

Dear Mrs Kitchins

(1)

Date 9/21/17

My name is Travis Mingo and I'm writing you on the behalf of my appeal I received (7/24/17) and to be honest Mrs Kitchins I truly lacked understanding on a lot to do and a lot to be said being that we never done an appeal or had the help from my Attorney (Michael Von Davis) Attorney at the Governor's Office Public Defender Office) it wasn't he filed the appeal on (7/19) when I received the appeal I was already sentenced and was at Kirkland K35 Correctional Institution where I knew how one that could help me and being that I was going there in care I had no access to the law library so I prayed and did my best at a writing and (additional) available basis that could have been off issues (response) for appeal within (30) days from the date I received my appeal (7/24/17) I received my written documents on (8/2/17) Mrs Kitchins I've wanted to have something that containing a letter of some what that have not been read by the court of appeals or my attorney with the being and I know well as if I had done something wrong as of how I went about my arguments on my appeal I prayed and kept faith that I would have something to which I understand these things for here and there I'm already starting to lose my faith calling home I started to try and reach out to my attorney but he would never be in touch with him as of today Mrs Kitchins (9/21/17) I've come to find new basis of arguments that I pray that you can consider my arguments.

Travis A Mingo

① I Argue that my Probation should have not been revoked and my sentence imposed being that I had not been found guilty of any charges.

② I Argue that my Probation should have been reinstated being that I served (45) days for the violation being that I missed court or waived until I was found guilty of any pending charges and or dealt with by the judge that put me on Probation.

③ I Argue that the Judge shouldn't have imposed my sentence being that it was an suspended sentence and I had already done 2 years on that suspended sentence.

④ I Argue that the Judge should have only sentenced me the rest of the time I had on Probation or the 3 years I had of Probation being that I had no convictions.

⑤ I Argue that the Judge overlooked and did not acknowledge the recommendation from the Probation and Solicitor that my violation was minor and imposed my sentence.
