SC Court of Appeals

RE: Odom v. Wilson, et al
Case No. 11-CP-42-2032

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Enclosed please find the Certificate of Service for the Record on Appeal (Record) on Assistant Attorney General J. Emory Smith for the above referenced case. This Record is being submitted under objection. Appellant previously filed on October 22, 2012, a motion to exclude certain matters from the Record to be included by the Respondent, as well as a thirty day extension to file the Record on Appeal. However, due to time constraints the portion of our motion for an extension on time to file the Record is mute.

Appellant on October 30, 2012 was informed by the Clerk's Office for the S.C. Court of Appeals that our motion as listed above had been lost. This issue has now been resolved, however, Appellant wants to be clear that it is not waiving any objections contained in that motion. Appellant as stated, files this Record under the objections contained in its motion filed on October 22, 2012.

Additionally, Appellant now requests that it be granted a thirty day extension to file its Final Brief and Final Reply in this case. Appellant is doing so to allow time for the Court to resolve the dispute concerning the Record on Appeal before Respondent files their Final Response Brief. Should you have any questions of concerns please contact me.

Sincerely,

Tina L.M. Young
