the two commissions, the county and -- the South Carolina Supreme Court clarify all of that, and they clearly clarified it in the Bluffton case. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT - All right. I'm going to take the matter under advisement and render a decision to go over everything again. I will tell you since it's my turn to talk, just for the purpose of the record, you know, for the life of me, I don't know why I couldn't find it; I went on WESTLAW, went on -- opinion searched through the Court's website, but I recall a time in the not so distance past -- I eluded to this last week when I was hearing a motion to dismiss -- I was the city attorney for the City of Chester from 1992 to 1999. I was the Fort Lawn town attorney from 1997 til 2005, as well as the Great Falls town attorney. Okay? So I was three different municipalities' attorney, so I was very familiar with how these things work. Okay? I remember in the mid-90s there was a contested municipal election in the City of Chester. The participants were Christopher King, John King's father, and I forget who the other one was.

MR. HALL - Foster.

THE COURT - Yes, that's right. Say it -- what's the name?

MR. HALL - Foster.

THE COURT - Foster. That's correct. The people on the other side were Roger Britten and Mitch Foster was the mayor at the time. I, just like Mr. Weaver, was the attorney at the municipal election commission hearing. All right? And the allegations were fraud, dead people voting, people who weren't residents. We had the hearing; the long and short of it is, within the 48 hour period, same arguments which you brought up, Ms. Hyatt, today were brought up back then. All those were taken under consideration, and I just recall that Mr. Foster and Mr. Britten had a lot of allegations, but they really -- they didn't have the time to prove anything. Well, they appealed. The commission upheld the results of the election. They appealed and it went to the Circuit Court, Don Rushing from Lancaster; it was one of the last things he did before he retired, so this -- he retired in 1995, so this would've been in, if I'm not mistaken, the summer of 1995 before he retired, so it must've been -- it was -- it was the 1994 municipal election in the City of Chester. Okay? And so in the summer of '95 I believe he heard -- he reversed the decision of the municipal election commission certifying the election results and allowed a de novo hearing and allowed a trial on the issue of fraud and on the issue of everything that -- in the meantime they had gathered enough evidence to do. Y'all -- you see where I'm going with this?

(WHEREUPON, NO RESPONSE)

THE COURT - And a week-long trial ensued, and half the community sat on one side; the other half of the community sat on the other side. It was not a pretty day or a pretty week in Chester. And the result of it was that Judge Rushing threw out the election results and ordered a new election. Okay? That was appealed to the Supreme County of South Carolina and a unanimous five to zero opinion throughout Judge Rushing's decision, even after all this stuff had been proven and a week-long trial, threw it all out and said the 48 hour hearing was sufficient under the law. Now, you know, so that's my personal involvement with the matter before the Court. I'm -- I'm familiar with that case, but I'm familiar with the other cases which y'all have cited and handed up to me, so I just want to make sure y'all understand where I'm at. If y'all want to try to find that you can. I -- maybe it was quoted or cited in one of these other cases that y'all have handed up, but for the life of me I could not find the cite of that case, and I know I looked for it, because I wanted to see what the language was in that. The reason I bring that up is because the law wants a quick decision on elections, because things got to keep moving; governments have to operate. So I -- I'm not going to sit on this long. I plan on rendering a decision fairly soon, probably by the first of the week. Okay? And when I do so, I need to make sure I have all the attorneys' e-mail addresses, so after the hearing y'all bring them up if I don't already have them, so I can e-mail you out my decision and then we'll go from there.

Okay, anything else for the purpose of the record?

MR. BELTON - No, Your Honor.

THE COURT - Ms. Hyatt, anything else?

MS. HYATT - Nothing, other than I searched for that opinion for the last week and haven't been able to find it either.

THE COURT - I got you.

Mr. Weaver, anything else?

MR. WEAVER - Nothing, no, sir.

THE COURT - All right, that concludes the hearing in this matter. Thank you very much.

MR. BELTON - Thank you, Your Honor.

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, Lanny Pennington, who, being duly sworn, does hereby depose and say:

I am an independent process server. I was hired to serve a copy of the attached papers on Linda Blackmon or Linda Blackmon-Brace, on Friday, December 9, 2016. I was given the attached package which includes several addresses for the Defendant, including 104 Rose Lane, Lancaster, SC.

I attempted service on December 9, 2016, and again on several dates and times at this address and there was no answer or activity at this location. I also attempted service at 107 E. Arch St., Lancaster, on several occasions with no answer or activity noted. Phone calls were not answered nor returned. Neighbors were unresponsive. I attempted to locate a "river" address where she mentioned she lived and was unsuccessful. I tried several other addresses noted on the background report with no success.

On December 14, 2016, I again attempted service at 107 E. Arch Street, where Ms. Blackmon accepted service.

Further, your affiant sayeth not.
