SC Court of Appeals

Clarence B. Jenkins Jr., Employee,Appellant,

v.

Amazon.Com DEDC, LLC, Employer and American Zurich Ins., Carrier,Respondents.

APPELLANT'S MOTION ADDITION

Appellant submit Motion Addition pertaining to the abuse and neglect of Amazon.Com DEDC LLC and American Zurich Ins. Co. as stated by South Carolina Code of Law 42-17-60. In a letter dated December 17, 2014 from Gary Cannon, Director of South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission (Herein after SCWCC) to Appellant affirms 42-17-60, In case of an appeal from the decision of the commission on question of law, the appeal does not operate as a supersedeas and, after that time, the employer is required to make weekly payments of compensation and to provide medical treatment ordered by the commission in accordance with the provision of this title. See attachment.

Appellant notice of appeal to South Carolina Court of Appeals involves alleged errors of law SCWCC R67-611, SC Code 42-17-50, SC Code 42-1-160 (A) and SC Code of law 42-9-10. Appellant would like to submit this pertinent document pertaining to SC Code of Law 42-17-60 which was inadvertently overlooked but is a part of record for SCWCC. Amazon.Com DEDC LLC and American Zurich Ins. Co has never provided weekly compensation or medical treatment as stated by SC Code of Law 42-17-60 and affirmed by Gary Cannon, Director of SCWCC. Amazon.Com DEDC LLC and American Zurich Ins. Co. abused and neglected SC Code of Law 42-17-60. Respondents has been provided notification of SC 42-17-60.

WHEREFORE, Appellant request a public reprimand for Respondents, past and current weekly compensation and medical treatment which is required by SC 42-17-60 since case is on appeal.

SECTION 42-17-60. Conclusiveness of award; appeals; payment of compensation during appeal; accrual of interest.

The award of the commission, as provided in Section 42-17-40, if not reviewed in due time, or an award of the commission upon the review, as provided in Section 42-17-50, is conclusive and binding as to all questions of fact. However, either party to the dispute, within thirty days from the date of the award or within thirty days after receipt of notice to be sent by registered mail of the award, but not after, whichever is the longest, may appeal from the decision of the commission to the court of appeals. Notice of appeal must state the grounds of the appeal or the alleged errors of law. In case of an appeal from the decision of the commission on questions of law, the appeal does not operate as a supersedeas and, after that time, the employer is required to make weekly payments of compensation and to provide medical treatment ordered by the commission involved in the appeal or certification until the questions at issue have been fully determined in accordance with the provisions of this title. Interest accrues on an unpaid portion of the award at the legal rate of interest as established in Section 34-31-20(B) during the pendency of an appeal.

HISTORY: 1962 Code Section 72-356; 1952 Code Section 72-356; 1942 Code Section 7035-63; 1936 (39) 1231; 1988 Act No. 677, Section 3, eff June 27, 1988; 1990 Act No. 439, Section 1, eff April 24, 1990; 2007 Act No. 111, Pt I, Section 30, eff July 1, 2007, applicable to injuries that occur on or after that date.
