SC Court of Appeals

Dear Clerk,

I am filing my final brief with your office, and all parties involved have been served. I ask you to please send me a clock stamped copy of it. I am sure you are aware that SC Dept. of Corrections will not copy hand generated copies. Therefore, I respectfully request of you to please make enough copies for the Justices of the court of appeals. I am requesting that you incorporate my initial brief for the court to consider. As in the case of Haines V. Kerner, "404 U.S. 519, (1972) (Pro se complaintant held to less stringent standards than pleading drafted by professional lawyers.) The respondent respectfully ask the court's mindfulness of me being a novice. I thank you in advance for your assistance and I await your response.

Respectfully Submitted,

s/ Johnny S. Burton
